Republic of India.

AN

ACT

to provide, in the public interest for the regulation of alienation of land in certain cases.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section
3 of the Assam State Legislature (Delegation of Powers)
Act, 1980, the President is pleased to enact as follows.—[38] of 1980.

Short title 1 (1) This Act may be called the Assam Alienation and extent, of Land (Regulation) Act, 1980.

(2) It extends to the whole of Assam.

Definitions. 2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "alienation" in relation to any land means the transfer of such land by sale, mortgage, lease exchange, gift, will or otherwise;

(b) "land" includes building or structures thereon
and any right therein;

(c) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made by the State Government under this Act.

Act to over-ride other laws, etc. 3 The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law or in any contract, express or implied, or in any instrument.

Restrictions on alienation. 4. No. person shall without the previous sanction of the Collector obtained in such manner as may be prescribed, make any alienation of any land in favour of any person when such person is—

(a) an individual who is not a citizen of India; or

(b) a body corporate or firm of which the majority of the directors, shareholders or partners as the case may be, are not citizens of India, or which is incorporated, formed or registered outside India.

Withholding] 5. (1) The sanction referred to in section 4 may be of sanction. withheld if—

(a) the transferee is, in the opinion of the Collector, unsuitable, or

(b) the proposed alienation is, in the opinion of the Collector, prejudicial to the public interest.

(2) Where the Collector withholds any sanction under this section, he shall record his reasons for doing so.

(3) An appeal shall lie from the order of the Collector withholding sanction under sub-section (1) within sixty days from the date of such order to the State Government:

Provided that the State Government may entertain an appeal after the expiry of the period of sixty days if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing it in time.

(4) On receipt of any such appeal, the State Government shall, after giving the appellant a reasonable opportunity of being heard and after making such inquiry as it deems proper, decide the appeal.

(5) The decision of the State Government on such appeal and, where no such appeal is preferred, the decision of the Collector under sub-section (1) shall be final.

Consequences of alienation in contravention of section 4. 6. (1) Any alienation of any land made in contravention of the provisions of section 4 shall be void and of no effect and the land alienated shall vest in the State Government from the date of alienation free from all encumbrances.

(2) The Collector may, after giving the parties an opportunity of being heard, by order—

(a) direct any person in whose possession or control any land or part of land vested in the State Government under sub-section (1) may be to deliver possession thereof to the State Government.

(b) impose on the transferor a penalty which may amount to double the consideration for which such land was alienated; and

(c) if, in the opinion of the Collector, there are circumstances justifying a refund of the consideration, if any, paid by the transferee in respect of such land, allow the transferee such refund.

(3) The penalty imposed under clause (b) of sub-section (2) shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

Delivery of possession of land to State Government and penalty. 7. (1) On the issue by the Collector of an order under clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 6 directing the delivery of possession of any land or part of land to the State Government, any person in whose possession or control such land or part of land may be, shall forthwith deliver possession thereof to the State Government.

(2) If any person refuses or fails to comply with the provisions of sub-section (1), the Collector shall—

(a) if he is a Magistrate, enforce the delivery to the State Government of the possession of the land or part of the land in respect of which such refusal has been made or failure has been committed; or

(b) if he is not a Magistrate apply to a Magistrate and such Magistrate shall enforce the delivery to the State Government of the possession of such land or part of land
