6. (1) There shall be the following classes of taxing authorities for the purposes of this Act, namely,— Taxing authorities and their appointment.

- (a) Commissioner of Taxes;
- (b) Deputy Commissioner of Taxes;
- (c) Taxation Officer;
- (d) Additional Taxation Officer;
- (e) Inspectors.

(2) Commissioner of Taxes shall be the Commissioner under this Act and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be required by or under the Act or the rules made thereunder.

(3) The state Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint as many Taxation Officers, Additional Taxation Officers and Inspectors as may be necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act and may in the same or like notification define the local limits of their jurisdiction.

(4) The powers and duties of the Commissioner, Taxation Officer and Additional Taxation Officer and Inspectors and their relation with one another shall be such as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER IV ASSESSMENT

Returns.

7. (1) Every person liable to pay tax under this Act shall submit to the assessing authority a return in such form and within such time as may be prescribed:

Provided that a person in respect of whom the tax has been deducted under the provisions of section 11 shall, subject to the provisions in sub-section (3) thereof, be exempt from the liability to submit a return under this sub-section.

(2) In the case of any person who has not furnished a return under sub-section (1) in spite of his liability to pay tax under this Act for any financial year, the assessing authority may serve in that year a notice, in the prescribed form, on such person requiring him to furnish the return; and such person shall thereupon furnish the return within the period specified in the notice:

Provided that any person offering to pay tax at the highest rate specified in the Schedule shall not be required to submit any return or to produce any evidence.

Assessment.

8. (1) If the assessing authority is satisfied that a return furnished under section 7 is correct and complete he shall, by an order in writing, make assessment and determine the tax payable by the assessee on the basis of such return.

(2) If the assessing authority is not satisfied that return furnished under section 7 is correct and complete, he shall serve on the person concerned a notice requiring him, on the date, and at the hour and place to be specified therein, either to attend in person or to produce or cause to be produced evidence in support of the return.

(3) On the days specified in the notice under sub-section (2) or as soon afterward as may be, the assessing authority, after hearing such evidence as may be produced and such other evidence as he may require, shall, by an order in writing, assess the income and determine the tax payable by him.

(4) If any person fails to make a return as required by section 7 or having made the return fails to comply with the terms of the notice under sub-section (2), the assessing authority shall, by an order in writing, assess, to the best of his judgement, the income and determine the tax payable by him:

Provided that before making assessments, the assessing authority may allow the person such further time as he thinks fit to make the return or comply with the terms of the notice issued under sub-section (2).

9. If for any reason, the income of any person has not been assessed or has been under assessed for any financial year, the assessing authority may, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) of section 7, at any time within three years of the end of that year, serve on the person liable to pay the tax, a notice containing all or any of the requirements which may be included in a notice under sub-section (2) of section 7 and may proceed to assess or reassess his income and the provisions of this Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly as if the notice were a notice issued under that sub-section:

Assessment
of escaped tax.

Provided that the tax shall be charged at the rate at which it would have been charged if the person would not have escaped assessment or full assessment, as the case may be.

10. (1) The authority which made an assessment or passed an order on appeal or revision in respect thereof, may of his own motion, and shall if an application is filed in this behalf, within three years from the date of such assessment or order, rectify any mistake apparent from the record of the case:

Rectification of mistakes.

Provided that no such rectification having adverse effect upon an assessee shall be made unless the assessee has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(2) Where any such rectification has the effect of reducing the assessment, the assessing authority shall order any refund which may be due to such person.

(3) Where any such rectification has the effect of enhancing the assessment or reducing the refund, the assessing authority shall serve on the person a notice of demand in the prescribed form specifying the sum payable, and such notice of demand shall be deemed to be issued under section 18 and provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly.

11. (1) The tax shall be payable in advance under this Act within the financial year next preceding the assessment year by any person in the employment of any Government, Local authority, Company, Firm or other association of persons and shall be deducted in the manner prescribed by the Principal Officer thereon from amount payable to such person on behalf of such Government, Local authority, Company, Firm or other association or persons:

Deduction

Provided that the advance tax deductible or payable under this sub-section in respect of the total gross income of the previous year relating to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, every year shall be deducted or paid in one instalment by the 30th day of March, every year.

(2) The principal officer making any deduction under sub-section (1) shall submit to the assessing authority such return and within such time as may be prescribed.

(3) The assessing authority may take action if he thinks fit in the manner provided by sub-section (2) of section 7 and by section 8, in the case of any person in respect of whom he is satisfied that no return under sub-section (3) has been furnished or a return furnished under that sub-section is inaccurate or deficient.

(4) Where any principal officer fails to deduct any tax or after deducting fails to pay it as required by or under this Act, he shall, without prejudice to any other consequences he may incur under this Act, be deemed to be a person in default in respect of the tax deducted or paid and all the provisions of section 19 shall apply to him:

Provided that the assessing authority shall not make a direction under sub-section (2) of section 19 for the recovery of any penalty from such person unless it is satisfied that such person has wilfully failed to deduct and pay the tax.

Requisition for deduction
of tax.

12. The assessing authority may require a principal officer to deduct, from any payment to a person, any tax or penalty due from him and the principal officer shall comply with such requisition.

Indemnity.

13. The principal officer deducting or paying any tax under the provisions of this Act is hereby indemnified for such deduction or payment thereof.

Payment of advance tax in case not covered by section 11.

14. The tax shall be payable in advance by an assessee who is now covered by section 11 of the Act within the financial year next proceeding the assessment year in two instalments on the 15th day of September and the 15th day of March in respect of his estimated total gross income of the previous year:

Provided that advance tax deductible or payable under this section in respect of the total gross income of the previous year relating to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, every year shall be paid in one instalment by the 30th day of March, every year.

Appeals.

15. (1) Any assessee objecting to an order passed under this Act by any officer other than the Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner of taxes or the Taxation Officer mentioned in section 6 of this Act may, within thirty days from the service of such order, appeal to the Taxation Officer against such order in the manner prescribed:

Provided that no appeal against an order of assessment or penalty shall be entertained by the Taxation Officer unless he is satisfied that the amount of tax assessed or penalty levied, if not otherwise directed by him, has been paid:

Provided further that the Taxation Officer before whom the appeal is filed may admit it after the expirations of thirty days, if he is satisfied that for reasons beyond the control of the appellant or any other sufficient cause it could not be filed within time :

Provided also that no such appeal shall be admitted after a period of six months from the date of service of the notice or demand relating to the assessment on the date of service of the order, as the case may be.

(2) Every appeal under sub-section (1) shall be presented in such form with such fees and shall be verified in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) The Taxation Officer shall fix a day and place for hearing of the appeal, and may from time to time adjourn the hearing and make or cause to be made, such further enquiry as may be deemed necessary.

(4) In disposing of the appeal under sub-section (1) against an order of assessment or penalty the Taxation Officer may,—

(a) confirm, reduce, enhance or annul the assessment, or

(b) set aside the assessment and direct a fresh assessment after such enquiry as may be ordered, or

(c) confirm, reduce or annul the order of penalty.

(5) The appellate authority shall, on the conclusion of the appeal communicate the orders passed by it to the appellant and the assessing authority.

16. (1) The Commissioner of Taxes may call for and examine the record of any proceeding under the Act and if he considers that any order passed therein by any officer other than himself, is erroneous in so far as it is prejudicial to the interest of revenue he may, after giving the assessee an opportunity of being heard and after making or causing to be made such enquiry as he deems necessary, pass such orders thereon as the circumstances of the cases justify, including an order enhancing or modifying the assessment, or cancelling the assessment and directing a fresh assessment. Revision.

(2) In the case of any order other than an order to which sub-section (1) applied, passed under this Act by any officer other than himself, the Commissioner of Taxes may of his own motion, and in the case of an order passed under section 15 also, subject to such rules as may be prescribed, on a petition by an assessee for revision, call for the record of any proceeding under this Act in which any such order has been passed and may make such enquiry or cause such enquiry to be made, and subject to the provision of this Act may pass such order thereon not being an order prejudicial to the assessee, as he thinks fit :

Provided that the Commissioner of Taxes may dispense with the enquiry required to be made under this sub-section, if he, for reasons to be recorded, considers such enquiry to be not necessary.

(3) In the case of a petition for revision under sub-section (2) by an assessee, the petition shall be made within ninety days from the date on which the order in question was communicated to him or the date on which he otherwise comes to know of it, whichever is earlier :

Provided that the Commissioner of Taxes before whom the petitions is filed may admit it after the expiration of the period of ninety days if he is satisfied that for reasons beyond the control of the petitioner or for any other sufficient cause, it could not be filed within time.

Explanation : An order by the Commissioner of Taxes declining to interfere shall, for the purpose of this section, be deemed an order prejudicial to the assessee.

Delegation of powers.

17. The Commissioner of Taxes may, by notification in the Official Gazette, delegate the powers under section 16 to the Deputy Commissioner/Deputy Commissioner of Taxes.

CHAPTER VI

DEMANDS, PAYMENT & RECOVERY

Notice of Demand.

18. Where any tax or penalty is payable in consequence of any order passed under or in pursuance of this Act, the assessing authority shall serve on the person concerned a notice of demand in the prescribed form specifying the amount so payable.

Dues when payable.

19. (1) The tax or penalty payable under this Act shall be paid in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) Every person liable to furnish a return under sub-section (1) of section 7 shall, before he furnished the return pay into a Government treasury the full amount of tax due on the basis of such return and shall furnish, along with the returns a receipt from such treasury in token of such payment.

(3) The principal officer deducting any tax under section 11 shall pay the amount to a Government treasury within thirty days of such deduction and shall furnish along with the returns required to be made under sub-section (2) thereof, a receipt from such treasury in token of such payment.

(4) The amount of tax or penalty due under this Act;

(a) in excess of payment already made; or

(b) where no payment has been made,

shall be paid by such date as may be specified in the notice of demand and, where no such date is specified, it shall be paid within thirty days of service of the notice of demand.

20. (1) Where any tax or other dues payable under this Act is not paid on or before the due date the person shall be deemed to be in default. Mode of recovery.

(2) Where a person is in default, the assessing authority may in his discretion direct that, in addition to the amount due, a sum not exceeding the amount of tax in arrear shall be recovered from the defaulter by way of penalty:

Provided that before directing the recovery of any such penalty the assessee shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(3) Where a person is in default, the assessing authority shall unless action has been taken under section 12, order that the amount due shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue and shall proceed to realise the amount due as such.

21. Any person who has paid any tax or penalty in excess of the amount due under this Act may, within ninety days of the service of the order of assessment or that passed on appeal or revision as the case may be, apply for a refund and the amount paid in excess shall be refund accordingly. Refund
