- (25) to co-ordinate the activities of, and give financial aid to, affiliated or recognized colleges and institutions;
- (26) to make grants to the National Cadet Corps from the University Fund;
- (27) to enter into an agreement with the Government or with any person, body or authority for the taking over by the University of the management of any college or institution, including its assets and liabilities, or for any other purpose not repugnant to the provisions of this Act;
- (28) to acquire, hold and dispose of property, movable and immovable, and to make grants and advances for furthering any of its objects;
- (29) to accept and administer gifts, endowments and benefactions, for the furtherance of any of its objects for the University or for or on behalf of any college or institution established by, affiliated to, or recognized by, the University, and to institute awards, fellowships, travelling fellowships, scholarships, studentships, stipends, bursaries, exhibitions, medals and prizes;

(Chapter II.—The University and its officers.—Sections 5, 6.)

- (30) to accept grants and to raise loans or to accept loans from the Central or any State Government or the University Grants Commission, and with the approval of the State Government also from other sources;
- (31) to co-operate with other universities, institutions and educational authorities in matters that relate to and further the educational objectives of the University;
- (32) generally to do all such acts and things as may be necessary or desirable for, or incidental to, the advancement of the objects or purposes of the University.

Jurisdiction of the University.

5. (1) Save as hereinafter otherwise provided, the local limits of jurisdiction of the University (hereinafter referred to as the territorial limits of the University) shall extend to the whole of West Bengal, but nothing in this Act shall affect the powers exercised or exercisable by the university known as Rabindra Bharati established and incorporated under the Rabindra Bharati Act, 1961.

West Ben.
Act XXIX of

(2) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1), the territorial limits of the University shall not include any area which, for the time being, is included within the local limits of jurisdiction of any other university, not being the university known as Rabindra Bharati referred to in sub-section (1), established by law within West Bengal.

(3) The University shall, in respect of every college or institution situated outside the territorial limits of the University, but deemed to be affiliated to it on the appointed day under clause (b) of sub-section (9) of section 59, continue to exercise the powers conferred by or under this Act until such college or institution is disaffiliated in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(4) Any college or institution situated outside the territorial limits of the University may, with the sanction of the State Government, apply to the University for admission to the privileges of the University, and such college or institution may, subject to such conditions and restrictions as the University may, with the approval of the State Government, think fit to impose, be admitted to the privileges of the University.

Officers
of the University.

6. The following shall be the officers of the University:—

- (1) the Vice-Chancellor;
- (2) the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs;
- (3) the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance;
- (4) the Registrar;
- (5) persons holding such other posts as may be declared by Statutes to be posts of officers of the University;

XXXVIII of 1979.]

(Chapter II.—The University and its officers.—Sections 7, 8.)

7. (1) The Governor shall, by virtue of his office, be the Chancellor of the University. He shall be the head of the University and the President of the Senate and shall, when present, preside at the meetings of the Senate.

The Chancellor.

(2) The Chancellor shall have the power to remove the Vice-Chancellor or the Pro-Vice-Chancellors from office by an order in writing in this behalf on the charges of misappropriation or mismanagement of funds of the University or misbehaviour:

Provided that such charges are proved by an inquiry conducted by a person, who is or has been a judge of a High Court or of the Supreme Court, appointed by the Chancellor for the purpose:

Provided further that the Vice-Chancellor or the Pro-Vice-Chancellors shall not be removed under this sub-section unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken against him.

(3) The Chancellor shall exercise such powers as may be conferred on him by or under the provisions of this Act.

(4) Where power is conferred upon the Chancellor to make nominations to any authority or body of the University, the Chancellor shall, to the extent necessary, nominate persons to represent interests not otherwise adequately represented.

(5) Every proposal to confer any honorary degree shall be subject to confirmation by the Chancellor.

8. (1) The Vice-Chancellor shall be appointed by the Chancellor on the unanimous recommendation of the Senate. If the Senate fails to make any such recommendation, the Vice-Chancellor shall be appointed by the Chancellor in consultation with the Minister from a panel of three persons to be elected by the Senate in accordance with the system of proportional representation by means of the single transferable vote.

The Vice-
Chancellor.

(2) (a) The Vice-Chancellor shall hold office for a period of four years or till he attains the age of 65 years, whichever is earlier, and shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be eligible for re-appointment for a period not exceeding four years.

(b) The Chancellor may, notwithstanding the expiration of the term of the office of the Vice-Chancellor or his attaining the age of 65 years, allow him to continue in office till a successor assumes office, provided that he shall not continue as such for any period exceeding one year.

(3) The Vice-Chancellor shall be a whole-time officer of the University and shall be paid from the University Fund a salary of three thousand and five hundred rupees per month and such allowances as the Chancellor may decide.

(Chapter II.—The University and its officers.—Section 9.)

(4) The Vice-Chancellor may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Chancellor.

(5) If—

- (a) the Vice-Chancellor is, by reason of leave, illness or other cause, temporarily unable to exercise the powers and perform the duties of his office, or
- (b) a vacancy occurs in the office of the Vice-Chancellor by reason of death, resignation or expiry of the term of his office, removal or otherwise, then, during the period of such temporary inability or pending the appointment of a Vice-Chancellor, as the case may be, the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Vice-Chancellor.

(6) The vacancy in the office of the Vice-Chancellor occurring by reason of death, resignation or expiry of the term of his office, removal or otherwise shall be filled up by appointment of a Vice-Chancellor in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) within a period of six months from the date of occurrence of the vacancy.

Powers and duties of the Vice-Chancellor.

9. (1) The Vice-Chancellor shall be the principal executive and academic officer of the University and shall, in the absence of the Chancellor, preside at the meeting of the Senate. He shall, by virtue of his office, be a member and the Chairman of the Syndicate and the Faculty Councils for post-graduate studies and also the Chairman of any other authority or body of the University of which he may be a member. He shall also be entitled to be present at and to address any meeting of any other authority or body of the University of which he may not be a member, but shall not be entitled to vote thereat.

(2) The Vice-Chancellor shall have the power to convene meetings of the Senate, the Syndicate, the Faculty Councils for post-graduate studies and of any other authority or body of the University.

(3) It shall be the duty of the Vice-Chancellor to ensure that the provisions of this Act, and the Statutes, the Ordinances and the Regulations, are faithfully observed, and to take such action as may be necessary for this purpose.

(4) The Vice-Chancellor shall have the power to exercise general control and supervision over all other officers of the University and over all Teachers and employees of the University and generally over all the affairs of the University and shall decide and dispose of all appeals in disciplinary matters not provided for in section 36.

(5) The Vice-Chancellor shall exercise such other powers and discharge such other duties as may be delegated to him by any authority or body of the University or as may be prescribed by Statutes, Ordinances or Regulations.

XXXVIII of 1979.]

(Chapter II.—The University and its officers.—Section 10.)

(6) The Vice-Chancellor may take on behalf of the University such action as he may deem expedient in any matter which, in his opinion, is either urgent or of an emergent nature and shall report the same for confirmation at the next meeting to the authority or body which, in the ordinary course, would have dealt with the matter:

Provided that if the action taken by the Vice-Chancellor is not approved by the authority or body concerned, the matter shall immediately be referred to the Chancellor whose decision thereon shall be final.

(7) The Vice-Chancellor may at any time delegate any of his powers to any other officer subordinate to him.

10. (1) The Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs shall be appointed by the Chancellor in consultation with the Minister and the Vice-Chancellor. The term of his office shall be for four years and he shall be eligible for re-appointment for a period not exceeding four years but shall not hold office beyond the age of 65 years.

The Pro-
Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs.

(2) The Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs shall be a whole time officer of the University and shall be paid from the University Fund a salary of two thousand seven hundred and fifty rupees per month and such allowances as the Chancellor may decide.

(3) The Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Chancellor.

(4) If—

- (a) the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs is, by reason of leave, illness or other cause, temporarily unable to exercise the powers and perform the duties of his office, or
- (b) a vacancy occurs in the office of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs by reason of death, resignation or expiry of the term of his office, removal or otherwise, then, during the period of such temporary inability or pending the appointment of a Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs, as the case may be, the Chancellor in consultation with the Minister and the Vice-Chancellor shall authorise a Teacher of the University or an officer of the University to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs.

(5) The vacancy in the office of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs occurring by reason of death, resignation or expiry of the term of his office, removal or otherwise shall be filled up by appointment of a Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) within a period of six months from the date of occurrence of the vacancy.

(Chapter II.—The University and its officers.—Sections 11, 12.)

Powers and duties of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor
for Academic Affairs.

11. (1) Subject to the supervision, direction and general control of the Vice-Chancellor, the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs shall be the chief academic and administrative officer in matters concerning undergraduate studies and research and such other matters as may be delegated to him.

(2) The Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed or delegated to him by or under the provisions of this Act.

The Pro-Vice-
Chancellor
for Business Affairs and Finance.

12. (1) The Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance shall be appointed by the Chancellor in consultation with the Minister and the Vice-Chancellor. The term of his office shall be for four years and he shall be eligible for re-appointment for a period not exceeding four years but shall not hold office beyond the age of 65 years.

(2) The Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance shall be a whole time officer of the University and shall be paid from the University Fund a salary of two thousand seven hundred and fifty rupees per month and such allowances as the Chancellor may decide.

(3) The Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Chancellor.

(4) If—

- (a) the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance is, by reason of leave, illness or other cause, temporarily unable to exercise the powers and perform the duties of his office, or
- (b) a vacancy occurs in the office of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance by reason of death, resignation or expiry of the term of his office, removal or otherwise,

then, during the period of such temporary inability or pending the appointment of a Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance, as the case may be, the Chancellor in consultation with the Minister and the Vice-Chancellor shall authorise a Teacher of the University or an officer of the University to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance.

(5) The vacancy in the office of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance occurring by reason of death, resignation or expiry of the term of his office, removal or otherwise shall be filled up by appointment of a Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) within a period of six months from the date of occurrence of the vacancy.

(Chapter II.—The University and its officers.—Sections 13, 14.)

13. (1) Subject to the supervision, direction and general control of the Vice-Chancellor and the Syndicate, the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance shall be in charge of the administration of the funds, the finances and the properties and assets of the University and of all trusts and endowments; and he shall take special interest in activities that aim at raising funds for the purposes of the University and augmenting the resources of the University.

Powers and duties of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance.

(2) The Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance shall be in charge of the work of the Accounts Department of the University, including collection of funds, and shall, subject to the provisions of section 9, be responsible for ensuring that all moneys are expended for the purpose for which they are sanctioned within the limits of budget allotments.

(3) The Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance shall, in consultation with the relevant departments of the University, prepare the Annual Financial Estimates and the Annual Statement of Accounts.

(4) All contracts and agreements relating to matters of which the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance is in charge shall, on approval by the Syndicate, if not otherwise prescribed, be signed and executed by him on behalf of the University.

(5) The Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed, or delegated to him by or under this Act.

14. (1) The Registrar shall be a whole time officer of the University and shall be appointed by the Chancellor in consultation with the Minister on the recommendation of a Committee consisting of two nominees of the Syndicate, a nominee of the Chancellor, a nominee of the Vice-Chancellor and a nominee of the State Government.

The Registrar.

(2) The Registrar may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Chancellor.

(3) If the Registrar is for any reason temporarily unable to exercise the powers or perform the duties of his office, the Vice-Chancellor may with the approval of the Chancellor appoint a Teacher of the University or an officer of the University, temporarily for a period not exceeding six months, to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Registrar.

15. Subject to the supervision, direction and general control of the Vice-Chancellor, the Registrar shall act as the Secretary of the Senate as also of the Syndicate and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be prescribed, or delegated to him by or under this Act.

Powers and duties of the Registrar.

Committee.

33. (1) Every Teacher, every officer and every employee of the University shall, on appointment as such, be provided with a letter of appointment containing such terms and conditions of appointment as may be prescribed by Ordinances.

Letter of appointment of Teachers, officers and employees.

(2) A Teacher or an officer or an employee appointed against a permanent vacancy shall be on probation ordinarily for a period of one year from the date of such appointment and such period of probation may, at the discretion of the appropriate authority of the University, be extended for a further period not exceeding one year.

(3) If, at any time during the period of probation, the probationer's work is not considered satisfactory, the probationer shall be discharged by the authority concerned.

(4) On satisfactory completion of the period of probation, a Teacher or an officer or an employee, as the case may be, shall be confirmed with effect from the date of his appointment on probation by an order in writing made by the University in this behalf and the fact of such confirmation shall be communicated to the person concerned:

Provided that if, on completion of the period of probation, no such order of confirmation is made and communicated to the person concerned within a period of two months of the completion of the period of probation, the person concerned shall be deemed to have been confirmed with effect from the date of his appointment on probation.

(Chapter III.—Authorities of the University.—Sections 34-36.)

Termination of service of temporary Teacher, officer or employee.

34. The services of a temporary Teacher or officer or employee shall not be terminated before the expiration of the period for which he is appointed except after serving one month's notice or paying him one month's salary in lieu thereof.

Standing committee
for selection of officers and non-teaching
employees.

35. The Syndicate may constitute a standing committee or standing committees for selection of persons for appointment to the posts of officers and to the other non-teaching posts and may, subject to the provisions of this Act, prescribe by Ordinances the procedure and the method of such selection.

Tribunal.

36. (1) If in the case of any dispute between the University and any Teacher, officer or employee of the University no final order has been passed by the University within a period of one year from the date on which the dispute was referred to the University by such Teacher, officer or employee, such dispute shall, on the request of such Teacher, officer or employee, be referred to a Tribunal consisting of the following members, namely:—

- (i) a Chairman, who shall be a person who holds or has held the office of a Judge not below the rank of a District Judge, to be nominated by the Chancellor in consultation with the Minister;
- (ii) one person to be nominated by the Syndicate;
- (iii) one person to be nominated by the Teacher, officer or employee concerned.

(2) The Tribunal may call for any record, report or other information from the University if, in its opinion, such record, report or other information is necessary for efficient discharge of its functions, and the University shall furnish such record, report or other information to the Tribunal.

(3) The decision of the Tribunal shall be final and no suit or proceeding shall lie in any civil court in respect of the matters decided by the Tribunal.

(4) Every request under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be a submission to arbitration upon the terms of this section, within the meaning of the Arbitration Act, 1940, and all the provisions of that Act with the exception of section 2 thereof shall apply accordingly.

(Chapter IV.—General provisions governing all authorities or other bodies of the University.—Sections 37, 38.)

CHAPTER IV

General provisions governing all authorities or other bodies of the University.

37. (1) No person shall be qualified for election or nomination as a member of any authority or body of the University or shall continue as such member if he—Disqualifications.

- (i) is of unsound mind or a deaf-mute, or
- (ii) is an undischarged insolvent, or
- (iii) has been convicted by a court of law for an offence involving moral turpitude.

(2) In case of any doubt or dispute, the Chancellor's decision whether a person is disqualified under the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be final.

(3) No person shall be entitled to stand as a candidate for election to any authority or body of the University from more than one constituency.

(4) No person shall be entitled to be enrolled as a voter for, or to cast his vote at, an election to any authority or body of the University from more than one constituency:

Provided that this sub-section shall not apply in the case of an election of members of the Senate to the Syndicate, the Faculty Councils for post-graduate studies, and the Councils for undergraduate studies.

38. (1) Save as otherwise provided in sub-section (4), an elected or nominated member of any authority or body of the University shall hold office for a period of four years from the date of his election or nomination, as the case may be:

Term of office of members.

Provided that in respect of the first elections and nominations under this Act, the said period of four years shall commence from the date of the first meeting of the authority or body held after such elections and nominations.

(2) The term of office of members other than ex-officio members of any authority or body of the University shall be held to include any period which may elapse between the expiry of the said term and the date of election of new members to such authority or body to fill vacancies arising by efflux of time.

(3) When elections are held on more than one date, the last of such dates shall be taken to be the date of election for the purposes of this section.

(4) Any member elected or nominated to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of office of the member in whose seat he is so elected or nominated.

(Chapter IV.—General provisions governing all authorities or other bodies of the University.—Sections 39-42.)

Cessation of membership in certain cases.

39. (1) When a person is qualified to be a member of any authority or body of the University by virtue of his membership of any other authority or body, he shall cease to be a member of the authority or body of the University when he ceases to be a member of the other.

(2) When a person is elected or nominated as a member of any authority or body of the University from any constituency, he shall cease to be such a member when he ceases to belong to that constituency.

Filling of vacancies.

40. (1) Any casual vacancy among the elected members of any authority or body of the University shall be filled, in such manner and within such time as may be prescribed, by election by such authority or body of a person representing the interest which the member, whose seat has become vacant, represented.

(2) Any vacancy among the nominated members of any authority or body of the University shall be filled, within such time as may be prescribed, by nomination by the person or authority that nominated the member whose seat has become vacant.

(3) Vacancies arising by efflux of time in the seats of elected members of any authority or body of the University shall be filled by election to be held on such date or dates, not later than six months or such extended period as the Chancellor may, by order made in this behalf, specify, from the date on which the vacancies arise, as the Vice-Chancellor may fix.

Proceedings of the University or the authorities or bodies of the University not invalidated by vacancies.

41. No act or proceedings of the University or of any authority or body of the University shall be deemed to be invalid merely by reason of the existence of a vacancy or vacancies among its members or the invalidity of the election of any of the members.

Explanation.—For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that where the office of any member of any authority or body of the University cannot be filled up, when such authority or body is constituted for the first time, on account of any election or appointment not being for any reason feasible, there shall be deemed to be a vacancy in the office of such member until such election takes place or such appointment is made.

Chancellor's power to decide questions as to eligibility for being chosen as or for being members and to annul election proceedings in certain cases.

42. (1) If any question arises whether any person is eligible for election or nomination or has been duly elected or nominated as, or is entitled to be, a member of any authority or body of the University, the question shall be referred to the Chancellor, whose decision thereon shall be final.

(2) If, during the progress of any election of members to any authority or body of the University, the Chancellor is satisfied that such election is vitiated by fraud or corrupt practice, the Chancellor may make an order annulling the proceedings in respect of such election or any part thereof and directing fresh proceedings to be started, in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the Statutes, the Ordinances and the Regulations, from such stage as may be specified in the order and such order of the Chancellor shall be final.

(3) No suit or proceeding shall lie in any civil court against a decision or an order of the Chancellor under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), as the case may be.

43. At a meeting of the Senate, the Syndicate, the Faculty Councils for post-graduate studies, the Councils for undergraduate studies or any other authority or body of the University, the person presiding at the meeting shall not vote in the first instance, but shall have and exercise a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes.

CHAPTER V

Funds of the University, Accounts, Audit and Inspection.

44. The University shall have a fund to be known as the University Fund to which shall be credited all its income from fees, fines, contributions, donations, loans and advances and from any other source whatsoever. The University may also create, by Ordinances made in this behalf, separate special funds for the administration of endowments, trusts or specific grants or grants for other special purposes.

The University
Fund.

45. The State Government shall, in every financial year after considering the report submitted under sub-section (3) of section 48 relating to the year preceding the previous financial year, contribute to the University Fund an amount which shall not be less than rupees seventy-five lakhs and such contribution shall be subject to review by the State Government every three years.

Annual
contribution
by State Government.

46. (1) The budget of the University showing the receipt and expenditure of the University on different accounts shall be submitted to the State Government at least three months before the end of the financial year for approval.

General
limitations on financial powers of the University.

(2) The State Government shall, at least one month before the end of the financial year, communicate its approval or otherwise of the budget to the University.

(Chapter V.—Funds of the University, Accounts, Audit and Inspection.—Sections 47-49.)

(3) If no communication is sent to the University by the State Government within the period as aforesaid, the budget shall be deemed to have been approved by the State Government.

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act, the University shall not, except with the prior approval of the State Government, incur any expenditure on any account in excess of the amount specified in the budget on that account:

Provided that no such prior approval shall be necessary in respect of any expenditure on any scheme not provided in the budget, if such expenditure is met by the University out of its own resources.

Provident
Fund.

47. Any provident fund instituted by the University for the benefit of its Teachers, officers or employees shall be governed by the provisions of the Provident Funds Act, 1925, as if such fund were a Government Provident Fund and the Syndicate shall have power to frame Ordinances, not inconsistent with the provisions of that Act, for the administration of the fund.

19 of 1925.

Annual Accounts and Audit.

48. (1) The Annual Statement of Accounts of the University shall, after examination by the Syndicate, be subjected to such audit as the State Government may direct.

(2) Such Annual Statement of Accounts shall, together with copies of the audit report thereon, be submitted to the Senate and to the State Government and shall thereupon be published by the Senate.

(3) The University shall have a continuous internal audit, and the report of such audit shall be submitted to the State Government as soon as possible after the end of every financial year.

Inspection.

49. (1) (i) The State Government shall have the right—

(1) to cause an inspection to be made, by such person or persons as it may direct,—

(a) of the University, its buildings, laboratories, libraries, museums, press establishment, workshops and equipment,

(b) of any college or institution maintained by or affiliated to the University, and

(c) into all affairs of the University and of such college or institution including examination and other work conducted or done by the University or such college or institution; and

(2) to cause an enquiry to be made into the income, expenditure, properties, assets and liabilities of the University and of any college or institution maintained by or affiliated to the University.

XXXVIII of 1979.]

*(Chapter VI.—Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations.—
Section 50.)*

(ii) The State Government shall, in every such case of inspection or enquiry, give previous notice to the University or to such college or institution, as the case may be, of its intention to cause such inspection or enquiry.

(2) The State Government shall communicate to the Senate and the Syndicate or to such college or institution, as the case may be, its views on the results of such inspection or enquiry and may, after considering the opinion of the Senate and the Syndicate or of such college or institution thereon, advise the University or such college or institution regarding the action which the State Government considers fit to be taken by the University or by such college or institution in the matters concerned and the University or such college or institution shall report to the State Government, within such time as the State Government may direct, the action which is proposed to be taken or has been taken by the University or by such college or institution to give effect to such advice of the State Government.

(3) The State Government may, after considering the report referred to in sub-section (2), advise the University or such college or institution, as the case may be, to take such further action in the matters concerned, as may, in the opinion of the State Government, be necessary, and the University or such college or institution shall take or cause to be taken such further action within such time as may be specified in that behalf by the State Government.

CHAPTER VI

Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations.

50. Subject to the provisions of this Act, Statutes may be made to provide for all or any of the following matters:— Statutes.

- (a) the declaration of posts as posts of officers of the University referred to in clause (5) of section 6;
- (b) the establishment of authorities of the University referred to in clause (8) of section 17;
- (c) the powers, duties, and terms and conditions of service of the officers of the University in so far as these have not been specifically provided for in this Act;
- (d) the constitution, powers and duties of the authorities of the University in so far as these have not been specifically provided for in this Act;

*(Chapter VI.—Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations.—
Section 51.)*

- (e) the rules and procedure for holding elections to the Senate, the Syndicate and other authorities and bodies of the University;
- (f) the terms and conditions of affiliation or recognition of colleges or institutions, including terms and conditions for continuance of such affiliation or recognition and rules for disaffiliation or withdrawal of recognition of such colleges or institutions;
- (g) the terms and conditions of recognition of colleges as constituent colleges or professional colleges;
- (h) the constitution, powers and functions of the Governing Bodies of colleges, other than Government Colleges;
- (i) the terms and conditions of service and the minimum emoluments for posts of Principals, Teachers and such other employees as the University may deem fit, of all affiliated colleges, other than Government Colleges;
- (j) the rules for Provident Funds for Teachers of colleges, other than Government Colleges;
- (k) the holding of convocations to confer degrees, titles, diplomas, certificates and other academic distinctions, including honorary degrees and distinctions;
- (l) the conditions for the registration of graduates of the University and for the maintenance of a Register for registered graduates;
- (m) all other matters which under this Act are required to be or may be prescribed by Statutes.

How to make Statutes.

51. (1) The Syndicate may of its own motion, and shall, when required by the Senate, make a draft of any Statute and submit the same to the Senate. The draft so submitted shall be considered by the Senate at a meeting or meetings to be held within a period of six weeks from the date of such submission (hereinafter referred to as the said period), and the draft so submitted shall, unless rejected or amended by the Senate before the expiry of the said period by a majority of the total number of its members existing at the time, be deemed to have been passed by the Senate. If the Senate so rejects or amends the draft of any Statute, it shall be sent back to the Syndicate with the views of the Senate for reconsideration. Thereupon, the Syndicate shall reconsider the draft and resubmit it to the Senate with such changes as it may deem necessary. On such resubmission of the draft, it shall again be considered by the Senate at a meeting or meetings to be held within a period of six weeks from the date of such submission (hereinafter referred to as the latter period) and the draft so resubmitted shall, unless rejected by the Senate before the expiry of the latter period by a majority of the total number of its members existing at the time, be deemed to have been passed by the Senate without any amendment, or be passed by the Senate with such amendments as it may deem fit to make therein within the latter period and by the same majority as aforesaid.

XXXVIII of 1979.]

*(Chapter VI.—Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations.—
Section 52.)*

(2) A Statute, passed in the manner provided in sub-section (1), shall be presented to the Chancellor for assent and shall come into force on being assented to by the Chancellor in consultation with the Minister.

(3) A Statute shall remain in force until repealed or amended by a new Statute similarly passed and assented to by the Chancellor.

52. Subject to the provisions of this Act and the Statutes, Ordinances may be made to provide for all or any of the following matters:—

- (a) the admission of students to the University and the colleges affiliated to or recognized by it and their enrolment as such;
- (b) the levy of fees in University Colleges and in University Laboratories;
- (c) the conditions of residence and rules of discipline of the students of the University, including students of the colleges affiliated to or recognized by it, and the levy of fees for residence in halls;
- (d) the appointment of Teachers, officers and employees of the University, their emoluments, their duties and other terms and conditions of their service, in so far as these have not been specifically provided for in this Act or in the Statutes;
- (e) rules for the institution of Provident Fund or other funds for the benefit of the Teachers, officers and employees of the University;
- (f) rules for the establishment, maintenance and management of University Libraries, University Museums, halls, and other University Institutions for study, research and residence;
- (g) rules for the recognition of libraries, laboratories, museums, hostels, and institutions for study, research and residence, other than those established, maintained and managed by the University;

*(Chapter VI.—Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations.—
Section 53.)*

- (h) rules for the taking over of the management of an affiliated or a recognized college or institution, other than a Government College or institution, in order to ensure that proper standards of teaching, training and instruction are maintained therein;
- (i) rules for the exercise of general supervision and control over affiliated or recognized colleges or institutions and for the giving of financial aid to them;
- (j) rules for the inspection or investigation into the affairs of colleges or other institutions, affiliated to or recognized by the University, to ensure that proper standards of teaching, training and research are maintained therein;
- (k) rules for the imposition and collection of fees, fines and other dues payable to the University;
- (l) the duties and functions of the Teachers of the University including the Heads of Departments;
- (m) rules for the registration of students;
- (n) the appointment, duties and remuneration of examiners;
- (o) rules for the administration of gifts, endowments and benefactions, and for the institution and award of fellowships, travelling fellowships, scholarships, studentships, stipends, bursaries, exhibitions, medals and prizes;
- (p) rules and procedure for accepting grants and for raising or accepting loans other than loans from the Central or any State Government or the University Grants Commission;
- (q) all other matters which under this Act or the Statutes are required to be or may be prescribed by Ordinances.

How to make Ordinances.

53. (1) The Syndicate shall take into consideration drafts of Ordinances proposed to be passed, after notice thereof has been given to the members of the Syndicate at least three weeks in advance of the date fixed for consideration of the same by the Syndicate. The Vice-Chancellor may direct a shorter notice in a matter which in his opinion is of an emergent nature.

(2) An Ordinance shall be deemed to be passed by the Syndicate if it is agreed to by a majority of the total number of members of the Syndicate existing at the time.

(3) An Ordinance, passed in the manner as provided above, shall be presented to the Chancellor for assent and shall, subject to any direction of the Chancellor hereinafter provided, come into force on being assented to by the Chancellor from such date as the Chancellor may determine.

XXXVIII of 1979.]

(Chapter VI.—Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations.— Sections 54, 55.)

(4) The Chancellor may direct that the operation of any Ordinance shall be suspended until such time as the Senate has had an opportunity of considering the same.

(5) An Ordinance shall unless cancelled or modified by the Chancellor shall remain in force until repealed or amended by a new Ordinance similarly passed and brought into force.

54. Subject to the provisions of this Act and the Statutes and the Ordinances, Regulations may be made to provide for all or any of the following matters:—

Regulations.

- (a) the powers and functions of the Boards of Studies;
- (b) the functions and duties of Teachers' Councils in Universities and in colleges and institutions other than Government Colleges and institutions;
- (c) the conditions for admission to the different courses of study and examinations of students;
- (d) the rules for the conduct of University examinations;
- (e) the courses of study and the division of subjects upon the recommendations of the Faculty Council for post-graduate studies or the Council for undergraduate studies concerned;
- (f) the minimum qualifications for Principals, other Teachers, and Teachers of the University;
- (g) all other matters which under this Act or the Statutes or the Ordinances are required to be or may be prescribed by Regulations.

55. (1) The Syndicate or a Committee appointed by it shall take into consideration drafts of Regulations, consistent with this Act and the Statutes and the Ordinances after notice of the proposed Regulations, has been given to the members of the Syndicate at least three weeks in advance of the date fixed for consideration of the same by the Syndicate or the Committee appointed by it. The Vice-Chancellor may direct a shorter notice in a matter which in his opinion is of an emergent nature.

How to make Regulations.

(2) A Regulation shall be deemed to be passed by the Syndicate if it is agreed to at a meeting of the Syndicate by a majority of the total number of members of the Syndicate existing at the time. A Regulation shall come into force immediately on being passed unless otherwise directed by the Chancellor.

(3) The Senate shall have the power, by a resolution passed by a majority of its total number of members existing at the time, to cancel or modify any Regulation.

*(Chapter VII.—Miscellaneous and Transitory Provisions.—
Section 56.)*

(4) A Regulation shall, unless cancelled or modified by the Senate under sub-section (3), remain in force until repealed or amended by a new Regulation similarly passed and brought into force.

CHAPTER VII

Miscellaneous and Transitory Provisions.

Delegation.

56. (1) The Vice-Chancellor or, with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor, the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs, the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Buisness Affairs and Finance or the Registrar, may, subject to the provisions of this Act, delegate such of his powers or duties conferred or imposed by or under this Act as may be prescribed by the Statutes to an officer of the University under his direct administrative control.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act,—

(a) the Senate may delegate any of its powers or duties, conferred or imposed by or under this Act, to—

- (i) the Vice-Chancellor,
- (ii) the Syndicate,
- (iii) a committee constituted from among its own members, or
- (iv) a committee appointed in accordance with the Statutes;

(b) the Syndicate may delegate any of its powers or duties, conferred or imposed by or under this Act, to—

- (i) the Vice-Chancellor,
- (ii) the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs,
- (iii) the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Business Affairs and Finance,
- (iv) a committee constituted from among its own members,
- (v) a committee constituted in accordance with the Statutes or the Ordinances,
- (vi) any of the Faculty Councils for post-graduate studies or Councils for undergraduate studies, or
- (vii) the Finance Committee;

(c) the Faculty Council for post-graduate studies or the Council for undergraduate studies may delegate any of its powers or duties, conferred or imposed by or under this Act, to—

- (i) the Vice-Chancellor,
- (ii) the Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs,
- (iii) a committee constituted from among its own members,
- (iv) a committee constituted in accordance with the Regulations, or
- (v) any of the Board of Studies;

59. (1) The Vice-Chancellor holding office at the date of publication of this Act in the Official Gazette shall be the first Vice-Chancellor of the University and shall be deemed to have been appointed under this Act and he shall hold office for a period of four years from the date of publication of this Act in the Official Gazette or till he attains the age of 65 years, whichever is earlier.

Transitory
and repeal.

(2) The first Vice-Chancellor shall, with the approval of the Chancellor and with the assistance of a committee consisting of not less than nine members nominated by the Chancellor, cause the first Statutes, the first Ordinances and the first Regulations of the former University to be reviewed and, if he considers it necessary, cause them to be amended.

(3) The first Vice-Chancellor shall within six months from the date of his appointment or within such longer period, not exceeding one year from the date of his appointment, as the State Government may, by notification, direct, cause arrangements to be made for constituting the Senate, the Syndicate, the Faculty Councils for post-graduate studies, the Councils for undergraduate studies and the Boards of Studies in accordance with the provisions of the first Statutes, the first Ordinances and the first Regulations of the former University as reviewed or amended under sub-section (2), as if they had already come into force.

(Chapter VII.—Miscellaneous and Transitory Provisions.— Section 59.)

(4) If, for any reason,—

- (a) the constitution of the Senate, the Syndicate and other bodies referred to in sub-section (3) cannot be completed within the period of office of the first Vice-Chancellor appointed under sub-section (1), then, on the expiry of such period, the Chancellor may, in consultation with the Minister, on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit, appoint the first Vice-Chancellor whose period of office has expired or another person to be the Vice-Chancellor for the purposes of this section for such period not exceeding one year as the Chancellor thinks fit, or
- (b) a vacancy occurs in the office of the first Vice-Chancellor before the expiry of the period of his office, then, the Chancellor may, in consultation with the Minister, on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit, appoint another person to be the Vice-Chancellor for the purposes of this section for the unexpired portion of such period or such further period not exceeding one year as the Chancellor thinks fit, and references in this Act to the first Vice-Chancellor shall be deemed to include references to the Vice-Chancellor appointed under this sub-section.

(5) The State Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint a date and on and from such date the Senate, the Syndicate, the Faculty Councils for post-graduate studies, the Councils for undergraduate studies and the Boards of Studies shall commence to exercise their respective functions and the first Statutes, the first Ordinances and the first Regulations of the former University as reviewed or amended under sub-section (2) shall come into force and shall be the first Statutes, the first Ordinances and the first Regulations of the University.

(6) (a) The Calcutta University (Temporary Supersession) Act, 1978 (hereinafter referred to in this sub-section as the said Act) shall stand repealed with effect from the date of publication of this Act in the Official Gazette.

West Ben.
Act VII of 1978.

(b) Notwithstanding such repeal, until the appointed day, the Calcutta University Council, referred to in clause (b) of section 4 of the said Act, shall continue to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties in the manner and on the terms and conditions provided in the said Act.

*(Chapter VII.—Miscellaneous and Transitory Provisions.—
Section 59.)*

(7) The first Statutes, the first Ordinances and the first Regulations of the University shall remain in force until new Statutes, new Ordinances and new Regulations are made under the provisions of this Act.

(8) The first Vice-Chancellor may, subject to the approval of the Chancellor, appoint such administrative, clerical and other staff as he deems necessary for giving effect to the provisions of this section.

(9) On and from the appointed day the Calcutta University Act, 1966 shall stand repealed and thereupon—

- (a) the Statutes, the Ordinances and the Regulations of the former University shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (5), stand repealed and all authorities or bodies of the former University shall cease to function;
- (b) all colleges and institutions affiliated to or recognised by the former University and continuing as such immediately before the appointed day shall be deemed to be affiliated to, or recognised by, the University;
- (c) all colleges or institutions of whatever kind established, maintained or managed by the former University prior to the appointed day shall be deemed to be colleges or institutions established, maintained or managed by the University under this Act;
- (d) all affairs, functions or activities of the former University, including studies and examinations, commenced and in progress before the appointed day, shall be deemed to be in progress as if they had been commenced by the University under this Act;
- (e) all things done or deemed to have been done, and all actions taken or deemed to have been taken and all appointments made by the former University under the Calcutta University Act, 1966, shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to be things done or actions taken or appointments made by the University under this Act as if this Act had been in force when such things were done or such actions were taken or such appointments were made:

Provided that until such repeal references to the Vice-Chancellor under the said Act, shall be deemed to be references to the first Vice-Chancellor under this Act:

Provided further that such repeal shall not affect the affiliation of colleges or institutions situated outside West Bengal which are already affiliated to the University of Calcutta under the provisions of the Calcutta University Act, 1966.

West Ben.
Act II
of 1966.

(Chapter VII.—Miscellaneous and Transitory Provisions.— Section 60.)

(10) In construing the provisions of section 18, section 21, section 23 and section 25 and in construing the provisions of the first Statutes, the first Ordinances and the first Regulations of the University in relation to the constitution, under this section, of the Senate, the Syndicate, the Faculty Councils for post-graduate studies, the Councils for undergraduate studies and the Boards of Studies, references to the heads of departments of teaching of the University, the University Professors, University Readers and University Lecturers, and Teachers of the University shall be deemed to be references to the persons holding offices respectively as the heads of departments of teaching, Professors, Readers, Lecturers and Teachers of the University of Calcutta, immediately before the date of appointment of the first Vice-Chancellor.

(11) The provisions of this section shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained elsewhere in this Act or in any other law.

Removal of difficulties.

60. If on account of any lacuna or omission in the provisions of this Act, or for any other reason whatsoever, any difficulty arises as to the first constitution of any authority of the University under this Act, or otherwise in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the State Government, as occasion may require, may by order do anything which appears to it to be necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained elsewhere in this Act or in any other law.
