(Chapter II.—The University.—Section 6.)

- (xxii) to appoint, either on contract or otherwise, visiting Professors, Emeritus Professors, Consultants, fellows, scholars, artists, course writers and such other persons who may contribute to the advancement of the objects of the University;
- (xxiii) to recognise persons working in other universities, institutions or organisations as teachers of the University on such terms and conditions as may be laid down by Ordinances;
- (xxiv) to determine standards and to specify conditions for the admission of students to courses of study of the University which may include examination, evaluation and any other method of testing;
- (xxv) to make arrangements for the promotion of the general health and welfare of the employees;
- (xxvi) to inspect Regional Centres and Study Centres and to take measures to ensure that proper standards of instructions are maintained therein;
- (xxvii) to collaborate and interact with the West Bengal State Council of Higher Education constituted under the West Bengal State Council of Higher Education Act, 1994, other universities, specially the Indira Gandhi National Open University, referred to in clause (h) of section 4, and other open universities in the country, and other educational or research institutions and authorities, in such manner and for such purposes as the University may determine;
- (xxviii) to do all such acts as may be necessary or incidental to the exercise of all or any of the powers of the University as are necessary and conducive to the promotion of all or any of the objects of the University.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, but without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), it shall be the duty of the University to take all such steps as it may deem fit for the promotion of the open university and distance education systems and for the determination of standards of teaching, evaluation and research in such systems, and for the purpose of performing this function, the University shall have such powers, including the power to allocate and disburse grants to the Regional Centres or the Study Centres, or to any other university or institution of higher learning, as may be specified by the Statutes.

6. (1) The University shall be open to persons of either sex and of whatever race, creed, caste or class, and it shall not be lawful for the University to adopt or impose on any person any test whatsoever of religious belief or profession in order to entitle him to be appointed as a Teacher of the University or to hold any other office therein or admitted as a student in the University, or to graduate thereat, or to enjoy or exercise any privilege thereof.

University open to all classes, castes and creeds.

West Ben.
Act XXXVII
of 1994.

(Chapter II.—The University.—Section 7.)

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to prevent the University from making any special provision for the appointment or admission of women or of persons belonging to the weaker sections of the society, and, in particular, of persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes.

Inspection and inquiry.

7. (1) The State Government shall have the right to cause an inspection to be made by any person, not below the rank of Joint Secretary to the Government of West Bengal or Registrar or Professor of a university, or by a committee of not less than two persons, not below the rank of Joint Secretary to the Government of West Bengal or Registrar or Professor of a university, into its buildings, laboratories, libraries, museums, workshops and equipment or of any Regional Centre or Study Centre maintained by the University. The State Government shall have also the right to cause an inquiry to be made into the teaching and other work conducted or done by the University by such person or group of persons as the State Government deems fit. The State Government shall, in every such case, give notice to the University of its intention to cause such inspection or inquiry to be made, and the University shall be entitled to represent its case.

(2) The State Government shall forward to the Vice-Chancellor a copy of the inspection report for obtaining the views of the Executive Council and, on receipt of such views, may give such advice as it considers necessary and fix a time-limit for action to be taken thereon by the University.

(3) The Executive Council shall, within such time as the State Government may fix, report to that Government through the Vice-Chancellor the action which has been taken or is proposed to be taken on the advice as aforesaid.

(4) The State Government may, where action has not been taken by the University to the satisfaction of that Government within the time fixed, after considering the explanation, if any, furnished, or the representation made, by the Executive Council, issue such directions as it may think fit, and the University shall comply with such directions. If the University does not comply with such directions within such time as the State Government may specify, that Government may take such further action as it may consider necessary.

Sections 8-10.)*

CHAPTER III

Chancellor and other officers of the University

8. (1) The Governor of the State of West Bengal shall, by virtue of his office, be the Chancellor of the University. The Chancellor.

(2) The Chancellor shall exercise such powers as may be conferred on him by or under the provisions of this Act or the Statutes or Ordinances.

(3) Where power is conferred upon the Chancellor to make nominations to any authority or body of the University, the Chancellor shall, to the extent necessary, nominate persons to represent interests not otherwise adequately represented.

(4) Every proposal to confer any honorary degree shall be subject to confirmation by the Chancellor.

9. The following shall be the officers of the University:—

Officers of the University.

(1) the Vice-Chancellor;

(2) the Registrar;

(3) the Directors;

(4) the Finance Officer;

(5) such other persons as may be declared by Statutes to be the officers of the University.

10. (1) The Vice-Chancellor shall be appointed by the Chancellor in consultation with the Minister from a panel of not less than three persons recommended by a committee consisting of three members of whom two shall be nominated by the Executive Council and one shall be nominated by the Chancellor. The person nominated by the Chancellor shall be the convenor of the committee, provided that no person who is an employee of the University or of any Regional Centre or Study Centre or a member of any authority of the University, shall be nominated to be a member of the committee.

The Vice-Chancellor.

(2) (a) The Vice-Chancellor shall hold office for a term of four years or till he attains the age of 65 years, whichever is earlier, and shall be eligible for re-appointment for another term of four years or till he attains the age of 65 years, whichever is earlier.

(b) The Chancellor may, notwithstanding the expiration of the term of the office of the Vice-Chancellor or his attaining the age of 65 years, allow him to continue in office till a successor assumes office, provided that he shall not continue as such for any period exceeding six months.

(Chapter III.—Chancellor and other officers of the University.— Section 11.)

(3) The Vice-Chancellor shall be a whole-time officer of the University and shall be paid from the University Fund such salary and allowances as the Chancellor may decide in consultation with the State Government.

(4) The Vice-Chancellor may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Chancellor.

(5) If—

(a) the Vice-Chancellor is, by reasons of leave, illness or other cause, temporarily unable to exercise the powers and perform the duties of his office, or

(b) a vacancy occurs in the office of the Vice-Chancellor by reason of death, resignation or expiry of the term of his office or otherwise, then, during the period of such temporary inability or pending the appointment of a Vice-Chancellor, as the case may be, the Chancellor may authorise, in consultation with the Minister, any person to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Vice-Chancellor.

(6) The vacancy in the office of the Vice-Chancellor occurring by reason of death, resignation or expiry of the term of his office or otherwise shall be filled up by appointment of a Vice-Chancellor in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) within a period of six months from the date of occurrence of the vacancy, and such period shall be held to include any period for which a Vice-Chancellor is allowed to continue in office under clause (b) of sub-section (2) or a person is appointed to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Vice-Chancellor under clause (b) of sub-section (5).

Statutes.

(2) A Statute passed in the manner provided in sub-section (1) shall be presented to the Chancellor for assent and shall come into force on being assented to by the Chancellor on the recommendation of the Minister, provided that the Chancellor may withhold assent to the Statute or remit the Statute to the Executive Council for reconsideration in the light of the observations, if any, made by him.

(3) A Statute shall remain in force until repealed or amended by a new Statute similarly passed and assented to by the Chancellor on the recommendation of the Minister.

(4) The Chancellor or the State Government may advise the University to adopt a new Statute or to amend an existing Statute.

39. (1) The Academic Council shall have the power to make, subject to the provisions of this Act and the Statutes, Ordinances which may provide for all or any of the following matters:—

Ordinances.

- (a) the admission of students in the University;
- (b) imposition and collection of fees, fines and other dues payable to the University;

(Chapter VI.—Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations.—Section 40.— Chapter VII.—Transitory provisions.—Section 41.)

- (c) prescribing the equivalence of examinations, degrees and diplomas of other universities and institutions;
- (d) the courses of study, the examinations to be held, and the conditions on which students shall be admitted to examinations for any degree, diploma, certificate or title of the University;
- (e) the grant of exemptions;
- (f) the appointment, duties and remuneration of examiners;
- (g) the recognition of libraries and museums;

and all other matters which under this Act or the Statutes are required to be or may be prescribed by Ordinances.

(2) All Ordinances shall be submitted, as soon as may be, to the Executive Council for approval. If the Executive Council rejects or amends the draft of any Ordinance, it may refer it back to the Academic Council for reconsideration.

(3) An Ordinance shall be deemed to be passed by the Executive Council if it is approved by a majority vote.

(4) An Ordinance passed in the manner as provided in sub-section (3) shall be presented to the Chancellor for assent and, on its being assented to by the Chancellor in consultation with the Minister, shall come into force with effect from such date as the Chancellor may direct, provided that the Chancellor may withhold assent to the Ordinance or remit the Ordinance to the Executive Council for reconsideration in the light of the observations, if any, made by him.

(5) The Chancellor shall have the power to cancel or modify any Ordinance.

Regulations.

40. The authorities of the University may make regulations consistent with the provisions of this Act, the Statutes and the Ordinances for the conduct of their own business and that of the committees, if any, appointed by them and not provided for in this Act or the Statutes or the Ordinances.

CHAPTER VII

Transitory provisions

The First
Chancellor.

41. (1) The Governor of West Bengal holding Office at the date of publication of this Act in the Official Gazette shall be the first Chancellor of the University.

(Chapter VII.—Transitory provisions.—Section 42.)

(2) The first Chancellor shall exercise all the powers conferred on the Chancellor by or under this Act. For the first constitution of the Executive Council, the Academic Council and other authorities of the University, the first Chancellor shall nominate members thereof in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

42. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the first Vice-Chancellor shall be appointed by the first Chancellor in consultation with the Minister and on such terms and conditions as the first Chancellor may determine in consultation with the State Government, within three months from the date of publication of this Act in the Official Gazette. He shall hold office for such period as may be determined by the first Chancellor from time to time and such period shall, in no case, exceed four years from the date on which he assumes office. The first Vice-Chancellor shall exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of the Vice-Chancellor under this Act. He shall also be in charge of the administration of funds and finances of the University and shall take necessary steps to maintain the accounts of the University.

First Vice-
Chancellor.

(2) The first Vice-Chancellor, in consultation with the State Government and after giving due regard to any suggestion given by it, shall, with the assistance of a committee consisting of not less than six members nominated by the State Government, cause the first Statutes, the first Ordinances and the first Regulations of the University to be made. The first Statutes, the Ordinances and the first Regulations shall come into force after the first Chancellor has approved the same in consultation with the Minister, with effect from such date or dates as the first Chancellor may appoint.

(3) The first Statutes, the first Ordinances or the first Regulations of the University shall remain in force until they are amended or until new Statutes, new Ordinances or new Regulations, as the case may be, are made under the provisions of this Act.

(4) If a vacancy occurs in the office of the first Vice-Chancellor before the expiry of the period of his office by reason of death, resignation or otherwise, then, the first Chancellor, in consultation with the Minister, may, on the terms and conditions provided in sub-section (1), in aggregate appoint another person to be the first Vice-Chancellor for the purposes of this section for the unexpired portion of such period or such further period, not exceeding in aggregate the period of four years which shall include the period served by the first Vice-Chancellor appointed under sub-section (1).

(Chapter VII.—Transitory provisions.—Section 43.)

Advisory Committee.

43. (1) There shall be an Advisory Committee to be constituted by the State Government of which the first Vice-Chancellor shall be the Chairman.

(2) The Advisory Committee shall consist of the following members:—

- (a) the first Vice-Chancellor—Chairman;
- (b) the Secretary, Higher Education Department, Government of West Bengal, or his nominee not below the rank of Deputy Secretary to the Government of West Bengal;
- (c) the Secretary, Finance Department, Government of West Bengal, or his nominee not below the rank of Deputy Secretary to the Government of West Bengal;
- (d) five Teachers of which three shall be Professors or Readers of Universities and two shall be Teachers of affiliated Colleges, nominated by the State Government in consultation with the first Vice-Chancellor;
- (e) two persons, conversant with University administration, nominated by the first Chancellor in consultation with the Minister.

(3) The function of the Advisory Committee shall be to assist and advise the Chairman of the Committee—

- (a) in drafting a plan for implementation of the programme of the University for the purposes of this Act;
- (b) in selecting sites of the University, Regional Centres and Study Centres and making necessary arrangements for securing the accommodation, furniture and equipments and such other things as are deemed necessary;
- (c) in formulating, with the approval of the State Government, the final staff pattern (both teaching and non-teaching) of the University, Regional Centres and Study Centres and in prescribing the qualifications for recruitment of such staff;
- (d) in preparing the programme of the teaching activities of the University consisting of—
 - (i) the preparation of syllabi of different courses of study;
 - (ii) the determination of the method of operation of contact programmes and audio-visual mass media;

(Chapter VII.—Transitory provisions.—Section 44.)

- (iii) the preparation of teaching materials conforming to different stages of the academic programme;
- (iv) the preparation of written lessons of practical works at home and also lessons for homework;
- (v) the making of arrangement for writing textbooks if necessary;
- (vi) the prescribing of the equivalence of examinations, degrees and diplomas of other universities and institutions and other such allied and ancillary matters.

(4) The Advisory Committee shall examine the annual accounts of the University.

(5) In the case of any difference of opinion between the Chairman and the members of the Advisory Committee, the matter shall be referred to the first Chancellor whose decision shall be final.

44. For the purposes of clause (d) of sub-section (3) of section 43, the University shall have the following temporary posts, and the Vice-Chancellor shall appoint persons to such posts on the recommendation of the Selection Committee to be constituted with the approval of the State Government:—

Temporary posts of the University.

- (a) as many posts of Director (to be filled up by academicians in the rank of Professors) as there are Schools of Studies:

Provided that one Director may be appointed for more than one School of Studies, and

- (b) two posts of expert lesson-writer—one in the rank of Reader and the other in the rank of Lecturer—for each subject to be taught under the concerned faculty:

Provided that the persons appointed to the posts mentioned in clauses (a) and (b) shall be in service on the basis of contract to be renewed from time to time:

Provided further that the absorption of such persons in permanent posts to be created by the University with the concurrence of the State Government under the provisions of this Act shall be subject to their being selected by the Selection Committee to be constituted for the purpose by Statutes.

(Chapter VII.—Transitory provisions.—Sections 45-50.)

Panel of Advisers.

45. The Advisory Committee shall prepare a panel or panels of advisers who are specialists in the subjects to be taught.

Interim Board of Studies.

46. (1) The Advisory Committee shall constitute an Interim Board of Studies in each subject under the respective School of Studies. The Interim Board of Studies shall consist of the following members:—

- (a) the Vice-Chancellor—Chairman;
- (b) the concerned Director—Vice-Chairman;
- (c) the concerned Reader and the concerned Lecturer, who are lesson-writers;
- (d) two Teachers of Universities or Colleges who are experts in the subject, selected by the Vice-Chancellor;
- (e) specialist or specialists in the concerned subject from the panel of advisers prepared under section 45, selected by the Advisory Committee.

(2) The Interim Board of studies shall prescribe the syllabus and course content of each subject, formulate the teaching programme and decide the teaching aids, and shall function till the Schools of Studies are constituted and commence functioning.

Lessons.

47. The lessons shall be written by the concerned Readers and Lecturers appointed under clause (b) of section 44 following the guidelines to be provided by the respective Interim Board of Studies and shall be scrutinised by the Director concerned and finally approved by the Advisory Committee.

Sub-
Committee.

48. The Advisory Committee may constitute a Sub-Committee for the purpose of carrying out its functions.

Expenses to be met from University
fund.

49. All expenses towards the holding of the meetings of the Advisory Committee, Sub-Committee and Interim Board of Studies and all other incidental expenses, including the remuneration to be paid, shall be met from the University fund.

Annual Accounts and Audit.

50. (1) The Annual Statement of Accounts of the University shall, after examination by the Advisory Committee, be subjected to such audit as the State Government may direct.

(Chapter VII.—Transitory provisions.—Sections 51-55.)

(2) Such Annual Statement of Accounts shall, together with the copies of the audit report thereon, be submitted to the State Government, and the State Government may, thereupon, take such action as it deems fit.

51. The first Vice-Chancellor may, subject to the approval of the State Government, appoint such administrative, clerical and other staff (including technical staff) as it deems necessary for giving effect to the provisions of this Chapter. If necessary, such posts may be filled up by persons on the basis of contract to be renewed from time to time. On and from the date appointed under section 54, such posts shall stand abolished unless they fit in with the general staff pattern formulated with the approval of the State Government. For their absorption in regular posts, the incumbents shall have to appear before the Selection Committee to be constituted for the purpose with the approval of the State Government.

Appoint-
staff.

52. The vacancy in the office of a member of the Advisory Committee occurring by reason of death, resignation or otherwise shall be filled up by the State Government in consultation with the first Vice-Chancellor, and the vacancy in the office of a member of any Sub-Committee or Interim Board of Studies or panel of advisers occurring by reason of death, resignation or otherwise shall be filled up by the first Vice-Chancellor in consultation with the Advisory Committee.

Filling up of vacancies in the Advisory Committee
etc.

53. No act or proceedings of the Advisory Committee or any Sub-Committee or Interim Board of Studies shall be invalid merely by reason of the existence of any vacancy or vacancies among its members.

Validation.

54. The State Government shall by notification appoint a date and on and from such date the Executive Council, the Academic Council, other authorities of the University, the Regional Centres and the Study Centres shall commence to perform their respective functions and the first Statutes, the first Ordinances and the first Regulations of the University made under sub-section (2) of section 42 shall be deemed to be the first Statutes, the first Ordinances and the first Regulations of the University made under section 38, section 39 and section 40 respectively.

Appointment of date on which the Executive Council etc.
shall commence to perform their functions.

55. On and from the date referred to in section 54, the provisions of sections 43, 45, 46, 47, 48, 52 and 53 shall stand repealed and, thereupon, the Advisory Committee, the panels of advisers, the Interim Board of Studies, and the Sub-Committees constituted by the Advisory Committee shall stand dissolved, and the members thereof or the advisers, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have vacated their respective offices.

Dissolution of Advisory Committee
etc.

(Chapter VII.—Transitory provisions.—Sections 56, 57.)

Savings.

56. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 55, anything done or deemed to have been done or any action taken or deemed to have been taken or any appointment made under this Act prior to the date referred to in section 54 shall, unless it is otherwise provided in this Act, be deemed to have been validly done or taken or made under this Act.

Removal of difficulties.

57. (1) If, by reason of any provision of this Act, any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Chapter, the first Vice-Chancellor as Chairman of the Advisory Committee shall refer such difficulty to the State Government which may make such order or do such thing, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Chapter, as appears to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty.

(2) If, on account of any lacuna or omission in the provisions of this Act, or for any other reason whatsoever, any difficulty arises as to the first constitution of any authority of the University under this Act, or otherwise in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the State Government may, as occasion may require, by order do anything which appears to it to be necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained elsewhere in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force.
