(14) “summer season” means the part of the year from March to April;

(15) “year” means a period of twelve months commencing from July.

3. The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any contract or usage.

Act to
other laws.

CHAPTER II

Imposition and assessment of water rate

4. (1) Whenever the State Government is of opinion that lands in any area are benefited or are likely to be benefited by irrigation during kharif season, rabi season or summer season by water supplied from any irrigation work, the State Government may, by notification, declare its intention to impose in such area a water rate for every kharif season, rabi season or summer season, as the case may be.

Preliminary notification for imposition of water rate.

(2) Such notification shall contained as full a description of the irrigation work as, in the opinion of the State Government, may be practicable and the boundaries of the area within which the State Government intends to impose the water rate.

5. (1) On the publication of notification under section 4, any person interested in any land likely to be affected by the imposition of the water rate may, within a period of thirty days from the date of publication of the said notification, prefer objection to the State Government against the intended imposition of the water rate or the inclusion of such land in the area in respect of which the declaration has been made under section 4.

Notified area
for imposition of water rate.

(2) On the expiry of the period referred to in sub-section (1), the State Government may, after considering the objections, if any, declare its intention either wholly to refrain from imposing the water rate or to impose the same in the area in respect of which the declaration under section 4 was made or in a specified part thereof, whereupon the said area or the specified part thereof shall be deemed and shall continue to be deemed for the purposes of this Act, to be a notified area for every kharif season, rabi season or summer season, as the case may be:

Provided that the State Government may, so far as may be in the manner hereinbefore provided, from time to time, include in or exclude from any notified area any area which was benefited or was not benefited, as the case may be, by water supplied from the irrigation work.

(Chapter II.—Imposition and assessment of water rate.—
Sections 6-8.)

Imposition of water rate.

6. In respect of any notified area, the State Government may issue a notification proposing to impose water rate at such rates not exceeding,—

(a) rupees thirty-two for an area of .4047 hectares for kharif season,

(b) rupees forty-eight for an area of .4047 hectares for rabi season,

(c) rupees one hundred and sixty for an area of .4047 hectares for summer season, as may be specified in the notification and the water rate so imposed shall remain effective until revised by the State Government by a similar notification issued under this section.

Liability for payment of water rate.

7. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any custom, usage or contract, the liability for payment of water rate shall be on the occupiers of lands included in the notified area in which the water rate is imposed:

Provided that where any such land is cultivated by a bargadar as defined in clause (2) of section 2 of the West Bengal Land Reforms Act, 1955, the liability for payment of the water rate shall be on the owner of such land:

West Ben. Act
X of 1956.

Provided further that when water rate is paid by the owner of any land cultivated by a bargadar, the owner shall be entitled to recover from the bargadar half of the amount paid by him as water rate.

Assessment of water rate.

8. (1) As soon as possible after a notification under section 6 imposing or revising a water rate in any notified area is published, the Canal Revenue Officer shall prepare and publish in the prescribed manner an assessment list containing the names of all persons who are liable to pay the water rate and the amount of such water rate payable for the kharif season, rabi season or summer season, as the case may be.

(2) Any person on whom the water rate has been assessed under sub-section (1) may, within thirty days from the date of publication of such assessment list, prefer before the Canal Revenue Officer, in such manner as may be prescribed, an appeal against the inclusion of his names in the assessment list or against the amount assessed.

(3) The Canal Revenue Officer shall, after considering the objection, if any, publish in such manner as may be prescribed a final assessment list indicating the amount of water rate assessed.

(4) An assessment list as finally published under sub-section (3) shall not be altered or modified except when the rate at which water rate is to be imposed in any notified area is revised under section 6:

XLVI of 1974.]

(Chapter II.—Imposition and assessment of water rate.—Sections 9-12.)

Provided that the Canal Revenue Officer may, on his own motion or on application made to him in this behalf, make any correction in the assessment list by adding names of new assessees or the successors-in-interest of persons who were previously recorded as assesses and the provisions of sub-sections (1) to (4) shall apply mutatis mutandis to any such correction.

(5) An assessee shall be liable to pay up the water rate first time within three months from the date of publication of the final assessment list and thereafter within fifteen days from the date of commencement of the particular season for which such water rate is payable.

(6) An arrear of water rate shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum.

9. (1) If in any season there is failure of supply of water in respect of any land, the assessee may apply within ten days of the end of the season before the Canal Revenue Officer, for remission of water rate and the Canal Revenue Officer may, in the prescribed manner, grant such remission as he considers justifiable after holding such enquiries as he considers necessary.

Power to grant remission.

(2) Excess realisation of water rate in any season may, on application by the assessee, be adjusted against the water rate for the next season.

10. Copies of entries in an assessment list published under sub-section (1) of section 8 shall be made available in the prescribed manner on payment of the prescribed fee.

Copies of entries in assessment list.

11. All arrears of water rate together with interest, if any, shall be recoverable as public demand.

Arrears of water rate recoverable as public demand.

12. (1) The owners or occupiers of all lands in a notified area shall be bound to afford free passage to water from the outlet of a canal through or over lands in their possession or under their control and for that purpose to allow, when so required by the Collector by order made in this behalf, the construction and maintenance of such field channels as may be necessary.

Field channels for free passage of water for irrigation or drainage through or over all lands.

(2) If any person refuses to comply with an order made under sub-section (1), the Collector may cause the field channels to be constructed or maintained and may recover the cost thereof from such person as public demand.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, no person shall be entitled to claim any compensation for any damage or loss which may be caused as a result of the construction or maintenance of any field channel over his land under this section.

*(Chapter II.—Imposition and assessment of water rate.—
Sections 13-15.)*

Penalty for diversion of normal flow of water from field channel, or canal by obstruction, etc.

13. (1) If any obstruction is caused in any field channel or canal or any cut is made on the bank thereof as a result of which the normal flow of water through such field channel or canal is diverted for the purpose of irrigating any particular land, the Collector may—

- (a) take such measures as he considers necessary to remove such obstruction or close such cut, and
- (b) without prejudice to the provisions of section 8, impose a penalty, which may extend to ten times the water rate assessed for the kharif season, rabi season or summer season, as the case may be, having regard to the time when the obstruction is put or the cut is made, on the person who is the owner or occupier of the land sought to be irrigated by the water so diverted, after giving him an opportunity of showing cause against the imposition of such penalty:

Provided that no such penalty shall be imposed on any person who proves to the satisfaction of the Collector that such obstruction was put or such cut was made without his knowledge or consent.

(2) Any penalty imposed under this section shall be recoverable as public demand.

(3) Any person aggrieved by an order imposing a penalty on him under this section may, within thirty days from the date of the order, appeal to such appellate authority as may be prescribed and the decision of the appellate authority in such appeal shall be final.

Indemnity.

14. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or any rule or order made thereunder.

Power to make rules.

15. (1) The State Government may make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :—

- (a) the manner of publication of notifications issued under this Act;

(Chapter II.—Imposition and assessment of water rate.—

Section 16.)

- (b) the form and manner of preparation and publication of assessment list under sub-sections (1) and (3) of section 8;
- (c) the contents of a petition of appeal under section 8 and the fees, if any, to be paid on such petition and the procedure to be followed in such appeal;
- (d) the manner of remission of water rate under section 9;
- (e) the manner of, and the amount of fees payable for, supplying copies under section 10;
- (f) the appellate authority to whom appeals under sub-section (3) of section 13 shall lie and the procedure to be followed by the appellate authority; and
- (g) any other matter which may be or is required to be prescribed under this Act.

West Ben.
Ord. VII of 1974.

16. (1) The West Bengal Irrigation (Imposition of water rate) Ordinance, 1974, is hereby repealed.

Repeal and savings.

(2) Anything done or any action taken under the West Bengal Irrigation (Imposition of water rate) Ordinance, 1974, shall be deemed to have been validly done or taken under this Act as if this Act had commenced on the 1st day of July, 1974.
