GOVERNMENT OF WEST BENGAL

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT

West Bengal Act XXV of 1964

THE WEST BENGAL MINING SETTLEMENTS
(HEALTH AND WELFARE) ACT, 1964.

[Passed by the West Bengal Legislature.]

[Assent of the Governor was first published in the Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary, of the 28th November, 1964.]

[28th November, 1964.]

An Act to provide for the better control and sanitation of mining settlements in West Bengal.

It is hereby enacted in the Fifteenth Year of the Republic of India, by the Legislature of West Bengal, as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

1. (1) This Act may be called the West Bengal Mining Settlements (Health and Welfare) Act, 1964.

Short title,
extent and
commencement.

(2) It extends to the whole of West Bengal.

(3) This section shall come into force at once; the remaining sections shall come into force on such date or dates as the State Government may, by notification, appoint and, for this purpose, different dates may be appointed for different sections of this Act or for different areas to be specified in the notification.

2. (1) The Bengal Mining Settlements Act, 1912, is hereby repealed:

Repeal of
Ben. Act
II of 1912.

Provided that—

- (i) any mining settlement declared, Mines Board of Health appointed, limits defined, appointment, rule, by-law or order made, notification or notice issued, expenses charged or assessed, or contract entered into under the said Act, shall, so far as may be, be deemed to have been respectively declared, established, defined, made, issued, charged or assessed, or entered into under this Act;
- (ii) any legal proceeding commenced under the said Act may be continued as if the said Act had not been repealed;

2 The West Bengal Mining Settlements (Health and Welfare) Act, 1964.

[West Ben. Act

(Chapter I.—Preliminary.—Section 3.)

- (iii) the State Government may, by notification, abolish any such Mines Board of Health or reconstitute it in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) All properties, movable or immovable and all interests of whatever nature or kind therein, held by or on behalf of any Mines Board of Health appointed under the Bengal Mining Settlements Act, 1912, shall continue to be vested in such Board, being a Board deemed under clause (i) of the proviso to sub-section (1) to have been established under this Act, and, where a notification abolishing or reconstituting such Board is issued under clause (iii) of the proviso to sub-section (1), shall stand transferred on and from such date and to such other Mines Board of Health, whether established under section 6 or deemed under clause (i) of the proviso to sub-section (1) to have been established under this Act, as may be specified in the notification.

Ben. Act
II of 1912.

Definitions.

3. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

- (a) "Board" means a Mines Board of Health established or deemed to have been established under this Act and when used in relation to a mining settlement means the Board for such mining settlement;
- (b) "notification" means a notification published in the Official Gazette;
- (c) "owner", when used in relation to a mine, means any person who is in occupation of the mine or any part thereof and carries on the business, or is a contractor for the working, of such mine or part and, except for the purposes of section 27, includes the Government:

Provided that where any person is deemed, under the proviso to section 76 of the Mines Act, 1952, to be the owner of a mine for the purposes of that Act, such person shall be deemed to be the owner of the mine also for the purposes of this Act;

35 of 1952.

- (d) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made by the State Government under this Act;
- (e) the expressions "employed" and "mine" have the same meaning as in the Mines Act, 1952.

XXV of 1964.]

(Chapter I.—Preliminary.—Sections 4, 5.—Chapter II.—The Mines Board of Health.—Section 6.)

4. (1) Whenever it appears to the State Government that it is necessary in the public interest to provide for the planned construction of buildings and structures, proper sanitation and water supply and prevention of the outbreak and spread of epidemic diseases, in any area, not being or not forming part of any mine, within which persons employed in a mine or mines reside, the State Government may publish in the Official Gazette a notice of its intention to declare such area to be a mining settlement for the purposes of this Act.

Declaration of area as mining settlement.

(2) A notice under sub-section (1) shall define the limits of the area intended to be declared to be a mining settlement and shall specify a period within which any objection or suggestion in regard to the intended declaration may be submitted by any person to the State Government for its consideration.

(3) On the expiry of the period for submitting objections or suggestions specified in a notice published under sub-section (1) the State Government may, after considering the objections or suggestions, if any, in regard to the intended declaration submitted to it within such period, by notification,—

- (a) withdraw the notice, or
- (b) declare that the area, the limits whereof have been defined in the notice, or such part thereof as may be specified in the notification, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be a mining settlement.

(4) The State Government may, by like notification issued following mutatis mutandis the procedure laid down in the foregoing sub-section, add to or alter the area included in a mining settlement.

5. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any area included within a municipality constituted under the provisions of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932.

Application of the Act.

Ben. Act
XV of 1932.

CHAPTER II.

THE MINES BOARD OF HEALTH.

6. (1) The State Government may, by notification, establish a Mines Board of Health for a mining settlement.

Establi-ment and incorporation of Mines
Board of Health.

(2) The Board shall, by the name of the Mines Board of Health of the mining settlement for which it is established, be a body corporate and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal with power to hold and acquire property, both movable and immovable, and, subject to such restrictions as may be prescribed, to transfer any such property held by it and to do all other things necessary for the purposes of this Act, and to sue and be sued in its corporate name.

[West Ben. Act

(Chapter II.—The Mines Board of Health.—Section 7.)

Constitution of Board and term of office of members.

7. (1) A Board shall consist of not less than sixteen and not more than seventeen members as follows:—

- (a) four members to be elected by owners of mines which employ persons residing within the mining settlement or by representatives of such owners duly authorised in the prescribed manner;
- (b) one member to be elected by the members of the National Association of Colliery Managers and the members of the Indian Mines Managers' Association from amongst themselves;
- (c) one member to be elected by the members of the West Bengal Branch of the Indian Medical Association from amongst medical practitioners registered under any law for the time being in force and residing or carrying on profession within the mining settlement;
- (d) the Coal Mines Welfare Commissioner, ex-officio;
- (e) not less than nine and not more than ten members to be appointed by the State Government of whom—
 - (i) one shall be a District Magistrate having jurisdiction within the mining settlement;
 - (ii) two shall be members of the State Legislature residing within, or representing a territorial constituency extending over the whole or any part of, the mining settlement;
 - (iii) one shall be a member of the Zilla Parishad having jurisdiction within the mining settlement;
 - (iv) one shall be a woman social worker;
 - (v) two shall be persons representing mine labourers; and
 - (vi) not less than two and not more than three shall be such persons as the State Government may think fit.

(2) The time and manner of election of members under sub-section (1) shall be such as may be prescribed.

(3) If any of the electoral bodies mentioned in sub-section (1) fails to elect the requisite number of members within the prescribed period, the State Government shall fill up the seat or seats by appointment of a person or persons eligible for election by such body and any person so appointed shall be deemed to be a member of the Board as if he had been duly elected by such body.

XXV of 1964.]

(Chapter II.—The Mines Board of Health.—Sections 8, 9.)

(4) An appointed or elected member of the Board shall hold office for a term of four years from the date of the first meeting of the newly formed Board after a general election of members, at which a quorum is present:

Provided that if the State Government thinks fit so to do for special reasons to be specified, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, extend the said term of four years by such period or periods, not exceeding one year in the aggregate, as it may consider necessary.

(5) The term of four years referred to in sub-section (4), or, if the said term is extended under the proviso to that sub-section then, the term so extended, shall be held to include any period which may elapse between the expiry of the said term or extended term, as the case may be, and the date of the first meeting of the newly formed Board at which a quorum is present.

8. The State Government shall appoint two of the members of a Board to be the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman respectively of the Board. Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

9. (1) The Chairman or the Vice-Chairman or any other member of a Board may resign his office by giving notice in writing— Resignation of the Chairman, Vice-Chairman and other members of the Board and filling of casual vacancies

(a) in the case of the Chairman of a Board, to the State Government, and

(b) in the case of the Vice-Chairman or any other member of a Board, to the Chairman of the Board who shall forthwith lay the notice before the Board, and such resignation shall take effect from the date on which the resignation is accepted by the State Government or the Board, as the case may be.

(2) Leave of absence may be granted—

(a) to the Chairman of the Board, by the State Government, and

(b) to the Vice-Chairman or any other member of the Board, by the Board.

(3) Casual vacancies in the office of the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman or any appointed or elected member of the Board may be filled up by appointment or election, as the case may be, in the same manner in which the persons, in whose seats such casual vacancies occur, were appointed or elected and any person appointed or elected to fill any such casual vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the term of office of the person in whose place he is so appointed or elected.

(Chapter II.—The Mines Board of Health.—Sections 10, 11. Chapter III.—Establishment.—Sections 12–14.)

Delegation of powers and duties of Board to the Chairman.

10. Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, a Board may, for the transaction of business under this Act or the rules, by-laws or regulations made thereunder or for the purpose of making any order authorised thereby, delegate to the Chairman of the Board such of the powers or duties of the Board under this Act or the rules, by-laws or regulations made thereunder as the Board may think fit, and may, at any time, withdraw or modify any such delegation.

Delegation of powers and duties of Chairman to Vice-Chairman.

11. Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, the Chairman of a Board may by order in writing delegate to the Vice-Chairman or any officer of the Board such of the powers or duties assigned to him by this Act or the rules, by-laws or regulations made thereunder as he may think fit, and may, at any time, in like manner withdraw or modify any such delegation.

CHAPTER III.

ESTABLISHMENT

Health Officers.

12. (1) A Board shall appoint a Health Officer or, if so required by the State Government, more than one Health Officer for the mining settlement.

(2) Such Health Officer or Health Officers shall be appointed in consultation with the State Government from amongst the members of the West Bengal Health Service on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(3) Where more than one Health Officer are appointed for a mining settlement, the area over which each such officer shall have jurisdiction shall be specified in the order of appointment.

Sanitary Inspectors and other officers and servants of the Board.

13. (1) A Board may, with the approval of the State Government, determine the number of Sanitary Inspectors and other officers and servants necessary for its administration and fix the salaries and allowances to be paid to them.

(2) The Board shall have the power to appoint such Sanitary Inspectors and other officers and servants as are referred to in sub-section (1).

(3) In appointing Sanitary Inspectors and other officers and servants the Board may specify the area or areas over which they shall exercise jurisdiction.

Powers and duties of Health Officers and Sanitary Inspectors.

14. (1) A Health Officer shall exercise within the area under his jurisdiction the powers conferred on him and perform the duties imposed upon him by or under this Act, and such other powers and duties consistent with the objects of this Act as the State Government or the Board concerned may, by general or special order, specify.

XXV of 1964.]

(Chapter IV.—Duties of owners and occupiers of lands, buildings or structures in mining settlements.—
Section 15.)

(2) A Sanitary Inspector shall, in respect of any area within the mining settlement for which he has been appointed, be subordinate to the Health Officer having jurisdiction over such area and shall perform such duties and exercise such powers as may be conferred upon him by or under this Act, or as may be delegated to him by the Health Officer with the consent of the Board concerned.

(3) Every Health Officer or Sanitary Inspector or such other officer of a Board as may be specified in this behalf by the State Government may, within the area over which he has jurisdiction,—

- (a) make such inquiries as he may think fit in order to ascertain whether the provisions of this Act and of the rules, by-laws and orders made thereunder are observed;
- (b) enter, with such assistants (if any) as he may think fit, and inspect any place within such area at all reasonable times by day or by night;
- (c) make inquiries regarding the sanitary condition of such area; and
- (d) do all things necessary for the due discharge of the duties imposed upon him by or under this Act.

CHAPTER IV.

DUTIES OF OWNERS AND OCCUPIERS OF LANDS, BUILDINGS OR STRUCTURES IN MINING SETTLEMENTS.

15. (1) Buildings and structures constructed in any area after the declaration thereof as a mining settlement under section 4 shall conform to such conditions as to sanitation, water supply, safety of the dwellers therein and public health as may be prescribed.

(2) If a Board is satisfied that any building or structure within the mining settlement endangers the safety of the dwellers therein, it may, after giving the owner an opportunity of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken under this sub-section, order the demolition of such building or structure:

Provided that no such order shall be executed until after the expiry of the period of appeal or until any appeal filed against it has been disposed of.

(3) Where any building or structure, which was constructed before the declaration of the area in which it is situate as a mining settlement under section 4, is so demolished, the Board shall pay to the owner of such building or structure compensation, to be determined by such authority as the State Government may, by notification, specify in this behalf, for the actual loss sustained by him on account of such demolition.

Buildings and structures constructed within mining settlements to conform to prescribed conditions and power of Board to demolish buildings and structures in certain cases

[West Ben. Act

(Chapter IV.—Duties of owners and occupiers of lands, buildings or structures in mining settlements.—Sections 16—18.)

Appeal.

16. Any person aggrieved by an order under sub-section (2) or by the decision of the authority referred to in sub-section (3) of section 15 may, within thirty days from the date of the order or decision of such authority, as the case may be, prefer an appeal to the District Judge.

Facilities to be afforded to Health Officers, Sanitary Inspectors and other officers and servants of the Board.

17. Every person owning or occupying any land, building or structure within a mining settlement shall furnish the Health Officer or Sanitary Inspector or such other officer or servant of the Board as may be specified in this behalf by the State Government, on requisition, with all reasonable facilities for entering upon such land, building or structure and for any inspection, examination or inquiry under this Act or the rules or by-laws made thereunder.

Power to undertake measures.

18. Subject to such restrictions as may be prescribed, a Board may, on the recommendation of the Health Officer or otherwise, undertake in the mining settlement such measures as it considers necessary to provide for—

- (i) the supply of filtered or other water;
- (ii) sanitation, drainage, conservancy, maintenance of public health and prevention or abatement of nuisances;
- (iii) the housing of residents in the mining settlement, whether permanent or temporary;
- (iv) preventing the outbreak and spread of, and combating, epidemic and other diseases;
- (v) the proper treatment of the sick by the establishment and maintenance of hospitals and dispensaries and a medical staff;
- (vi) the regular inspection of food-stuffs exposed for sale in the mining settlement and report to food inspectors appointed under the Prevention of Food Adulteration Act, 1954;
- (vii) the registration of births, deaths and diseases in the mining settlement;
- (viii) the carrying out generally of the purposes of this Act.

XXV of 1964.]

(Chapter IV.—Duties of owners and occupiers of lands, buildings or structures in mining settlements.—Sections 19—21.)

19. (1) If a Board is satisfied that the necessity for the measures to be taken for any of the purposes specified in section 18 is distinctly referable to any act or omission on the part of the owner or occupier of any land, building or structure within the mining settlement, the Board may, by a notice specifying the measures to be taken, require such owner or occupier, as the case may be,—

Power to require owner of land, etc., to execute works and carry on operations.

(i) to execute within a period to be fixed in the notice, such works as the Board may consider necessary,

(ii) to maintain in good repair any work executed in accordance with such notice, at his own expense.

(2) If a Board is satisfied that in order to prevent or abate a nuisance affecting the public health it is necessary that any owner or occupier of any land, building or structure in any part of the mining settlement should take any measures with respect to any such land, building or structure belonging to him or in his possession or under his management, the Board may by notice require such person to take such measures at his own expense.

(3) If in any of the cases referred to in sub-sections (1) and (2) the Board is satisfied that immediate action is necessary, the Board may, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, by a notice specifying the measures to be taken and the estimated expenses thereof (if any), declare its intention of itself taking such measures at the expense of the owner or occupier of the land, building or structure concerned.

20. (1) Any person who is required by a notice under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 19 to take any measures, may prefer an objection in writing to the Board within fifteen days from the date of service of the notice on him.

Objection against requisition.

(2) The Board may, after considering the objections (if any) preferred under sub-section (1), withdraw, modify or confirm the notice.

21. Subject to the provisions of section 22, where a notice is modified or confirmed under sub-section (2) of section 20, if any measures required to be taken by the notice, as so modified or confirmed, be not taken, to the satisfaction of the Board within the period fixed by the notice, or within such further period (if any) as may be allowed by the Board, or if any work executed in carrying out such measures be not maintained in good repair Power to execute work, etc., in default of owner or occupier and to recover expenses.

[West Ben. A

to the satisfaction of the Board, or where, in any case, the Board has declared its intention of itself taking any measures under sub-section (3) of section 19, the Board may cause such measures to be taken or such repairs effected in such manner as the Board may think fit, and the expenses incurred therefor shall be recoverable from the defaulting owner or occupier of the land, building or structure concerned, as a public demand.

Appeal from declarations and orders under sections 19(3) and 20(2).

22. Any person aggrieved by any declaration made under sub-section (3) of section 19 or by an order passed under sub-section (2) of section 20 may appeal to the Commissioner of the Division within which the mining settlement is situate within thirty days from the date of such declaration or order:

Provided that the filing of such an appeal shall not by itself operate, unless the Commissioner so directs, as a stay of execution of any work to be executed in carrying out any measures by the Board during the pendency of the appeal:

Provided further that where any work is executed during the pendency of any such appeal and the appeal is subsequently allowed, the costs of execution shall be borne by the Board.

Imposition of fee, water rate and conservancy rate.

23. (1) For the purpose of meeting the expenses to be incurred by a Board under this Act, the Board may, in such manner and subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, impose and assess on the owners of a mine or mines, the employees of which reside within the mining settlement, after giving such owners an opportunity of being heard,—

(a) a fee payable by all such owners, and also

(b) a water rate and a conservancy rate, payable by the owners of mines the employees of which reside within the area or areas in respect of which provision has been made by the Board—

(i) in the case of water rate, for the supply of water, and

(ii) in the case of conservancy rate, for the cleansing of private latrines, urinals and cesspools.

(2) The assessment of the fee, water rate and conservancy rate referred to in sub-section (1) shall be made on the basis of quantity of annual output of the mine, at such rate, not exceeding,—

(i) in the case of the fee, rupees ten per hundred metric tonnes,

—Section 25.)*

(ii) in the case of the water rate, fifteen paise per metric tonne, and

(iii) in the case of the conservancy rate, twenty-five paise per metric tonne,

as the Board may fix with the previous approval of the State Government.

(3) The fee, water rate or conservancy rate, imposed under this section, shall be recoverable as a public demand.

(4) Subject to the approval of the State Government the Board may, on such terms as may be prescribed, supply water or render conservancy services to private persons, Railway Authority, local authorities and industrial concerns within the mining settlements.

24. (1) When any land whether within or without the limits of a mining settlement is required for the purposes of this Act, the State Government may, on the application of the Board, proceed to acquire it under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894. Acquisition of land.

(2) The Board shall be bound to pay to the State Government the expenses of acquiring any land for the Board on its application under the provisions of subsection (1). Such expenses shall include the compensation awarded under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, the charges incurred by the State Government in acquiring the land and the costs, if any, incurred by the State Government in proceedings, subsequent to the acquisition, relating to the enhancement of the award for the land.

(3) The State Government shall, on payment to it by the Board of the expenses referred to in sub-section (2), relating to the acquisition of any land, by notification, vest
the land in the Board, and thereupon the land shall vest in the Board free from all incumbrances.

CHAPTER V.

THE MINING SETTLEMENT FUND.

25. (1) Every mining settlement shall have a fund to be called "the Mining Settlement Fund". Such fund shall be vested in the Board, and there shall be placed to the credit thereof— The Mining Settlement-
Fund.

(a) all sums charged and received by the Board under the provisions of this Act;

[West Ben. Act

(Chapter V.—The Mining Settlement Fund.—Section 26.)

- (b) all sums paid to the Board out of the Consolidated Fund of the State by the State Government and all sums borrowed by the Board under the Local Authorities Loans Act, 1914, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act; 9 of 1914
 - (c) all grants received from any local authority, association or private person;
 - (d) all sums realized as expenses, fees, fines, penalties or otherwise under this Act or the rules or by-laws made thereunder;
 - (e) all other sums received by or on behalf of the Board.
- (2) The custody and the investment of the money to the credit of a Mining Settlement Fund shall be such as may be prescribed.

Application of the Fund.

26. (1) A Mining Settlement Fund shall be applied for the following purposes, namely:—

- (i) the payment of expenses incurred by the Board for the purposes of this Act and the rules, by-laws and regulations made thereunder;
- (ii) the payment of contributions or grants for the prevention and control of epidemic and other diseases and for welfare activities in the mining settlement, including contributions referred to in sub-section (2);
- (iii) the payment of any sums which the Board may be liable to pay as interest on loans, and to the re-payment of the principal of such loans;
- (iv) the payment of the cost of audit;
- (v) the payment of the salaries and allowances of the officers and servants employed by the Board;
- (vi) the payment of expenses incurred by the Board in providing medical assistance, in accordance with regulations made under this Act, to the officers and servants employed by the Board;
- (vii) the payment of contributions to a provident or annuity fund for the officers and servants employed by the Board;
- (viii) the payment of pensions and gratuities to the officers and servants employed by the Board and to the members of the families of such officers and servants;

XXV of 1964.]

(Chapter VI.—Penalties.—Section 27.)

- (ia) the payment of travelling allowances to members of the Board;
- (a) the payment of any advances to the officers and servants employed by the Board to enable them to acquire or construct residences for themselves or to enable them to purchase vehicles for use by them in discharging the duties imposed on them by or under this Act;
- (xi) the payment of any other lawful expenses or of any expenses specially sanctioned by the State Government.

(2) If any medical or public health institution, hospital, dispensary or clinic is established and maintained by the State Government within a mining settlement for the benefit of persons residing within the settlement including those employed in mines, the State Government may require the Board to contribute such share of the cost of establishment and maintenance of the institution, hospital, dispensary or clinic, so established and maintained, as the State Government may consider reasonable.

CHAPTER VI.

PENALTIES.

27. (1) Whoever obstructs any Health Officer or Sanitary Inspector or other person duly authorised by a Board to discharge any duties under this Act or the rules or by-laws made thereunder in the discharge of such duties or refuses or wilfully neglects to furnish him with the means necessary for making any entry, inspection, examination or inquiry thereunder in relation to any mining settlement, or withholds any information necessary for the purposes of such inquiry, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both. Penalties for offences.

(2) Whoever makes, gives or delivers any notice or return required to be given by or under this Act containing a statement, entry or detail which is not, to the best of his knowledge or belief, true, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees.

(3) Whoever commits a breach of the requirements--

- (a) of any notice or order made under any provision of this Act or any rule, by-law or order made thereunder, or

[West Ben. Act

(Chapter VI.—Penalties.—Section 28.)

(b) of any provision of this Act or any rule, by-law or order made thereunder, for which no penalty is otherwise provided, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees, and, in the case where such breach is a continuing breach, with a further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day during which the breach is proved to have been persisted in after the date on which the requirements become operative.

Offences
by companies.

28. (1) If the person committing an offence punishable under this Act is a company, every person in charge of and responsible to the company for the conduct of its business at the time of the commission of the offence shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that in the case of an offence punishable with fine the company shall also be liable to be proceeded against and punished

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence punishable under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or that the commission of the offence is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, not being a person deemed under sub-section (1) to be guilty of the offence, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall be deemed to be guilty of abetment of such offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished in the same manner as the person deemed under sub-section (1) to be guilty of the offence.

*Explanation.—*For the purposes of this section—

(a) “company” means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals, and

(b) “director” includes a share-holder and also—

(i) in relation to a firm, a partner in the firm, and

(ii) in relation to an association of individuals, a member of the association.

directions of the State Government.

44. (1) A Board shall comply with all such directions as may be given to it from time to time by the State Government having regard to the provisions of this Act.

(2) If at any time it appears to the State Government that a Board has made persistent default in carrying out any direction given to it under sub-section (1), whether in relation to the functions of the Board referred to in section 18 or otherwise, the State Government may, by order in writing, fix a time for the carrying out of such direction.

(3) If within the time so fixed such direction is not carried out, the State Government may, by order in writing, appoint an officer not below the rank of District Magistrate to carry out such direction and the expenses of carrying it out shall be paid by the Board, within such time as may be fixed by the State Government in the order, from the Mining Settlement Fund to the officer so appointed.

(4) If such expenses are not paid under sub-section (3), the officer appointed under that sub-section may, with the previous sanction of the State Government, make an order directing the persons having the custody of the balance of the Mining Settlement Fund to pay either at one time or by instalments such expenses in priority to any other charges and such person shall pay accordingly.
