

West Bengal Act XXV of 1959

THE WEST BENGAL WILD LIFE PRESERVATION ACT, 1959.

[Passed by the West Bengal Legislature.]

[Assent of the President was first published in the Calcutta Gazette,
Extraordinary, of the 24th December, 1959.]

[24th December, 1959.]

An Act to provide for the better preservation of wild life in West Bengal.

It is hereby enacted in the Tenth Year of the Republic of India, by the Legislature of West Bengal, as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

Preliminary.

1. (1) This Act may be called the West Bengal Wild Life Preservation Act, 1959.

Short
title, extent and commencement.

(2) It extends to the whole of West Bengal.

(3) It shall come into force in such areas as the State Government may by notification in the Official Gazette appoint and different dates may be appointed for different areas.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

Definitions.

- (a) “animal” includes quadrupeds, birds, fish and reptiles, and young ones thereof;
- (b) “Collector” means the Collector of a district or any other officer appointed by the State Government to discharge the functions of a Collector under this Act;
- (c) “hunting” means killing, chasing, pursuing, capturing or wounding and includes also the seizing or destroying of eggs or nests or any attempt or any device to do any of the foregoing acts; and grammatical variations of the word shall be construed accordingly;
- (d) “land” includes water and includes also the soil and sub-soil and rights to mines and minerals and all forests, jungles, trees and vegetation standing or growing on land;

(Chapter II.—Authorities under the Act.—Sections 3, 4. )

- (e) "licence" means a licence issued under this Act;
- (f) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act;
- (g) "trophy" means any dead animal or any part of any animal or any eggs or nests, preserved as a relic or for show;

Explanation.—Part of an animal includes the head, horn, antlers, skin, tusk, tooth, bone, claw, hoof, hair or feather, but does not include any article manufactured or prepared therefrom;

- (h) "wild life" or "wild animal" means any animal specified in the First or the Second Schedule, when in a wild state.

CHAPTER II.

Authorities under the Act.

Appointment of officers.

3. (1) The State Government may for the purpose of this Act appoint the following officers, namely:—

- (a) A Chief Wild Life Preservation Officer for West Bengal,
- (b) Regional Wild Life Preservation Officers,
- (c) Divisional Wild Life Preservation Officers,
- (d) Game Wardens, either honorary or stipendiary, and
- (e) such other officers and servants as it deems necessary.

(2) All such appointments may be made either by name or by virtue of office.

(3) Honorary Game Wardens shall hold office for a period of one year:

Provided that the State Government may terminate the tenure of office of an Honorary Game Warden earlier, if in its opinion, his services are no longer required.

Powers, duties and functions,
etc.

4. (1) The powers, duties and functions of the officers referred to in sub-section (1) of section 3 shall be such as are mentioned in this Act or as may be prescribed.

(2) All officers referred to in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of sub-section (1) of section 3 shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

Act XLV
of 1860.

XXV of 1959.]

(Chapter III.—Hunting of Wild Animals.—Sections 5—7.)

CHAPTER III.

Hunting of Wild Animals.

5. No person shall hunt any wild animal except under a licence and in accordance with prescribed conditions specified in such licence.

Prohibition of hunting wild animals except under licence.

6. (1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare the whole year to be a close time for wild animals mentioned in the First Schedule and may, by like notification, declare what period or periods during the year shall be close time for animals referred to in the Second Schedule.

Close
time.

(2) During the close time specified for any wild animal, it shall not be lawful to hunt such wild animal anywhere within West Bengal, where this Act is in force:

Provided that if the State Government thinks it fit to do so in the public interest, it may authorise any person, institution or authority to hunt, even during the close time, any kind of wild animal, for collecting specimens for scientific or educational purposes.

(3) The State Government may, if it thinks fit to do so in the public interest, at any time, make any alterations or changes in any of the Schedules.

7. (1) No person shall hunt any wild animal from or by means of a wheeled or mechanically propelled vehicle on land or by aircraft.

Restrictions on the methods
of hunting.

(2) No person shall use a motor car, motor cycle, or aircraft for the purpose of killing, driving or stampeding any wild animal.

(3) No person shall hunt any wild animal with poison or poisoned weapons.

(4) No person shall for the purpose of hunting wild animal set fire to any vegetation.

(5) No person shall use any artificial light for the purpose of hunting any wild animal (except in the case of carnivora).

(6) No person shall hunt any wild animal (except pigs, bears and carnivora) between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise.

(7) No person shall hunt any wild animal on a salt-lick or water-hole or on paths and approaches to the same.

(Chapter III.—Hunting of Wild Animals.—Sections 8—10.)

Procedure for obtaining licence.

8. (1) Any person desiring to obtain a licence shall apply to the Divisional Wild Life Preservation Officer concerned.

(2) Upon the receipt of such application, the Divisional Wild Life Preservation Officer shall, after making such enquiries, if any, as he deems necessary, either grant or refuse such licence.

(3) Where the Divisional Wild Life Preservation Officer refuses to grant a licence to any person, he shall record in writing the reasons for such refusal and furnish to the person on request a brief statement of the same unless in any case he records his opinion that it will not be in the public interest to furnish such statement.

(4) Any person aggrieved by the refusal of a licence may appeal within thirty days of the date of the order and in the prescribed manner to the Regional Wild Life Preservation Officer concerned. No such appeal shall be disposed of unless the appellant has been given an opportunity of being heard. An order passed in appeal shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (5), be final and conclusive.

(5) The Chief Wild Life Preservation Officer may, on his own motion or on the motion of any person aggrieved, at any time revise any order passed under sub-section (4) and his order on such revision shall be final and conclusive:

Provided that no order shall be passed in revision which adversely affects any person unless such person has been given an opportunity of being heard.

(6) The fee for a licence shall be as may be prescribed.

Duration
and cancellation
of licences.

9. (1) Every licence granted under this chapter shall be valid for such period as may be prescribed.

(2) The Divisional Wild Life Preservation Officer may, at any time, if he is satisfied that the holder of a licence has failed to comply with the conditions specified in the licence, cancel such licence, after giving the holder an opportunity of being heard. Where a licence is cancelled as aforesaid, any person aggrieved shall have the same right of appeal and revision as if the licence had been refused.

Licence-holder to keep record.

10. (1) The holder of every licence shall keep a record containing such particulars as may be prescribed, of all wild animals hunted by him during the currency of the licence.

(2) Not later than thirty days after the expiry of his licence, the holder of the licence shall surrender his licence and also the record referred to in sub-section (1) to the Divisional Wild Life Preservation Officer concerned and shall also furnish him with a declaration in the prescribed form certifying the accuracy of the record.

(Chapter IV.—Wild Life Sanctuaries.—Sections 11, 12.)

CHAPTER IV.

Wild Life Sanctuaries.

11. (1) If the State Government thinks it fit to do so in the public interest, it may in respect of any area which in its opinion is fit to be a Wild Life Sanctuary, issue a proclamation in the Official Gazette—

Wild Life Sanctuaries.

(a) stating that in its opinion, the area is fit to be a Wild Life Sanctuary and that the State Government intends to acquire such area for establishing a Wild Life Sanctuary;

(b) specifying as nearly as possible the situation and the limits of such area.

(2) Upon the issue of such a proclamation,—

(a) no person shall cut down any tree or vegetation or clear any forest or jungle or hunt any wild animal within such area;

(b) an officer of Government generally or specially empowered in this behalf may enter upon such land with workmen and other suitable persons and make surveys and measurements, dig and bore into the soil or sub-soil or mark out boundaries by cutting trenches or ditches, or setting up hedges, fences, railings, walls or pillars as may be necessary.

(3) After a period of at least three months from the date of such proclamation, the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare the area to be a Wild Life Sanctuary and thereupon the area shall be a Wild Life Sanctuary and the land comprised in such area shall vest in the State free from all interests and incumbrances in favour of any person, except so much of such land as has already vested in the State under the West Bengal Estates Acquisition Act, 1953.

West
Ben. Act
I of 1954.

(4) For the purposes of this section, it shall be sufficient to specify the situation and the limits of any area by roads, rivers, ridges or other well-known or readily intelligible boundaries.

12. (1) Any person whose land or interest in land or incumbrance in land vests in the State under sub-section (3) of section 11, may apply to the Collector within three months of the issue of the declaration under that sub-section for the determination and award of compensation to be paid to him.

Principles to be followed in fixing compensation.

(2) Every such application shall describe the land or the nature and extent of the interest or incumbrance of the applicant in the land, as the case may be.

(Chapter IV.—Wild Life Sanctuaries.—Sections 1 —15.)

(3) The amount of compensation payable shall be the price, which, in the opinion of the Collector, the land or the interest or the incumbrance would have fetched in the open market if it had been sold on the date of the declaration.

(4) In determining the amount of compensation payable under sub-section (3), the Collector shall give the applicant an opportunity of being heard and shall also take such evidence and make such enquiries, if any, as he thinks fit.

(5) An appeal shall lie to the Commissioner of the Division in which the area is situated against an order of the Collector determining and awarding compensation. Any order passed on such appeal shall be final and conclusive.

Manner of payment of compensation.

13. (1) Where the amount of compensation awarded under this chapter does not exceed Rs.5,000, it shall be paid entirely in cash, within one year from the date of the last order awarding compensation.

(2) Where the amount of compensation awarded under this chapter exceeds Rs. 5,000, a sum of Rs. 5,000 shall be paid in cash within one year from the date of the last order awarding compensation, and the remainder shall be paid in bonds carrying interest at  $2\frac{1}{2}$  per cent. per annum on the total sum awarded (less the sum of Rs.5,000 paid) with effect from such date and payable in ten equal annual instalments, the first annual instalment being due on the day one year after such date.

Prohibition of hunting in Wild Life
Sanctuaries.

14. No person shall hunt any animal in any Wild Life Sanctuary:

Provided that the Regional Wild Life Preservation Officer concerned, may, if he thinks that it is necessary that any animals should be hunted, for better preservation of other animals, authorize any person whom he deems suitable to hunt the first-mentioned animals, either temporarily for a specific period or permanently, and with or without any licence.

Permit to enter or reside within Wild Life
Sanctuary.

15. No person other than,—

(a) a public servant on duty,

(b) any person passing along a public highway running through a Wild Life Sanctuary, shall enter or reside within a Wild Life Sanctuary except under a permit issued by the officer prescribed in this behalf.

XXV of 1959.]

(Chapter V.—Business in Trophies and Pet Animals.—Sections 16, 17.—Chapter VI.—Offences and Penalties.—Sections 18, 19.)

CHAPTER V.

Business in Trophies and Pet Animals.

16. (1) No person shall carry on the business of a trophy dealer or a dealer in pet animals except under and in accordance with the conditions of a business certificate granted under this chapter. Business certificate to be obtained for dealing in trophies and pet animals.

(2) Nothing in this section shall require any person to obtain a business certificate—

(i) for possessing pet animals, not exceeding twelve in number, or

(ii) for possessing trophies which have been lawfully acquired by him, provided such animals or trophies are kept by him for his individual use or benefit.

17. (1) A business certificate referred to in section 16 may be issued by the officer prescribed in this behalf on application made in that behalf and on payment of such fees as may be prescribed. Issue of business certificates, the period of their validity and records and returns.

(2) Every such business certificate shall be valid for one year from the date of issue.

(3) Every holder of such business certificate shall keep such record and submit such return to the officer referred to in sub-section (1) as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER VI.

Offences and Penalties.

18. (1) Any person who contravenes the provisions of section 5, sub-section (2) of section 6, section 7, section 10, section 14, section 15, sub-section (1) of section 16 or sub-section (3) of section 17, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act and shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to Rs. 500 or with both. Offences and penalties.

(2) When a person is convicted of an offence under this Act, the court convicting such person may also order that any animal or trophy in respect of which the offence has been committed, or any weapon or instrument, vehicle or vessel used in committing the offence, shall be forfeited to the State or that any licence or permit or business certificate held by such person be cancelled.

19. No court shall take cognizance of an offence under this Act except on written complaint of any officer referred to in clause (a), (b) or (c) of sub-section (1) of section 3 or Cognizance of offences of a police-officer not below the rank of a Sub-Inspector of Police and unless the prosecution is instituted within three months from the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed.

Power of entry, search,
seizure
and arrest.

20. (1) Any officer referred to in clause (a), (b), (c) or (d) of sub-section (1) of section 3 or any police-officer not below the rank of a Sub-Inspector of Police may, if he has reasonable grounds for believing that a person has committed an offence under this Act,—

(a) require such person to produce for his inspection, any animal or carcase thereof, or any trophy in his possession, or any licence, permit or business certificate issued to him under this Act;

(b) stop, enter and search any vehicle or vessel in the occupation of any person and open and search any package or other thing in his possession;

(c) seize any animal or carcase thereof, or any trophy or any weapon, instrument, vehicle or vessel, if there is reasonable ground for believing that it has been procured or used in committing such offence;

(d) arrest any person against whom reasonable suspicion exists of having committed such offence.

(2) Any officer arresting a person under clause (d) of sub-section (1) may release him on his executing a bond in the prescribed form to appear if and when so required before a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the case or before the officer-in-charge of the nearest police-station.

(3) Where a person arrested under clause (d) of sub-section (1) is not released under sub-section (2), the officer arresting him shall forthwith take and produce him to the officer-in-charge of the nearest police-station, who shall deal with him according to law.

(4) Any officer making any seizure under clause (c) of sub-section (1) shall forthwith take and produce the objects seized to the officer-in-charge of the nearest police-station, who shall deal with them according to law.

Compounding of offences.

21. Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sections of this chapter, where a person is alleged to have committed an offence under this Act, an officer referred to in clause (a), (b) or (c) of sub-section (1) of section 3, may, in accordance with such rules as may be prescribed, accept from such person, by way of composition of such offence, a sum not exceeding Rs.200, as may be determined by him. Upon payment of such sum within such period as may be prescribed, no proceedings shall be commenced against such person and any proceedings already started shall not be further proceeded with.
