CHAPTER III

VESTING OF PROPERTY, ASSETS, LIABILITIES AND OBLIGATIONS AND TRANSFER OF EMPLOYEES

18. Vesting and transfer of property to <sup>3</sup>[the Authority].— (1) From such different dates as may be specified, from time to time, by the State Government (hereinafter in this section referred to as “the appointed date”),—

(a) the properties and assets (including water works, buildings, laboratories, stores, vehicles, furnitures and other furnishing), specified in that behalf, which immediately before the appointed date, were vested in the State Government for the purposes of the Maharashtra Environmental Engineering Service, shall vest in and stand transferred to <sup>4</sup>[the Authority]; and

(b) the rights, liabilities and obligations of the State Government, whether arising out of any contract or otherwise pertaining to the said service, shall be the rights, liabilities and obligations of <sup>5</sup>[the Authority].

(2) such properties, assets, rights, liabilities and obligations shall valued in such manner as the State Government may determine.

(3) All suits and other legal proceedings with respect to the matters referred to above instituted or to be instituted or defended by or against the State Government before the appointed date may be continued, or instituted, or defended by or against <sup>6</sup>[the Authority].

19. Decision of the State Government on the vesting of property to be final.— Where any doubt or dispute arises as to whether any property or asset has vested in <sup>7</sup>[the Authority] under section 18 or any rights, liabilities or obligations have become the rights, liabilities and obligations of <sup>8</sup>[the Authority] under that section, such doubt or dispute shall be referred to the State Government, whose decision shall be final.

20. Vesting of existing water supply and sewerage services in <sup>9</sup>[the Authority].— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, <sup>10</sup>[the Authority] may, at any time, with the previous approval of the State Government take over any water supply and sewerage services for maintenance or augmentation or improvement from any local body, and in such cases—

(a) all the existing water supply and sewerage services, sewerage works and sewage farms, including, as the case may be, all plants, machineries, water works, pumping stations, filter beds, water mains and public sewers in, along, over or under any public street and all buildings, lands and other works, materials, stores and things appertaining thereto, belonging to or vested in that local body;

(b) so much of the sub-soil appertaining to the said water mains and sewers as may be necessary for the purpose of enlarging, deepening or otherwise repairing or maintaining, any such water mains and sewers or any pipes and other appliances and fittings connected with such water supply and sewerage services and sewerage works and sewage farms; and

(c) all rights, liabilities and obligations of such local body relating to the things mentioned in clauses (a) and (b) including the right to recover arrears of water tax and sewerage tax, by whatever name called, and of any cost or fees or charges relating to water supply and sewerage services and also including liabilities arising from any loans advanced by Government or any other persons to the said local body for the things aforesaid, other than loans diverted to or utilised for purposes other than those referred to in clauses (a) and (b), shall, on such date as may be specified by <sup>1</sup>[the Authority], stand transferred to and vested in <sup>2</sup>[the Authority] and be subject to its control.

(2) Such properties, assets, rights, liabilities and obligations shall be valued in such manner as the State Government may determine.

(3) Where any doubt or dispute arises as to whether any property or assets has vested in <sup>3</sup>[the Authority] under sub-section (1) or any rights, liabilities or obligations have become the rights, liabilities or obligations of <sup>4</sup>[the Authority] under this section, such doubt and dispute shall be referred to the State Government, whose decision shall be final and binding on <sup>5</sup>[the Authority] and the local body concerned.

(4) For taking over any properties or assests of the local body, <sup>6</sup>[the Authority] shall pay to that body such amount as may be mutually agreed upon. In the absence of any such agreement, the State Government shall determine the amount to be paid to the local body on the basis of the valuation made under sub-section (2) and after taking into consideration the statutory duty of the local body to provide water supply and sewerage services, the grants received by the local body, from time to time, the outstanding loan liabilities of the local body, and such other relevant factors. The decision of the State Government shall be final and binding on both parties.

21. <sup>7</sup>[Authority] to assume obligations in respect of matters to which this Act applies for water works taken over from local bodies.— In respect of water works taken over from a local body by <sup>8</sup>[the Authority], all debts and obligations incurred, all contracts entered into, all matters and things engaged to be done by, with or for any local body prior to taking over the works by <sup>9</sup>[the Authority] shall be deemed to have been incurred, entered into or engaged to be done by, with or for <sup>10</sup>[the Authority]; and all suits or other legal proceedings instituted or which might, but for transfer and

22. Co-ordination of activities of <sup>2</sup>[the Authority] and other local bodies.— If the State Government is of opinion that it is in the public interest that <sup>3</sup>[the Authority] and other local bodies having jurisdiction over contiguous areas should co-ordinate their activities in relation to water supply services or a sewerage services or both, it may issue such directions to <sup>4</sup>[the Authority] and the other local bodies concerned as it may think fit. It shall be the duty of <sup>5</sup>[the Authority] and other local bodies to comply with such directions.

<sup>6</sup>[22A. Posting and appointment of Engineers in Zilla Parishad, and Maharashtra Jeevan Authority, respectively.]— (1) On the directions issued by the State Government, the Authority shall post, from time to time, to work under the Zilla Parishads constituted under the Maharashtra Zilla Parishads and Panchayat Samitis Act, 1961 (Mah. V of 1962), such number of Deputy Engineers, (Grade-II) and Executive Engineers (Grade-I), from its cadre of Engineers, having due regard to exigencies of services in the Zilla Parishads for such period and on such terms and conditions as may be decided by the Authority and the concerned Zilla Parishads:

Provided that the terms and conditions of service of such persons shall not be less advantageous than those applicable to them immediately before such posting.

(2) The Authority shall make a provision in consultation with the State Government, in its recruitment rules for the post of Engineers (Grade-II), so as to make eligible for appointment, on the establishment of the Authority the employees of the District Technical Services (Class-III), specified in the said rules, and the State Government shall prepare a select list of the employees of the District Technical Services (Class-III), for appointment of such employees to the post of Engineer (Grade-II), in the Authority.

(3) Where under the recruitment rules for the Engineer (Grade-II), of the Authority, the employees of the District Technical Services (Class-III), specified therein, are made eligible for appointment in such Engineer (Grade-II), Service, the Authority or an Officer authorised by it in that behalf, in consultation with the State Government and the employee concerned, and having due regard to the exigencies of service in the Authority and also in the Zilla Parishads by order in writing appoint, from time to time, such employees in the authority from the select list, prepared of the employees of the District Technical Services (Class-III) not earlier than one year from the date of such appointment, by the State Government.

(4) The employees from the District Technical Services (Class-III), appointed in Engineer (Grade-II), Service of the Authority shall be the officers of the Authority and shall be governed by the conditions of service made by the Authority for the said posts:

Provided that any service rendered by any such employee under the concerned Zilla Parishads shall be deemed to be the service rendered under the Authority.

(5) It shall be the duty of the Authority and the Zilla Parishads to comply with the directions issued by the State Government in this behalf.]

<sup>7</sup>[22AA. Power of State Government to depute Government employees entrusted to Maharashtra Jeevan Authority to Zilla Parishads.]— Where on transfer or entrustment of powers and functions of the Authority to the Zilla Parishads or Panchayat Samitis, by or under this Act, any posts in a cadre of Class III or Class IV service of the Authority, have been or are rendered surplus to the requirements of the Authority, the State Government may, having due regard to the increase of under <sup>1</sup>[the Authority] until his employment under <sup>2</sup>[the Authority] is duly terminated or his remuneration or other conditions of service are duly revised or altered by <sup>3</sup>[the Authority] in pursuance of the law which for the time being governs his conditions of service:

Provided that, the conditions of service applicable immediately before the appointed date to the case of any such Officer or servant shall not be varied to his disadvantage, except with the previous approval of the State Government.

(4) The sums standing to the credit of the employees referred to in sub-section (1) in any pension, provident fund, gratuity or other like funds constituted for them shall be transferred by the State Government to <sup>4</sup>[the Authority] along with any accumulated interest due till the appointed date and with the accounts relating to such funds. On and after the appointed date <sup>5</sup>[the Authority] shall, to the exclusion of the State Government, be liable for payment of pension, provident fund, gratuity or other like sums as may be payable to such employees at the appropriate time in accordance with the conditions of their service.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), or in any other law for the time being in force, the transfer of services of any employee to <sup>6</sup>[the Authority] under sub-section (1) shall not entitle any such employee to any compensation under that Act or such other law and no such claim shall be entertained by any Court, tribunal or authority.

(6) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) shall apply to any employee who by notice in writing given to the State Government within two months from the appointed date or such extended time as the State Government may, by general or special order, specify, intimates his intention of not becoming or continuing as an employee of <sup>7</sup>[the Authority]. Where such notice is received from any employee—

(a) in case of a permanent employee, he shall be allowed to retire giving him the benefit of pension, gratuity, provident fund and other benefits accrued to him had he retired from the Government service on the appointed date;

(b) in case of a temporary employee, his services shall stand terminated after giving him notice or remuneration in lieu of notice as per the existing service rules of the State Government.

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-sections—

(a) no person employed in the Maharashtra Environmental Engineering Service against whom any disciplinary proceeding is pending or to whom any notice or order of termination of his services or compulsory retirement has been issued before the date of commencement of this Act shall be transferred to <sup>8</sup>[the Authority], and such person may be dealt with after the said date in such manner and by such authority as the State Government may by general or special order specify in this behalf;

(b) if the services of any employee of the State Government stand transferred under sub-section (1) to <sup>9</sup>[the Authority] shall be competent after such transfer to take such disciplinary or other action as it thinks fit against or in respect of such employee having regard to any act or omission or conduct or record of such employee which he was in service of the State Government.

Authority] by or under this Act, in the opinion of the State Government, any posts in the Maharashtra Environmental Engineering Service of any officers and servants belonging to categories referred to in entries (3) and (4) in clause (xiii) of section 2, have been rendered or are likely to be rendered surplus wholly or partially, to the requirements of the State Government, or where the services of any such officers and servants are required by <sup>1</sup>[the Authority] for efficient exercise of its powers, performance of its duties or discharge of its functions, the State Government, the Head of the Department of the State Government or any officer authorised by the State Government in this behalf may, from time to time, having regard to the necessity therefor, by order depute such officers and servants to <sup>2</sup>[the Authority] and <sup>3</sup>[the Authority] shall take them over and employ them on deputation, subject to the provisions of this section.

(2) The period of deputation of any such employee to <sup>4</sup>[the Authority] shall be two years from the date he is taken over by <sup>5</sup>[the Authority] (hereinafter in this section referred to as “the appointed date”), except when, with the consent of <sup>6</sup>[the Authority] and the State Government, he elects to remain on deputation for a longer period not exceeding five years in the aggregate, or except when he is recalled to Government service at any time by the State Government in consultation with <sup>7</sup>[the Authority]. After the expiry of the period of deputation, he shall stand repatriated to service under the State Government.

(3) Any employee so deputed shall have an option, which shall be exercised by him within a period of one year from the appointed date by giving a notice in writing to the State Government, requesting the State Government to permit him to revert to Government service after the expiry of the period of two years of deputation or to permit him to be absorbed in the service of the <sup>8</sup>[the Authority]. If <sup>9</sup>[the Authority] agrees to absorb him in its service on the same terms and conditions as are laid down in section 23, he shall become an employee of <sup>10</sup>[the Authority] from the date specified by it and the provisions of section 23 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to him as if he were transferred to <sup>11</sup>[the Authority] under that section. If any employee fails to give notice as aforesaid in time, he shall be deemed to have opted to revert to Government service after the expiry of the period of two years of deputation.

(4) If during the period of the first two years of compulsory deputation, employee concerned is entitled to promotion in his parent Department, he shall at his request in writing be permitted to revert to his parent Department or to get proforma promotion if he continues on deputation with <sup>12</sup>[the Authority].

(5) No employee on deputation to <sup>13</sup>[the Authority] shall be entitled to any deputation allowance.

(6) The salaries and allowances of employees on deputation to <sup>14</sup>[the Authority] shall be paid from <sup>15</sup>[the Authority] Fund.

(7) Save as otherwise provided in this section, the terms and conditions of service of employees on deputation to <sup>16</sup>[the Authority] shall not be less advantageous than those applicable to them immediately before deputation and shall not be varied to their disadvantages except with the previous sanction of the State Government].

CHAPTER IV

CONTRACT, FINANCE, ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

24. Execution of contracts, etc.— Every contract or assurance of property on behalf of <sup>1</sup>[the Authority] shall be in writing and executed by such authority or officer and in such manner as may be provided by regulations.

25. <sup>2</sup>[Authority] Fund.— <sup>3</sup>[The Authority] shall have its own fund to be called “the <sup>4</sup>[Authority] Loan Fund”, which shall also be deemed to be a local fund and to which shall be credited all moneys received by or on behalf of <sup>5</sup>[the Authority] by way of loans.

26. Other funds of <sup>6</sup>[the Authority].— (1) <sup>7</sup>[The Authority] shall also have another fund to be called “the Loan Fund”, which shall also be deemed to be a local fund and to which shall be credited all moneys received by or on behalf of <sup>8</sup>[the Authority] by way of loans.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 25 or sub-section (1) of this section, <sup>9</sup>[the Authority] may, with the previous approval of the State Government constitute such other funds as may be necessary for the efficient performance of duties and discharge of its functions under this Act.

27. General principles for <sup>10</sup>[the Authority] finance.— (1) <sup>11</sup>[The Authority] shall not, as far as practicable, and after taking credit for any grant or subvention from the State Government under section 58, carry on its operation under this Act at a loss.

28. Grants and subventions to <sup>12</sup>[the Authority].— The State Government may, under appropriation duly made in this behalf, from time to time, make grants and subventions to <sup>13</sup>[the Authority] for the purposes of this Act, on such terms and conditions as the State Government may determine.

29. Loans to <sup>14</sup>[the Authority].— The State Government, from time to time, advance loans to <sup>15</sup>[the Authority] on such terms and conditions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as the State Government and <sup>16</sup>[the Authority] may agree upon.

30. Initial contribution of Government to <sup>17</sup>[the Authority] Fund.— Under appropriation duly made in this behalf, the State Government may make an initial contribution to <sup>18</sup>[the Authority] Fund of rupees one crore or such lesser sum as it thinks fit.

31. Powers to borrow and relend.— (1) <sup>19</sup>[The Authority] may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the State Government and subject to the provisions of this Act and to such conditions as the State Government may, by general or special order, impose, borrow any moneys required for the purposes of this Act by making arrangements with the Banks or other bodies or institutions by the State Government for this purpose.

(2) <sup>1</sup>[The Authority] may advance any part of such borrowings to any local body for the performance of its duties and discharge of its functions relating to water supply and sewerage services on such terms and conditions as <sup>2</sup>[the Authority] may determine.

32. Depreciation reserve.— <sup>3</sup>[The Authority] shall create a depreciation reserve and make annual provision therefor in accordance with such principles as may be prescribed.

33. Government as guarantor.— The State Government may guarantee the repayment of any loan and payment of interest on all or any of the loans given or transferred to <sup>4</sup>[the Authority] for the purposes of this Act.

34. Accounts and audit.— (1) <sup>5</sup>[The Authority] shall, before the commencement of, and may at any time during a financial year, prepare a statement or a supplementary statement, as the case may be, of the programme of its activities during that year as well as a financial estimate in respect thereof and the same shall be submitted to the State Government in such form and by such dates as the State Government may, by general or special order, direct, for the previous approval of the State Government:

Provided that, in the event of such previous approval not being received before the commencement of the financial year for which such financial statement has been submitted, <sup>6</sup>[the Authority] shall be entitled to expend on all accounts upto an amount not exceeding the amount approved for the corresponding period of the previous financial year and such amount shall not include any sum spent out of the grants and subventions during the said period.

(2) <sup>7</sup>[The Authority] shall cause to be maintained such proper books of account and other books in relation to its accounts and prepare the balance sheet in such form and manner as the regulations may require.

(3) The accounts of <sup>8</sup>[the Authority] shall be audited by such Auditor, in such manner and at such times, as the State Government may, by general or special order, direct. The Auditor so appointed shall have such powers of requiring the production of documents and the furnishing of information respecting such matter, and shall have such powers in respect of disallowance and surcharge as may be prescribed.

(4) The accounts of <sup>9</sup>[the Authority] as certified by the Auditor together with the audit report thereon shall be forwarded annually to the State Government, who may issue such directions to <sup>10</sup>[the Authority] as it may deem fit and <sup>11</sup>[the Authority] shall comply with such directions.

(5) The State Government shall cause the accounts of <sup>12</sup>[the Authority] to be published in such manner as it thinks fit.

CHAPTER V

FEES AND CHARGES

35. Cost of water.— (1) <sup>13</sup>[The Authority] shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, fix the cost of water to be supplied according to volume, and also the minimum cost to be charged in respect of each connection.

(2) <sup>1</sup>[The Authority] may, in lieu of charging the cost of water according to volume, accept from any consumer a fixed sum for a specified period on the basis of expected consumption of water during that period.

36. Cost of disposal of waste water.— (1) <sup>2</sup>[The Authority] shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, fix the cost of disposal of waste water according to its volume (which may be such percentage of the volume of total water supplied to the consumer as may be prescribed), and also the minimum cost to be charged in respect of such disposal.

(2) <sup>3</sup>[The Authority] may, in lieu of charging the cost of disposal of waste water according to the basis stated in sub-section (1), accept from any consumer a fixed sum for a specified period on the basis of expected disposal of waste water during that period.

37. Meter rent and fees for services.— (1) <sup>4</sup>[The Authority] may provide water meters and charge such rent for the meter as may be provided in the bye-laws.

(2) <sup>5</sup>[The Authority] may charge fees for connection, disconnection, re-connection of any water supply or sewer or testing or supervision or for any other service rendered or work executed or supervised at such rates as may be provided by the bye-laws.

38. Deposits.— <sup>6</sup>[The Authority] may by bye-laws provide for requiring any consumers or class of consumers to deposit such sums as may be specified therein as security for prompt payment of its dues and due performance of the conditions subject to which services are rendered to them. It shall be lawful for <sup>7</sup>[the Authority] to recover its dues from the amount so deposited.

39. Recovery of sums due to <sup>8</sup>[the Authority].— Any sum due to <sup>9</sup>[the Authority] on account of cost of water, cost of disposal of waste water, meter rent, fees, charges or otherwise under this Act, shall, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

CHAPTER VI

WATER SUPPLY

40. Definition of supply of water for domestic purposes.— The supply of water for domestic purposes under this Act means supply for any purpose, except the following, namely :—

- (a) for any trade, manufacture or business;
- (b) for gardens or for purposes of irrigation;
- (c) for building purposes, including construction of streets;
- (d) for fountains, swimming baths, public baths or tanks or for any ornamental or mechanical purpose;
- (e) for animals, where they are kept for sale or hire or for the sale of their produces;
- (f) for the consumption and use at a restaurant or by inmates of a hotel, boarding house or residential club;
- (g) for the consumption and use by persons resorting to theatres and cinemas;
- (h) for watering streets; or
- (i) for washing vehicles where they are kept for sale or hire.

<sup>9</sup> These words were substituted for the word “the Board” by Mah. 25 of 1997, s. 5.

41. Water supply for domestic purposes not to be used for non-domestic purposes.— No person shall, except in such circumstances or subject to such conditions as may be provided by the bye-laws, use or allow to be used water supplied by <sup>1</sup>[the Authority] for domestic purposes for any other purpose.

42. Licensed plumbers.— (1) No person, other than a plumber licensed by <sup>2</sup>[the Authority] shall execute any work in respect of a water connection not being work of a trivial nature and no person shall permit any such work to be executed by a person other than a licenced plumber.

(2) When any work is executed in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1), such work shall be liable to be dismantled at the discretion of <sup>3</sup>[the Authority].

43. Prohibition of wastage of water.— (1) No owner or occupier of any premises to which water is supplied by <sup>4</sup>[the Authority] shall cause or suffer any water to be wasted, or cause or suffer the service pipe or any tap or other fitting or work connected therewith to remain out of repair so as to cause wastage of water.

(2) Whenever <sup>5</sup>[the Authority] has reason to believe that as a result of defect in a service pipe or tap or other fitting or work connected therewith water is being wasted, <sup>6</sup>[the Authority] may by written notice require the consumer to repair and make good the defect within such time as may be specified.

(3) If such repair is not carried out within the time specified, <sup>7</sup>[the Authority] may without prejudice to any action against the consumer under any other provision of this Act, cause such repair to be made. The cost of such repairs shall be realised from the consumer.

44. Power to cut off water supply.— (1) <sup>8</sup>[The Authority] may cut off the water supply from any premises—

(a) if any fee, rental, cost of water or any charge or other sum due under this Act, is not paid within a period of fifteen days after service of a bill for the same; or

(b) if after the receipts of a written notice from <sup>9</sup>[the Authority] requiring him to refrain from so doing, the consumer continues to use the water or to permit the same to be used in contravention of the provisions of this Act, or any rules or regulations or bye-laws; or

(c) if the consumer damages or causes to be damaged the water meter or any connection pipe or ferrule; or

(d) if the consumer refuses to admit any officer or servant of <sup>10</sup>[the Authority] duly authorised in this behalf into the premises which he proposes to enter for the purposes of executing any work or placing or removing any apparatus or of making any examination or inquiry in connection with the water supply or prevents any such officer or servant from executing any work or placing or removing any apparatus or making such examination or enquiry; or

(e) if the service or any tap or other fitting or work connected therewith is found on examination by an officer or servant of <sup>11</sup>[the Authority] duly authorised in this behalf to be out of repair to such an extent as to cause wastage or contamination of water and immediate prevention thereof is necessary; or

(f) if the consumer causes or allows to be caused the service pipe or any tap or other fitting or work connected therewith to be placed, removed, repaired or otherwise interfered with, in contravention of the provisions of this Act or of the rules or regulations or bye-laws; or

(g) if by reasons of leakage in the service pipe or any tap or other fitting or work damage is caused to a public street and immediate prevention thereof is necessary.

(2) No action taken under or in pursuance of this section shall relieve a person from any penalty or liability which he may otherwise have incurred.

(3) <sup>1</sup>[The Authority] may reconnect the supply of water disconnected under sub-section (1) on payment of such charges and on such terms and conditions as may be provided by bye-laws.

45. Prohibition of certain other acts.— (1) No person shall—

(a) wilfully obstruct any person acting under the authority of <sup>2</sup>[the Authority] in setting out the lines of any work or pull up or remove any pillar, post or stay fixed in the ground for the purposes of setting out the lines of such works, or deface or destroy any works made for the said purpose; or

(b) wilfully or negligently break, injure, turn on, open, close, shut off or otherwise interfere with any lock, cock, valve, pipe, meter or other work or apparatus belonging to <sup>3</sup>[the Authority]; or

(c) unlawfully obstruct the flow of or flush, draw off, or divert, or take water from any water works belonging to <sup>4</sup>[the Authority] or any water course by which any such water is supplied; or

(d) obstruct any officer or servant of <sup>5</sup>[the Authority] in the performance and discharge of his duties and functions under this Chapter or refuse or wilfully neglect to furnish him with means necessary for the making of any entry, inspection, examination or inquiry thereunder in relation to any water works; or

(e) bathe in, at or upon any water works, or wash or throw or cause to enter therein any animal or throw any rubbish, dirt or filth into any water works, or wash or clean therein any cloth, wool or leather or the skin of any animal, or cause water of any sink or drain or any steam engine or boiler or any other polluted water to turn or be brought into any water works, or do any other act whereby the water in any water works belonging to <sup>6</sup>[the Authority] is fouled or likely to be fouled.

(2) Nothing in clause (b) of sub-section (1) shall apply to a consumer closing the stop-cock fixed on the service pipe supplying water to his premises so long as he has obtained the consent of any other consumer whose supply be affected thereby.

CHAPTER VII

SEWERAGE

46. Right of owner or occupier to obtain sewer connection.— The owner or occupier of any premises shall be entitled to empty sewage of the premises into a sewer of <sup>7</sup>[the Authority], provided that, before doing so, he,—

(a) obtains written permission of <sup>8</sup>[the Authority] and pays connection fee and other charges in accordance with the bye-laws; and

(b) complies such other conditions as may be provided by the bye-laws.

47. Power to require owner to have sewer connection.— Where any premises are in the opinion of <sup>1</sup>[the Authority], without sufficient means of effectual disposal of sewage and sewer of <sup>2</sup>[the Authority] is situated at a distance of fifty metres from any part of the premises, <sup>3</sup>[the Authority] may, by written notice, require the owner of the said premises to have sewer connection as provided by bye-laws.

48. Prohibition of connection with sewer without permission.— No person shall, without the permission of <sup>4</sup>[the Authority], make or cause to be made any connection or communication with any sewer of <sup>5</sup>[the Authority].

49. Prohibition of construction of private street or building over sewer without permission.— No person shall, without the permission of <sup>6</sup>[the Authority], construct any private street, building or other structure on any sewer of <sup>7</sup>[the Authority].

50. Power to affix shaft etc. for ventilation of sewer or cess pool.— <sup>8</sup>[The Authority] may, for the purpose of ventilating any sewer or cess-pool, whether vested in <sup>9</sup>[the Authority] or not, erect upon any premises or affix to the outside of any building, or to any tree, any shaft or pipes as may appear to it to be necessary.

51. Power to examine and test sewer etc. believed to be defective.— (1) Where it appears to <sup>10</sup>[the Authority] that there are reasonable grounds for believing that private sewer or cess-pool is in such condition as to be prejudicial to public health or to be a nuisance or that a private sewer communicating directly or indirectly with a sewer of <sup>11</sup>[the Authority] is so defective as to admit sub-soil water or grit or other materials <sup>12</sup>[the Authority] may examine its condition and for that purpose may apply any test, not being a test by water under pressure, and if it deems it necessary, open the ground.

(2) If on examination the sewer or cess-pool is found to be in proper condition <sup>13</sup>[the Authority] shall, as soon as possible, reinstate any ground which has been opened by it and determine and pay compensation for the damage caused by it.

52. Prohibition of certain other acts.— No person shall—

(a) wilfully obstruct any person acting under the authority of <sup>14</sup>[the Authority] under this Chapter in setting out the lines of any works or pull up or remove any pillar, post or stay fixed in the ground for the purposes of setting out lines of such work or deface or destroy any works made for the said purposes; or

(b) wilfully or negligently break, injure, turn on, open, close, shut off or otherwise interfere with any lock, valve, pipe or other works or apparatus belonging to <sup>15</sup>[the Authority] and pertaining to its duties and functions under this Chapter; or

(c) unlawfully obstruct the flow of, or flush, draw off or divert or take sewage from any works belonging to <sup>16</sup>[the Authority]; or

(d) obstruct any officer or servant of, <sup>1</sup>[the Authority] in discharge of his duties under this Chapter or refuse or wilfully neglect to furnish him with the means necessary for the making of any entry, inspection, examination or inquiry thereunder in relation to any sewage works.

53. Power of entry, survey etc.— (1) Any officer or servant of <sup>2</sup>[the Authority] authorised by it in that behalf, may, or without assistants or workmen, enter into or upon any premises in order—

- (a) to make any inspection, survey, measurement, valuation or inquiry;
- (b) to take levels;
- (c) to dig or bore into the sub-soil;
- (d) to set out the boundaries and the intended lines of work;
- (e) to mark such levels, boundaries and lines by placing marks and cutting trenches;
- (f) to do any other thing necessary for the purposes of this Act or any rules or regulations or bye-laws:

Provided that, in exercising the powers under this sub-section due regard shall be paid by the officer or servant of <sup>3</sup>[the Authority] concerned to the social and religious customs of the occupants of the premises.

(2) When any person is entitled to enter into or upon any premises in exercise of the powers under sub-section (1), he may also enter in similar manner into or upon any adjoining premises for any work authorised by or under this Act or for the purpose of depositing therein, any soil, grind stone or other materials or for obtaining access to such work or for any other purpose connected with the execution of the same.

(3) It shall be lawful for any authorised officer or servant to make any entry into any place to open or cause to be opened any door, gate or other barrier—

- (a) if he considers the opening thereof necessary for the purpose of such entry; and
- (b) if the owner or occupier is absent or being present refuses to open such door, gate or barrier.

54. Power to disinfect tanks, pools and wells.— Any officer or servant authorised by <sup>4</sup>[the Authority] in that behalf may have any tank, pool or well, cleaned or disinfected after notice to the owner or occupier, if any, when it appears that such cleaning or disinfection will prevent or check the spread of any dangerous disease. The cost of cleaning or disinfection shall be recoverable by <sup>5</sup>[the Authority] from the owner or occupier of such tank, pool or well.

CHAPTER VIII

PENALTIES AND PROCEDURE

55. General penalty.— Whoever contravenes the provisions of this Act or of any rule or bye-law or fails to comply with any notice, order or requisition issued under this Act or any rule or bye-law, shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, and with further fine which may extend to fifty rupees for every day on which such contravention or failure continues after the first conviction.

56. Cognizance of offence.— No Court shall take cognizance of any offence under this Act, except on the complaint of <sup>6</sup>[the Authority] made within six months next after the commission of the offence.

57. Offences by companies.— (1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person who at the time the offence was committed was responsible to the company for the conduct of its business as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that, nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where any offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of any Director, Manager, Secretary or other officer of the company, such Director, Manager, Secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this section,—

(a) ‘company’ means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals, and

(b) ‘Director’, in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

58. Power to arrest person committing an offence and refusing to give name and address.— It shall be lawful for any officer of <sup>1</sup>[the Authority] authorised by it in this behalf to arrest and hand over to the officer in charge of the nearest police station any person who commits or is suspected to have committed offence punishable under section 55 and who on demand refuses to give his true name and address or where there is reason to believe that the name or address given by him is not correct. Such police officer shall adopt such legal measures as may be necessary to cause that person to be taken before a Magistrate with the least possible delay.

59. Compounding of offences.— (1) The Member-Secretary or any other officer of <sup>2</sup>[the Authority] authorised by it by general or special order in that behalf may, either before or after this institution of proceedings for any offence punishable under this Act, accept from any person charged with such offence by way of composition of the offence a sum not exceeding two thousand rupees, as he thinks proper.

(2) On payment of such sum, no further proceedings shall be taken against the said person in respect of the same offence.

CHAPTER IX

EXTERNAL CONTROL

60. Directions to <sup>3</sup>[the Authority] on questions of policy.— (1) In the performance of its duties and discharge of its functions, <sup>4</sup>[the Authority] shall be guided by such directions on questions of policy as may be given to it, from time to time, by the State Government.

(2) If any question arises whether any matter is or is not a matter as respects which the State Government may issue a direction under sub-section (1), the decision of the State Government shall be final.

61. Annual report, statistics, returns and other information by <sup>5</sup>[the Authority].— (1) <sup>6</sup>[The Authority] shall, as soon as may be after the end of each financial year, prepare and submit to the State Government before such date and in such form as the State Government may direct, a report giving an account of its activities during the previous financial year, and the report shall also give an account of the activities, if any, which are likely to be undertaken by <sup>1</sup>[the Authority] in the next financial year. The State Government shall cause every such report to be laid before each House of the State Legislature as soon as may be after it is received by the State Government.

(2) <sup>2</sup>[The Authority] shall also furnish to the State Government at such times and in such form and manner as the State Government may direct such statistics and returns and such particulars in regard to any proposed or existing activities of <sup>3</sup>[the Authority] or any other matter under the control of <sup>4</sup>[the Authority] as the State Government may, from time to time, require.

CHAPTER X

MISCELLANEOUS

62. Duty of local bodies to assist.— (1) All local bodies shall render such help and assistance and furnish such information to <sup>5</sup>[the Authority] and shall make available for the inspection and examination of (and if necessary, preparation of copies from) such records, maps, plans and other documents as <sup>6</sup>[the Authority] may require to perform and discharge its duties and functions under this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), every local body shall on demand make available to <sup>7</sup>[the Authority] on payment of reasonable fees certified copies or extracts from assessment lists and other relevant documents in connection with assessment of annual value of premises and levy of taxes, fees and charges.

(3) Without prejudice to other provisions of this Act and notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force under which any local body is constituted, the State Government may give to any local body such directions as in its opinion may be necessary or expedient for enabling <sup>8</sup>[the Authority] to perform its duties and discharge its functions under this Act, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the local body to comply with such directions.

63. General power to pay compensation.— In any case not otherwise expressly provided for in this Act, <sup>9</sup>[the Authority] may pay reasonable amount as compensation to any person who sustains damage by reason of the exercise of any power vested by or under this Act in <sup>10</sup>[the Authority].

64. Protection for acts done in good faith.— No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against the State Government, <sup>11</sup>[the Authority] or the Members or any officer or servant of the State Government or of <sup>12</sup>[the Authority] for anything which is in good faith done or purported or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or any rules, regulations or bye-laws.

CHAPTER XI

RULES, REGULATIONS AND BYE-LAWS

65. Rules.— (1) The power to make rules under this Act shall be exercisable by the State Government by notification in the Official Gazette.

(2) Without prejudice to any power to make rules contained elsewhere in this Act, the State Government may make rules consistent with this Act to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(3) All rules made under this Act shall be subject to the condition of previous publication.
