STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The State Government has been empowered by the Constitution Ninety-third Amendment to make special provisions regarding admission to the educational institutions including private educational institutions whether aided or unaided by the State other than the minority educational institutions referred to in clause (1) of Article 30 of the Constitution of India in favour of the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other Backward classes of citizen. Besides, the Ministry of Human Resources, Government of India had suggested that the legislation should also be made for the regulation of admission and fixation of fee in such educational institutions. In the light of the suggestions given by the Ministry of Human Resources Government of India it has been decided to make law to provide for the regulation of admission and fixation of fee in private educational institutions and the matter connected therewith and incidental thereto.

Since the State Legislature was not in session and immediate legislative action was necessary to implement the aforesaid decision the Uttar Pradesh Private Professional Educational Institutions (Regulation of Admission and Fixation of Fee) Ordinance, 2006 (U.P. Ordinance no. 1 of 2006) was promulgated by the Governor on July 10, 2006.

This Bill is introduced to replace the aforesaid Ordinance.
