Procedure for application6.

- (2) The duration of the Scheme shall be for a period of six months from the date of publication of the Act in the Official Gazette.
- (1) An eligible applicant who opts for the Scheme would have to file an application in the Form to prescribed by rules made thereunder. The application shall be signed in the case of an individual, by the individual himself or a person duly authorized by the individual or a person competent to act on his behalf. In case of person other than an individual, the declaration shall be signed by a person duly authorized or a person competent to act on behalf of entities other than an individual.
- (2) The application shall be made to the Assessing Officer in such form and in such manner, as may be specified in the order by the Commissioner.
- (3) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, where an applicant desires to settle the arrears of outstanding dues as per return furnished for the particular tax period under the relevant State Taxation Acts, he shall submit a separate application for each of such return or revised return under each relevant State Taxation Act.
- (4) Where any Appellate Authority including Tribunal, or the Court has remanded the case back to any authority under the relevant State Taxation Acts, for giving effect to the directions given therein and such order has not been passed on or before the date of commencement of this Act, then such cases shall not be eligible for settlement under this Act:

Provided that, the applicant may be eligible to settle the amount of tax, interest, surcharge and penalty as per the directions given by the said authority or the Court and in case, no such specific directions are given then such tax, interest, surcharge and penalty shall be determined by the applicant.

Withdrawal of appeal7.

- (1) (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in any provisions of the relevant State Taxation Act, the appeal pending before the Appellate Authority or the Tribunal or the Court, shall be withdrawn unconditionally by the applicant on the date on which such appeal withdrawal application is submitted to the aforesaid authorities or the Court.
- (b) The submission of acknowledgement of such application to the Commissioner, along with the application for settlement shall be treated as sufficient proof towards withdrawal of the said appeal.
- (2) In case, the applicant desires to withdraw the appeal, in respect of certain issues and desires to continue the same for certain other issues, then the applicant, shall specifically state details thereof in withdrawal application filed before the said authorities or the Court, and the provisions of sub-section (1) of this Section shall apply with necessary changes so far as they relate to the withdrawal and submission of proof to the Commissioner.
- (3) The provisions of Section 3 shall be applicable in the cases where the applicant withdraws appeal as mentioned in sub-section (2) of this Section.

assessing officer*8.

(1) The Commissioner shall cause each application to be verified by the respective Assessing Officer for correctness of the declaration and payment, to be recorded in the registered dealer's file for respective State Taxation Acts.

(2) The Assessing Officer shall verify and confirm that the application is accompanied with documents mentioned in the application form. The Assessing Officer shall verify the correctness of the particulars furnished in the application and documents submitted with the application with reference to the records available with the assessing authority or, as the case may be, any other authority with whom such records are available.

(3) On verification of the application, in case it is noticed that, the said application is incorrect or incomplete or the amount declared to have been paid is deficient, the Assessing Officer shall issue defect notice, within thirty working days from the date of receipt of the application and inform the applicant about the defects in the application along with the details of the amount to be paid: provided that, the defect notice in respect of an application shall be issued only once.

(4) The applicant shall, within fifteen days of the issue of the defect notice, correct the defects and make the payment of amount short paid, if any, and submit proof of such payment to the Assessing Officer.

(5) In case the applicant fails to correct the defects so communicated including the additional payment, if any, the Assessing Officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing and after giving the applicant the opportunity of being heard, pass an order within thirty working days of the date fixed under sub-section (4) of this Section.

(6) Where the application is received from a Tax non-payer or Short payer, the Assessing Officer in addition to the verification as laid down at sub-section (1), (2) and (3) of this Section, shall pass the order of assessment under the relevant State Taxation Acts and issue the notice of demand to the applicant under the provisions of the relevant State Taxation Acts within thirty working days from the date of receipt of the application.

(7) Where, the application is found by the Assessing Officer to be complete in all respects including application where deficiencies have been cured or notice of demand has been raised under sub-section (6) of this Section in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme and the rules made there under, he shall within fifteen working days, forward the application along with the case records to the Commissioner.

(8) Where the application for settlement of arrears of tax, interest, surcharge and penalty is not in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme, the Assessing Officer may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing, within thirty working days from the date of receipt of the application, reject the application, after giving the opportunity of being heard to the applicant.

- (9) Where the application has been rejected under sub-section (5) and (8) of this Section, the applicant may within fifteen working days of the date of issue of the order, file an appeal to the Commissioner in the format as may be prescribed by rules made thereunder.
- (10) The speaking order on the appeal is to be passed by the Commissioner within thirty working days from the date of receipt of the appeal.
- Grant of remission and amnesty 9.
- (1) If the Commissioner is satisfied that the application is complete and accurate in all respects in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme and the rules made there under, he shall issue the notice of demand directing the applicant to make payment to the Government Treasury, by Treasury challan, by the specified date being not less than thirty days and more than forty five days from the date of issuance of the notice, the sum of not less than seventy per centum of the total dues of tax, interest, surcharge and penalty.
- (2) On full payment of the sum specified at sub-section (1) of this Section, the Commissioner shall pass a speaking order and issue a Tax Clearance Certificate within thirty working days, in a manner and format as may be prescribed by rules made thereunder and provide the copy of the said order to the applicant and thereupon, notwithstanding anything contained in the relevant State Taxation Acts, such applicant shall be discharged of his liability to the extent of the amount of waiver specified in the order of the settlement.
- (3) The Commissioner may, on his own motion or on application, within six months from the date of issue of the order of settlement, rectify any error apparent from the record and pass a speaking order accordingly:
- Provided that, no order adversely affecting the applicant shall be passed without giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard.
- Revocation of grant 10.
- (1) If the Commissioner is satisfied that a tax defaulter has obtained the grant of remission and amnesty by misrepresentation of facts or furnishing of false information, the Commissioner may revoke the grant after giving the tax defaulter an opportunity of being heard:
- Provided that no order under the provision of sub-section (1) of this Section shall be passed after the expiry of two years from the date of issuance of the Tax Clearance Certificate under this Scheme.
- (2) If an order of settlement is revoked under sub-section (1) of this Section, the assessment, revision, review or appeal, as the case may be, under the relevant State Taxation Acts, covered by such order of settlement, shall stand revived or reinstated immediately upon such revocation, and such assessment, revision, review or appeal, as the case may be, shall be decided in accordance with the provisions of the relevant State Taxation Acts, as if no order of settlement of the arrears of tax, interest, surcharge, penalty has ever been made, and notwithstanding the period of limitation provided under the relevant State Taxation Acts, such assessment, revision, review or appeal, as the case may be, shall be made by the respective authorities, within two years from the date of passing the order of such revocation:

		Provided that, an appeal shall be re-instated on application made in this behalf to the Appellate Authority within sixty days from the date of issue of the order of revocation.
Bar on re-opening of settled cases	11.	An order of settlement issued under the provisions of this Act shall be conclusive as to the settlement of arrears covered under that order, and the matter covered by such order of settlement shall not be re-opened in any proceeding or review or revision or any other proceeding under the relevant State Taxation Acts.
Resolution of dues	12.	Final orders issued by the Commissioner in a manner and format as may be prescribed by rules made thereunder shall supersede the notice(s) of Demand issued under respective State Taxation Acts by the Assessing Officer, and no further proceedings for recovery shall continue.
No refund under this scheme	13.	Under no circumstances, the applicant shall be entitled to get the refund of the amount paid under this Act: Provided that, in case of revocation of an order of the settlement in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the amount paid by the applicant under this Act shall be treated to have been paid under the relevant State Taxation Acts.
Powers of authorities	14.	(1) No Appellate Authority including Tribunal, shall proceed to decide any appeal under the relevant State Taxation Acts, in respect of and to the extent of one or more issues or all the issues for which an application is made by the applicant under the provisions of this Act. (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the relevant State Taxation Acts, the Assessing Authority, the Appellate Authority including the Tribunal, Revision Authority, Reviewing Authority, shall proceed to decide such assessment, appeal, revision or review in accordance with the relevant State Taxation Acts, - (a) to the extent of the issues for which no application for settlement is made by the applicant; or (b) in case an order of settlement referred in Section 9 is made, rejecting the application for settlement.
Power to make rules	15.	(1) The State Government may, by notification, with prospective or retrospective effect not earlier than the date of coming into effect of this Act, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act. (2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the matters which under any provision of this Act are required to be prescribed for by the rules.
Power of the Commissioner	16.	(1) The Commissioner may, from time to time, issue instructions and directions as he may deem fit to the designated authorities, for carrying out the purposes of this Act. (2) The Commissioner may, by an order specify the forms for the purpose of this Act and the manner in which the form shall be submitted.
