Act to over ride other laws.

- 4. (1) On the commencement of this Act, it shall be lawful for a Revenue Officer to provide for facilities for agricultural credit by the issue of pass books, in such form as may be prescribed, to land-holders having, for the time being, land within the local limits of his jurisdiction.
- (2) A land-holder, who desires to have a pass book, may make an application to the concerned Revenue Officer, in such form and on payment of such fee, as may be prescribed, for the issue of such pass book to him.
- (3) Every application referred to in sub-section (2) shall contain full particulars of the parcels of land owned by the applicant or in relation to which the applicant holds an interest or in relation to the crops, if any, standing on such parcels of land or in relation to which the applicant holds any interest.

- (4) On receipt of the application made under sub-section (2), the Revenue Officer shall make, or cause to be made, in such manner as may be prescribed, an inquiry about the creditworthiness of the applicant, and in doing so, in particular, he shall make an inquiry about the title of the applicant in relation to the parcels of land specified in the application or any interest held by the applicant therein or in respect of any crops standing thereon; and where, after such inquiry, the Revenue Officer is satisfied with regard to the title of the applicant relating to all or any of the properties aforesaid or any part thereof, he may issue a pass book to the applicant indicating therein the extent of creditworthiness of the applicant and the properties in relation to which the applicant has title and the extent of incumbrances, if any, existing in relation to any of such properties on the date of issue of the pass book.
- (5) The Revenue Officer shall retain a copy of the pass book issued by him under sub-section(4) and send a true-copy thereof to the Registrar/Sub-Registrar within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the properties specified in the pass book are situate, and on receipt thereof, the Registrar or Sub-Registrar shall place the copy of the pass book on his records.
- (6) If the Revenue Officer is satisfied that any pass book issued by him has been lost or destroyed, he may issue a duplicate pass book, on payment of such fee, as may be prescribed.
- (7) Every entry made by the Revenue Officer in a pass book issued by him shall be presumed to be correct.
- (8) The entries in the pass book shall be prima-facie evidence of the title of the holder thereof in respect of the land or other interest in the land or crops specified therein and shall be accepted as such by a bank for the purpose of granting financial assistance to the holder of the pass book whether or not on the security of the properties specified in the pass book.

Endorsements on pass Book.

5. (1) A bank granting any financial assistance to the holder of a pass book, shall make an endorsement on the pass book indicating the amount of such financial assistance and where such financial assistance has been given on the security of any property, the bank shall also make an endorsement against the property on the security of which the financial assistance has been granted by it; and the endorsement so made shall have the effect of creating a charge in favour of the bank on the property against which the endorsement has been so made and the holder of the pass book shall be debarred from alienating the said property until the outstanding amount of the financial assistance granted by the bank has been repaid together with interest due thereon.

- (2) A copy of every endorsement made by a bank in pursuance of the provisions of sub-section (1), shall be forwarded to the revenue officer and another copy of such endorsement shall be forwarded to the Registrar or to the Sub-Registrar within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the whole or any part of the property which has been so charged is situate, and on receipt of the copy of such endorsement,—
- (i) the revenue officer shall make the necessary entries in the record-of-rights maintained by him under the Tripura Land Revenue and Land Reforms Act, 1960 and the rules made thereunder; and
 - (ii) the Registrar or the Sub-Registrar shall place, or cause to be placed, such endorsement on the copy of the pass book forwarded to him under section 4.
 - (3) The holder of the pass book may also produce the endorsement made by the bank on the pass book before the Registrar or the Sub-Registrar to enable him to satisfy himself as to whether a copy of the said endorsement has or has not been placed on his records, and in case it has not been so done, to get the said endorsements copied on the pass book which had been forwarded to him under section 4.

6. (1) No transfer made by the holder of a pass book in respect of any parcel of land specified in such pass book or any interest in such land or any crop standing thereon shall be registered by the Registrar or Sub-Registrar unless the pass book is produced before him; and on the production of the pass book, he shall make an endorsement thereon indicating the particulars of the transfer registered by him.

(2) Any transfer made by the holder of a pass book without complying with the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be void.

Removal of disability in creation of charges. 7. Where any charge on any land or interest therein or crops standing thereon was created in favour of a co-operative society before the commencement of this Act, it shall be lawful for a land-holder to create, after such commencement, a subsequent charge on such land or interest therein or crops standing thereon in favour of a bank as security for any financial assistance given to the agriculturist by that bank.

Priority of charges.

8. No charge or mortage created on any land or interest or crops standing thereon, after the commencement of this Act, in favour of Government or a co-operative society shall have priority over a charge or mortage on such land or interest created by a land-holder in favour of a bank as security for financial assistance given to the land-holder by the bank after the commencement of this Act, and prior to the charge or mortage in favour of Government or the co-operative society.

CHAPTER-III

Miscellaneous.

Protection of action taken in goodfaith.

9. No suit or other legal proceedings shall lie against the Government or any officer or authority for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or any rule made thereunder.

Power to make rules.

- 10. (1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the provisions of this Act.
- (2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—
 - (a) the form in which pass books may be issued under sub-section (1) of section 4;
 - (b) the form to be used for an application and the fee therefor under sub-section (2) of section 4;
 - (c) the manner in which the revenue officer may make, or cause an inquiry to be made, under sub-section (4) of section 4;

- (d) the fees required to be paid for a duplicate pass book under sub-section (6) of section 4; and
- (e) any other matter which has to be, or may be, prescribed under this Act.
- (3) Every rule made by the State Government under this Act, shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before the Legislative Assembly while it is in session for a total period of not less than fourteen days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid, or the successive session aforesaid, the Legislative Assembly agree in making any modification in the rule or the Legislative Assembly agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.
