¹[STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Average lawyer faces hazards and hardships, the rigours of which can be reduced and softened with purposeful social security and social insurance. The legal profession is no doubt affluent at the top and the upper middle levels, but there are many in the profession whose earnings are meagre and whose savings are negligible.

To ensure social security to the members of the legal profession in the State of Rajasthan. It has been considered expedient to constitute by law an Advocate Welfare Fund to be managed by a statutory trustee committee so that in the event of removal of the name of an advocate from the State Roll maintained by the Bar Council on account of his retirement or death, he or his nominee or his dependents, as the case may be, may get from the said fund a lump sum amount calculated on the basis of years of his standing. This measure would provide social security to the members of legal profession.]
