[Section 4-5]

(2) The salary shall subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), be paid without deductions of any kind except those authorized by a general or special order of the State Government in that behalf or by any other law for the time being in force.

(3) Where the salary of a teacher or employee of a college is not paid in accordance with sub-section (1) due to any default on the part of the management, the Deputy Director may, without prejudice to any other provisions of this Act, pay or cause to be paid within ten days from the date mentioned in that sub-section, such salary from the moneys credited to the account mentioned in sub-section (1) of section 5 at the rate of salary last drawn by such teacher or employee, as the case may be, and in case of fresh appointment at the rate of the minimum of the pay scale in which he has been appointed, and any adjustment in respect of such payment shall, thereafter, be made as soon as possible.

inspect and to issue
directions

4- The Deputy Director may, at any time, for the purposes of this Act inspect or cause to be inspected any college or call for such information and records (including registers, books of account and vouchers) from its management with regard to the payment of salaries to its teachers or employees or given to its management any direction for the observance of such canons of financial propriety (including any direction for retrenchment of any teacher or employee or for prohibition of any wasteful expenditure) as he thinks fit.

(2) Every direction for retrenchment under sub-section (1) shall be issued after obtaining the prior approval of the Director of Education and shall specify a future date on which such retrenchment shall become operative.

(3) Where any direction for retrenchment is issued in accordance with sub-sections (1) and (2), the teacher or the employee concerned shall, with effect from the date specified in such direction, cease to be a teacher or employee of the college for the purposes of the maintenance grant.

Procedure for

5- (1) The management of every college shall, for the purpose of disbursement of salaries to its teachers and employees, open in a Scheduled Bank or a co-operative bank a separate account (hereinafter called Salary Payment Account) to be operated jointly by a representative of the management and by the Deputy Director or such other officer as may be authorized by the Deputy Director in that behalf :

Provided that after the Salary Payment Account is opened, the Deputy Director may, if he is, subject to any rules made under section 12, satisfied that it is expedient in the public interest so to do, instruct the bank that the account shall be operated by the representative of the management alone, and may at any time revoke such instruction: -

Provided further that in the case referred to in sub-section (3) or where in any other case after giving to the management an opportunity of showing cause, the Deputy Director is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, the Deputy Director may instruct the bank that the Salary Payment Account shall be operated only by himself or by such other officer as may be authorized by him in that behalf, and may at any time revoke such instruction.

[The U. P. Training Colleges (Payment of Salaries of Teachers and Other Employees) Act, 1978]

[Section 6]

(2) The State Government may, from -time to time, require by general or special order that the management of a college shall deposit in the Salary Payment Account, such portion of the amount received from students as fees and also such portion of the income, if any, received from any property, movable or immovable belonging to or endowed wholly or partly for the benefit of the college, and by such date, as may be specified in that order and thereupon, the management shall be bound to comply with such directions.

(3) Where the Deputy Director is of opinion that the management has failed to deposit the fees in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) or the orders issued thereunder, the Deputy Director may, by order, prohibit the management from realizing any fee from the students and thereupon; the Deputy Director may realize the fees (either through the teachers of the college or in such other manner as he thinks fit) directly from the students and shall deposit the fees so recovered in the Salary Payment Account.

(4) The State Government shall also pay into the Salary Payment Account such amount as maintenance grant, which, after taking into consideration the amounts deposited under sub-sections (2) and (3), is necessary for making payment in accordance with sub-section (5).

(5) No money credited to the Salary Payment Account shall be applied for any purpose except the following, namely,--

(a) for payment of salary to the teachers and employees, of the college falling due for any period after the commencement of this Act ;

(b) for crediting the management's contribution, if any, to the provident fund accounts of teachers and employees of the college.

(6) The salary of a teacher or employee shall be paid by transfer of the amount from the Salary Payment Account to his account, if any, in the same bank or if he has no account in that bank, then by cheque.

(7) In respect of a place where there is no Scheduled Bank or a co-operative bank the provisions of this section shall apply with such modification, as the State Government may, by notification, specify, and references in this section to a bank shall in that case be construed as references to a post office saving bank.

Liability in respect of

6- (1) The State Government shall be liable for payment of salaries of teachers and employees of every college due in respect of any period after the commencement of this Act.

(2) The State Government may recover any amount in respect of which any liability is incurred by it under sub-section (1) by attachment of the income from the property belonging to or vested in the college as If that amount were an arrear of land revenue due from such college.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to derogate from the liability of the college for any such dues to the teacher or employee.
