4. Subs. by section 11 UP Act no 17 of 1999.

[The Uttar Pradesh Urban Buildings (Regulation of Letting, Rent and Eviction) Act, 1972] [Section 8-9]

Disputes regarding amount of standard rent, etc.

8- (1) Where a dispute arises with regard to the amount of the standard rent or to the amount of enhancement in rent permissible under section 5 or section 6 or to the date with effect from which such enhancement shall take effect, or to the amount of taxes payable by the tenant under section 7, or to the amount of proportionate rent payable by the tenant after a part of the building or any land appurtenant thereto is released under section 16 or section 21, or to the amount of rent payable by the original tenant for the new building allotted to him under sub-section (2) of section 24, the District Magistrate shall, on an application being made in that behalf by order [determine such dispute]¹.

(2) Where the assessment of a building occupied by a tenant is lower than the agreed rent payable therefor, the District Magistrate, on an application of the tenant or of his own motion may, after giving to the landlord an opportunity of being heard, direct the local authority concerned to enhance the assessment in accordance with the agreed rent with effect from the date from which the agreed rent has such payable or the date of commencement of this Act, whichever is later, and thereupon, notwithstanding anything contained in the law relating to that local authority, the assessment shall be corrected accordingly.

(3) Every order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall, subject to the result of any appeal preferred under section 10, be final.

Determination
of standard rent

9- (1) In the case of a building to which the old Act was applicable and which is let out at the time of the commencement of this Act in respect of which there is neither any reasonable annual rent nor any agreed rent or in any other case where there is neither any agreed rent nor any assessment in force, the District Magistrate shall, on an application being made in that behalf, determine the standard rent.

(2) In determining the standard rent, the District Magistrate may consider-

(a) the respective market value of the building and of its site immediately before the date of commencement of this Act or the date of letting, whichever is later (hereinafter in this section referred to as the said date) ;

(b) the cost of construction, maintenance and repairs of the building;

(c) the prevailing rents for similar buildings in the locality immediately before the said date;

(d) the amenities provided in the building;

(e) the latest assessment, if any, of the building;

(f) any other relevant fact which appears in the circumstance of the case to be material.

[(2-A) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), the District Magistrate shall ordinarily consider ten per centum per annum on the market values of the building (including its site) on the said date to be the annual standard rent thereof and the monthly standard rent, shall be equal to one-twelfth of the annual standard rent so calculated.]²

(3) Every order made under sub-section (1) shall, subject to the result of any appeal preferred under section 10, be final.

1- Subs, by section 6 of President. Act No. 19 of 1973 which was re-enacted with modification by U. P. Act No. 30 of 1974.

2- Added by section 5 of U.P. Act No. 28, 1976.

rent of commercial buildings let out by public religious

9-A

(1) Where any building belonging to a public charitable or public religious institution has been let out to a tenant for the purposes of a shop or commercial establishment, then notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter or in any contract or lease, the landlord of such building may apply to the District Magistrate for revision of the monthly rent payable therefor and such rent shall be revised to a sum equivalent to one-twelfth of ten per centum of the market value of the building under tenancy:

Provided that the rent revised under this sub-section shall not exceed double the rent payable on the date of the application by the landlord under this sub-section.

(2) The rent revised under sub-section (1) shall be payable by the tenant from the commencement of the month of tenancy next following the date of the application.

(3) Where the rent of any building has been revised in accordance with sub-section (1), then the landlord shall not be entitled to move a fresh application under the said sub-section within a period of five years from the date of the final order.

Explanation— In this section, the expressions ‘shop’ and ‘commercial establishment’ shall have the meaning assigned to them in the Uttar Pradesh Dookan Aur Vanijya Adhishtan Adhiniyam, 1962, as amended from time to time.]¹

Appeal against order under sections [8, 9
and 9-A]²

(1) Any person aggrieved by an order of the District Magistrate under section 8 or section 9 [or section 9-A]³ may, within thirty days from the date of the order, prefer an appeal against it to the District Judge and the District Judge may either dispose it of himself or assign it for disposal to any Additional District Judge under his administrative control, and may recall it from any such officer, or transfer it to any other such officer.

(2) The appellate authority may confirm, vary or rescind the order, or remand the case to the District Magistrate for rehearing, and may also take any additional evidence, and pending its decision, stay the operation of the order under appeal on such terms, if any, as it thinks fit.

(3) No further appeal or revision shall lie against any order passed by the appellate authority under this section, and its order shall be final.

Chapter III Regulation of Letting

Prohibition of letting without allotment order

11-

Save as hereinafter provided, no person shall let any buildings except in pursuance of an allotment order issued under section 16.

vacancy of building in certain cases

12-

(1) A land lord or tenant of a building shall be deemed to have ceased to occupy the building or' part thereof if-

(a) he has substantially removed his effects therefrom, or

1. Added by section 6 of U.P. Act No. 28, 1976.
2. Subs. by section 5(a) of U. P. Act No. 17 of 1985.
3. Subs. by section 5 (b) ibid.

[The Uttar Pradesh Urban Buildings (Regulation of Letting, Rent and Eviction) Act, 1972] [Section 12]

(b) he has allowed it to be occupied by any person who is not a member of his family, or

(c) in the case of a residential building, he as well as members of his family have taken up residence, not being temporary residence, elsewhere.

(2) In the case of a non-residential building, where a tenant carrying on business in the building admits a person who is not a member of his family as a partner or a new partner, as the case may be, the tenant shall be deemed to have ceased to occupy the building.

(3) In the case of a residential building if the tenant or any member of his family builds or otherwise acquires in a vacant state or gets vacated a residential building in the same city, municipality, notified area or town area in which the building under tenancy is situated, he shall be deemed to have ceased to occupy the building under his tenancy:

Provided that if the tenant or any member of his family had built any such residential building before the date of commencement of this Act, then such tenant shall be deemed to have ceased to occupy the building under his tenancy upon the expiration of a period of one year from the said date.

[Explanation— For the purposes of this sub-section :--

(a) a person shall be deemed to have otherwise acquired a building, if he is occupying a public building for residential purposes as a tenant, allottee or licensee;

(b) the expression 'any member of family' in relation to a tenant, shall not include a person who has neither been normally residing with nor is wholly dependent on such tenant.]¹

[(3-A) If the tenant of a residential building holding a transferable post under any Government or local authority or a public sector corporation or under any other employer has been transferred to some other city, municipality, notified area or town area, then such tenant shall be deemed to have ceased to occupy such building with effect from the thirtieth day of June following the date of such transfer or from the date of allotment to him of any residential accommodation (whether any accommodation be allotted under this Act or any official accommodation is provided by the employer) in the city, municipality, notified area or town area to which he has been so transferred, whichever is later.

(3-B) If the tenant of a residential building is engaged in any profession, trade, calling or employment in any city, municipality notified area or town area in which the said building is situated and such engagement ceases for any reason whatsoever and he is landlord of any other building in any other city, municipality, notified area or town area, then such tenant shall be deemed to have ceased to occupy the first mentioned building with effect from the date on which he obtains vacant possession of the last mentioned building whether as a result of proceedings under section 21 or otherwise.]²

1. Added by section 7(i) of U. P. Act No. 28 of 1976.

2. Added by section 7 (ii) ibid.

(4) Any building or part which a landlord or tenant has ceased to occupy within the meaning of sub-section (1), or sub-section (2), or [sub-section (3) sub-section (3-A) or sub-section (3-B)]¹ shall, for the purposes of this chapter, be deemed to be vacant.

[(5) A tenant or, as the case may be, a member of his family, referred to in sub-section (3) shall have a right, as landlord of any residential building referred to in the said sub-section which may have been let out by him before the commencement of the Uttar Pradesh Urban Buildings (Regulation of Letting, Rent and Eviction) (Amendment) Act, 1976 to apply under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 21 for the eviction of his tenant from such building, notwithstanding that such building is one to which the remaining provisions of this Act do not apply.]²

Restrictions on occupation of building without allotment or release	13-	Where a landlord or tenant ceases to occupy a building or part thereof, no person shall occupy it in any capacity on his behalf, or otherwise than under an order of allotment or release under section 16, and if a person so purports to occupy it, he shall, without prejudice to the provisions of section 31, be deemed to be an unauthorized occupant of such building or part.
[Regularization of occupation of existing tenants	14-	Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, any licensee (within the meaning of section 2-A) or a tenant in occupation of a building with the consent of the immediately before the commencement of the Uttar Pradesh Urban Buildings (Regulation of Letting, Rent and Eviction) (Amendment) Act, 1976, not being a person against whom any suit or proceeding for eviction is pending before any court or authority on the date of such commencement shall be deemed to be an authorized licensee or tenant of such building.] ³
Obligation to intimate vacancy to District magistrate	15-	(1) Every landlord, shall on a building falling vacant by his ceasing to occupy it or by the tenant vacating it or by release from requisition or in any other manner whatsoever, give notice of the vacancy in writing to the District Magistrate not later than seven days after the occurrence of such vacancy, and such notice may at the option of the landlord be given before the occurrence of the vacancy.. (2) Every tenant so vacating a building shall give notice thereof in writing to the District Magistrate and also to the landlord not less than fifteen days before the vacancy. (3) The notice under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed. (4) The District Magistrate, on being satisfied on an application made to him in that behalf that there was sufficient cause for the landlord or the tenant not to give notice under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) within time, may condone such delay.
Allotment and release of vacant building	16-	(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the District magistrate may by order-

1. Substituted by section 7(iii) of U. P. Act No. 28 of 1976.

2. Added by section 7 (iv) ibid.

3. Subs. by section 8 ibid.

[The Uttar Pradesh Urban Buildings (Regulation of Letting, Rent and Eviction) Act, 1972] [Section 16]

(a) require the landlord to let any building which is or has fallen vacant or is about to fall vacant, or a part of such building but not appurtenant land alone, to any person specified in the order (to be called an allotment order); or

(b) release the whole or any part of such building, or any land appurtenant thereto, in favour of the landlord (to be called a release order) :

[Provided that in the case of a vacancy referred to in sub-section (4) of section 12, the District Magistrate shall give an opportunity to the landlord or the tenant, as the case may be of showing that the said section is not attracted to his case before making an order under clause (a).]¹

(2) No release order under clause (b) of sub-section (1) shall be made unless the District Magistrate is satisfied that the building or any part thereof or any land appurtenant thereto is bona fide required, either in its existing form or after demolition and new construction, by the land lord for occupation by himself or any member of his family, or any person for whose benefit it is held by him, either for residential purposes or for purposes of any profession, trade, calling or where the landlord is the trustee of a public charitable trust, for the objects of the trust, or that the building or any part thereof is in a dilapidated condition and is required for purposes of demolition and new construction, or that any land appurtenant to it is required by him for constructing one or more new buildings or for dividing it into several plots with a view to the sale thereof for purposes of construction of new buildings :

Provided that no application under this sub-section shall be entertained for the purposes of a charitable trust the objects of which provide for discrimination in respect of its beneficiaries on the ground of religion caste or place of birth.

(3) The allotment order shall specify--

(a) whether the building shall be used by the tenant for residential or non-residential purposes ;

(b) in the case of business purposes, the names of proprietors or partners of the business;

(c) the date, which shall not be earlier than seven days after the date of the order, by which the landlord shall deliver possession to the allottee ;

(d) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(4) Where the allottee or the landlord has not been able to obtain possession of the building, allotted to him or, as the case may be, released in his favour, or any part thereof, []² the District Magistrate, on an application of the allottee or the landlord, as the case may be, may by order evict or cause to be evicted any person named in the order as well as every other person claiming under him or found in occupation, and may for that purpose use or cause to be used such force as may be necessary and put or cause to be put the allottee or the land-lord in possession of the building or part.

1. Added by section 9 (i) of U. P. Act No. 28 of 1976.

2. Omitted by section 9 (ii) ibid.

[The Uttar Pradesh Urban Buildings (Regulation of Letting, Rent and Eviction) Act, 1972] [Section 16]

(5) (a) Where the landlord or any other person claiming to be a lawful occupant of the building or any part thereof comprised in the allotment or release order satisfies the District Magistrate that such order was not made in accordance with clause (a) or clause (b), as the case may be, of sub-section (1), the District Magistrate may review the order:

Provided that no application under this clause shall be entertained later than seven days after the eviction of such person.

(b) Where the District Magistrate on review under this sub-section sets aside or modifies his order of allotment or release, he shall put or cause to be put the applicant, if already evicted, back into possession of the building, and may for that purpose use or cause to be used such force as may be necessary.

(6) If the District Magistrate finds an application given under sub-section (5) to be false or frivolous, he shall by order award to the allottee or the landlord, as the case may be, against the applicant special costs which shall not exceed five hundred rupees.

(7) Every order under this section shall, [subject to any order made under section 18]¹ be final.

(8) The allottee shall, [subject to the provisions of sub-sections (5) and 9 and section 18]², be deemed to become tenant of the building from the date of allotment or, where he is unable to obtain possession by reason of a stay order or of any other person having occupied or continued to occupy the building, from the date on which he obtains possession.

[(9) The District Magistrate shall, while making an order under clause (a) of sub-section (1) also require the allottee to pay to the landlord an advance, equivalent to-

(a) where the building is situated in a hill municipality, one half of the yearly presumptive rent; and

(b) in any other case, one month's presumptive rent and on his failure to make or offer the payment within a week thereof, rescind the allotment order.

Explanation— In this sub-section the expression “presumptive rent” means an amount of rent which the District Magistrate Prima facie considers reasonable having regard to the provisions of sub-section (2) and (2-A) of section 9:

Provided that such amount shall not be less than the amount of rent which was payable by the last tenant, if any.

(10) Nothing in sub-section (9) shall be construed to require the District Magistrate to take any evidence or hold any formal inquiry before fixing the presumptive rent of the building allotted and the amount mentioned in the allotment order as presumptive rent shall be subject to any agreement in writing between the parties or to any subsequent determination of standard rent after formal inquiry under section 9:

Provided that until the presumptive rent is so revised by agreement or by an order under section 9, the tenant shall continue to be liable to pay rent according to the presumptive rent specified in the allotment order, so however, that any subsequent order under section 9 shall relate back to the date of commencement of the tenancy.³

2. Subs. by section 9 (iv) ibid.

3. Subs. by section 9 (v) ibid

Conditions of making allotment order

(1) Where the District Magistrate receives an intimation, under sub-section (1) of section 15, of the vacancy or expected vacancy of a building any allotment order in respect of that building shall be made and communicated to the landlord within twenty-one days from the date of receipt of such intimation, and where no such order is so made or communicated within the said period, the landlord may intimate to the District Magistrate the name of a person of his choice and thereupon the District Magistrate shall allot the building in favour, of the person so nominated unless for special and adequate reason to be recorded he allots it to any other person within ten days from the receipt of intimation of such nomination :

Provided that where the landlord had made an application under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 16, for the release of the whole or any part of the building or land appurtenant thereto in his favour, the said period of twenty-one days shall be computed from the date of decision on that application or where an application for review or an appeal is filed against such decision, from the date of decision on such application or appeal.

(2) Where a part of a building is in the occupation of the landlord for residential purposes or is released in his favour under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 16 for residential purposes, the allotment of the remaining part thereof under clause (a) of the said sub-section (1) shall be made in favour of a person nominated by the landlord.

[Explanation— Where a building in the occupation of the landlord for residential purposes adjoins (whether horizontally or vertically) the building sought to be allotted, and –

(a) there is a common entrance to or a common passage for both the buildings; or

(b) the two buildings share the sanitary conveniences or other amenities (not including electric connection);

then notwithstanding that the two buildings are independently fit for then notwithstanding that the two buildings are independently for residential purposes, they shall be deemed to be part of each other for the purposes of this sub-section.]¹

[Appeal against order of allotment
or release

18-

(1) No appeal shall lie from any order under section 16 or section 19, whether made before or after the commencement of this section, but any person aggrieved by a final order under any of the said sections may, within fifteen days from the date of the order, prefer a revision to the District Judge on any one or more of the following grounds, namely :--

(a) that the District Magistrate has exercised a jurisdiction not vested in him by law;

(b) that the District Magistrate has failed to exercise a jurisdiction vested in him by law;

(c) that the District Magistrate acted in the exercise of his jurisdiction illegally or with material irregularity.

(2) The revising authority may confirm or rescind the final order made under sub-section (1) or may remand the case to the District Magistrate for rehearing and pending the revision, may stay the operation of such order on such terms, if any, as it thinks fit would have occupied but for such order or such part thereof as has been varied or rescinded, and may for that purpose use or cause to be used such force as may be necessary.

1. Substituted by section 10 of U. P. Act No. 28 of 1976.

Explanation— The power to rescind the final order under this sub-section shall not include the power to pass an allotment order or to direct the passing of an allotment order in favour of a person different from the allottee mentioned in the order under revision.

(3) Where an order under section 16 or section 19 is rescinded, the District Magistrate shall on an application being made to him on that behalf, place the parties back in the position which they would have occupied but for such order or such part thereof as has been rescinded and may for that purpose use or cause to be used such force as may be necessary.]²

in the event of land lord abusing the release order

19-

Where a building or part thereof is released in favour of the landlord under section 16, or an [revision under section 18,]³ on the ground that it was required by the landlord for occupation by himself or any member of his family or any person for whose benefit it was held by him, or for the objects of the trust of which he was trustee, or on the ground that it was required for purposes of demolition and new construction, and the landlord either puts or causes to be put into occupation any person different from the person for whose occupation, according to the landlords representation, it was required, or permits any such person to occupy it, or otherwise puts it to any use other than the one for which it was released or as the case may be, omits to occupy it within one month or such extended period as the District Magistrate may for sufficient cause allow from the date of his obtaining possession or in the case of a building which was proposed to be occupied after some construction or reconstruction, from the date of completion thereof, the District Magistrate, or as the case may be, the District Judge, on an application being made in that behalf within three months from the date of such act or omission, may after giving to the landlord an opportunity of being heard, revoke the order of release in whole or in part, and on such order being made, the District magistrate may treat the building or part as vacant and allot it as such.

CHAPTER IV Regulation of Eviction

Bar of suit for eviction of tenant except on specified grounds

(1) Save as provided in sub-section (2) [* * *]¹ no suit shall be instituted for the eviction of a tenant from a building, notwithstanding the determination of his tenancy by efflux of time or on the expiration of a notice to quit or in any other manner:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall bar a suit for the eviction of a tenant on the determination of his tenancy by efflux of time where the tenancy for a fixed term was entered into by or in pursuance of a compromise or adjustment arrived at with reference to a suit, appeal, revision or execution proceeding, which is either recorded in court or otherwise reduced to writing and signed by the tenant.

(2) A suit for the eviction of a tenant from a building after the determination of his tenancy may be instituted on one or more of the following grounds, namely:-

(a) that the tenant is on arrears of rent for not less than four months, and has failed to pay the same to the landlord within one month from the date of service upon him of a notice of demand:

1. Omitted by section 8 of UP Act No 37, 1972.

2. Substituted by section 11 of U. P. Act No. 28 of 1976.

3. Subs. by section 12 ibid.

Act No. IV of

Provided that in relation to a tenant who is a member of the armed forces of the Union and in whose favour the prescribed authority under the Indian Soldiers (Litigation) Act, 1925 has issued a certificate that he is serving under special conditions within the meaning of section 3 of that Act or where he has died by enemy action while so serving, then in relation to his heirs, the words "four months" in this clause shall be deemed to have been substituted by the words "one year" ;

(b) that the tenant has wilfully caused or permitted to be caused substantial damage to the building ;

(c) that the tenant has without the permission in writing of the landlord made or permitted to be made any such construction or structural alteration in the building as is likely to diminish its value or utility or to disfigure it ;

(d) that the tenant [has without the consent in writing of the landlord used it for a purpose other than the purpose for which he was admitted to the tenancy of the building or otherwise done any act which is inconsistent with such use]² or has been convicted under any law for the time being in force of an offence of using the building or allowing it to be used for illegal or immoral purposes ;

(e) that the tenant has sub-let, in contravention of the provisions of section 25, or as the case may be, of the old Act, the whole or any part of the building;

(f) that the tenant has renounced his character as such or denied the title of the landlord, and the latter has not waived his right of re-entry or condoned the conduct of the tenant;

(g) that the tenant 'was allowed to occupy the building as part of his contract of employment under the landlord, and his employment has ceased.

(3) [* * * *]¹

(4) In any suit for eviction on the ground mentioned in clause (a) of sub-section (2), if at the first hearing of the suit the tenant unconditionally pays or [tenders to the landlord or deposits in Court]³ the entire amount of rent and damages for use and occupation of the building due from him (such damages for use and occupation being calculated at the same rate as rent) together with interest thereon at the rate of nine per cent per annum and the landlord's costs of the suit in respect thereof, after deducting there from any amount already deposited by the tenant under sub-section (1) of section 30, the court may, in lieu of passing a decree for eviction on that ground, pass an order relieving the tenant against his liability for eviction on that ground :

Provided that nothing in this sub-section, shall apply in relation to a tenant who or any member of whose family has built or has otherwise acquired in a vacant state, or has got vacated after acquisition, any residential building in the same city, municipality, notified area or town area.

1. Omitted by section 8 of UP Act No 37, 1972.

2. Substituted by section 13 (a) of U. P. Act No. 28 of 1976.

3. Subs. by section 13(b) (i) ibid.

[Explanation— For the purposes of this sub-section –

(a) the expression ‘first hearing’ means the first date for any step or proceeding mentioned in the summons served on the defendant;

(b) the expression ‘cost of the suit’ includes one-half of the amount of counsel’s fee taxable for a contested suit.]¹

Act No. V of

(5) Nothing in this section shall affect the power of the court to pass a decree on the basis of an agreement, compromise or satisfaction recorded under rule 3 of Order XXIII of the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

[(6) Any amount deposited by the tenant under sub-section (4) or under rule 5 of order XV of the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 shall be paid to the landlord forthwith on his application without prejudice to the parties pleadings and subject to the ultimate decision in the suits.]²

Proceedings 21-
for release of building under occupation of tenant

(1) The prescribed authority may, on an application of the landlord in that behalf, order the eviction of a tenant from the building under tenancy or any specified part thereof if it is satisfied that any of the following grounds exists; namely: --

(a) that the building is bona fide required either in its existing form or after demolition and new construction by the landlord for occupation by himself or any member of his family, or any person for whose benefit it is held by him, either for residential purposes or for purposes of any profession, trade or calling, or where the landlord is the trustee of a public charitable trust, for the objects of the trust ;

(b) that the building is in a dilapidated condition and is required for purposes of demolition and new construction :

Provided that where the building was in the occupation of a tenant since before its purchase by the landlord, such purchase being made after the commencement of this Act, no application shall be entertained on the grounds mentioned in clause (a), unless a period of three years has elapsed since the date of such purchase and the landlord has given a notice in that behalf to the tenant not less than six months before such application, and such notice may be given even before the expiration of the aforesaid period of three years :

Provided further that if any application under clause (a) is made in respect of [any building let out exclusively for non-residential purposes]³, the prescribed authority while making the order of eviction shall, after considering all relevant facts of the case, award against the landlord to the tenant [an amount not exceeding two years rent]⁴ as compensation and may, subject to rules, impose such other conditions as he thinks fit :

Provided also that no application under clause (a) shall be entertained-

1. Added by section 13(b)(ii) of UP Act No 28 of 1976.

2. Added by section 13(c) ibid.

3. Subs. by section 14 (i)(a)(1) ibid.

4. Subs. by section 14 (i)(a)(2) ibid.

Act No. IV of

(i) for the purposes of a charitable trust, the objects of which provide for discrimination in respect of its beneficiaries on the ground of religion, castes or place of birth ;

(ii) in the case of any residential building, for occupation for business purposes ;

(iii) in the case of any residential building, against any tenant who is a member of the armed forces of the Union and in whose favour the prescribed authority under the Indian Soldiers (Litigation) Act, 1925 has issued a certificate that he is serving under special conditions within the meaning of section 3 of that Act, or where he has died by enemy action while so serving then against his heirs :

[Provided also that the prescribed authority shall, except in cases provided for in the Explanation, take into account the likely hardship to the tenant from the grant of the application as against the likely hardship to the landlord from the refusal of the application and for that purpose shall have regard to such factors as may be prescribed.]¹

Explanation-- In the case of a residential building :

(i) where the tenant or [who has been normally residing with or is wholly dependent on him]² has built or has otherwise acquired in a vacant state or has got vacated after acquisition a residential building in the same city, municipality, notified area or town area, no objection by the tenant against an application under this sub-section shall be entertained;

[Note-- For the purposes of this clause a person shall be deemed to have otherwise acquired a building, if he is occupying a public building for residential purposes as a tenant, allottee or licensee.]³

(ii) []⁴

[(iii) where the landlord of any building is –

(1) a serving or retired Indian Soldier as defined in the Indian Soldiers) litigation, Act, 1925 and such building was let out at any time before his retirement; or

(2) a widow of such a soldier and such building was let out at any time before the retirement or death of her husband, whichever, occurred earlier; and such landlord needs such building for occupation by himself or the members of his family for residential purposes, then his representation that he needs the building for residential purposes for himself or the members of his family shall be deemed sufficient for the purposes of clause (a) and where such landlord owns more than one building this provision shall apply in respect of one building only;]⁵

1. Added by section 14(i)(b) of UP Act No 28 of 1976.

2. Subs. by section 14(i)(c) ibid.

3. Subs. by section 14 (i)(c)(1) ibid.

4. Omitted by section 14 (i)(c)(2) ibid.

5. Subs. by section 6 of U.P. Act No. 17 of 1985.

(iv) []¹

[(1-A) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 2, the prescribed authority shall, on the application of a landlord in the behalf, order the eviction of a tenant from any building under tenancy, if it is satisfied that the landlord of such building was in occupation of a public building for residential purposes which he had to vacate on account of the cessation of his employment:

Provided that an application under this sub-section may also be given by a landlord in occupation of such public building at any time within a period of one year before the expected date of cessation of his employment, but the order of eviction on such application shall take effect only on the date of his actual cessation.]²

(2) The prescribed authority may on an application of the land- lord in that behalf order the eviction of a tenant from any surplus land appurtenant to the building under tenancy if it is satisfied that the land is required for constructing one or more new buildings, or for dividing it into several plots with a view to the sale thereof for purposes of construction of new buildings, and in either case, that the competent authority under any law for the time being in force has approved a plan for the said purpose.

Explanation-- Where the appurtenant land including passage exceeds double the covered area of the building, the excess area shall be deemed to be surplus land.

[(3) No order shall be made under sub-section (1) or sub-section (1-A) or sub-section (2), except after giving to the parties concerned a reasonable opportunity of being heard :

Provided that where the tenant being a servant of Government or of any local authority or any public sector corporation does not contest the application, then a reasonable opportunity of being heard shall be given to the District Magistrate, who shall have the right to oppose the application.]³

(4) An order under [sub-section (1) or sub-section (1-A) or sub-section (2)]⁴ maybe made notwithstanding that the tenancy has not been determined :

Provided that no such order shall be made in the case of a tenancy created for a fixed term by a registered lease before the expiry of such term.

(5) On an order being made under [sub-section (1) or sub-section (1-A) or sub-section (2)]⁵, the building or part or appurtenant land, as the case may be, shall stand released in favour of the landlord :

Provided that on the occurrence of any of the circumstances mentioned in section 24, any building or part thereof (but not appurtenant land alone) released as above, shall, without prejudice to the provisions of section 24, be deemed to become again subject to allotment in accordance with Chapter III.

1. Omitted by section 14(i)(c)(2) of UP Act No 28 of 1976.

2. Added by section 14(ii) ibid.

3. Subs. by section 14 (iii) ibid.

4. Subs. by section 14 (iv) ibid.

5. Subs. by section 14 (v) ibid.

(6) On the expiration of a period of thirty days from an order under [sub-section (1) or sub-section (1-A) or sub-section (2)]¹, the tenancy of the tenant shall stand determined in its entirety or, as the case may be, in respect of any part of appurtenant land released in favour of the landlord, and in the latter case, the rent payable for the remainder of the building under tenancy shall be such as may be agreed upon between the parties and in the absence of such agreement as may be determined under section 8.

[(7) Where during the pendency of an application under clause (a) of sub-section (1), the landlord dies, his legal representatives shall be entitled to prosecute such application further on the basis of their own need in substitution of the need of the deceased.

(8) Nothing in clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall apply to a building let out to the State Government or to a local authority or to a public sector corporation or to a recognized educational institution unless the Prescribe Authority is satisfied that the landlord is a person to whom clause (ii) or clause (iv) of the Explanation to sub-section (1) is applicable:

Provided that in the case of such a building the District Magistrate may, on the application of the landlord, enhance the monthly rent payable therefor to a sum equivalent to one-twelfth of ten per cent of the market value of the building under tenancy, and the rent so enhanced shall be payable from the commencement of the month of tenancy following the date of the application:

Provided further that a similar application for further enhancement may be made after the expiration of a period of five years from the date of the last order of enhancement.]²

Appeal	22-	Any person aggrieved by an order under section 21 or section 24 may within thirty days from the date of the order prefer an appeal against it to the District Judge, and in other respects, the provisions of [section 10] ³ shall mutatis mutandis apply in relation to such appeal.
Enforcement of eviction order	23-	(1) The prescribed authority may use or cause to be used such force as may be necessary for evicting any tenant against whom an order is made under section 21 or on appeal under section 22, as the case may be, or against any other person found in actual occupation, and for putting the landlord into possession. (2) Every order of the prescribed authority in proceedings under this section shall be final.

1. Substituted by section 14(vi) of UP Act No 28 of 1976.

2. Added by section 14 (vii) ibid.

3. Subs. by section 15 ibid.

Option of reentry by

24- (1) Where a building is released in favour of the landlord and the tenant is evicted under section 21 or on appeal under section 22, and the landlord either puts or causes to be put into occupation thereof any person different from the person for whose occupation according to the landlord's representation, the building was required, or permits any such person to occupy it, or otherwise puts it to any use other than the one for which it was released, or as the case may be, omits to occupy it within one month of such extended period as the prescribed authority may for sufficient cause allow from the date of his obtaining possession or, in the case a building which was proposed to be occupied after some construction or reconstruction, from the date of completion thereof, or in the case of a building which was proposed to be demolished, omits to demolish it within two months or such extended period the prescribed authority may for sufficient cause allow from the date of his obtaining possession, then the prescribed authority or, as the case maybe, the District Judge, may, on an application in that behalf within three months from the date of such act or omission, order the landlord to place the evicted tenant in occupation of the building on the original terms and conditions, and on such order being made, the landlord and any person who may be in occupation thereof shall give vacant possession of the building to the said tenant, failing which, the prescribed authority shall put him into possession and may for that purpose use or cause to be used such force as may be necessary.

(2) Where the landlord after obtaining a release order under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 21 demolishes a building and constructs it new building or buildings on its site, then the District Magistrate may, on an application being made in that behalf by the original tenant within such time as may be prescribed, allot to him the new building or such one of them as the District Magistrate after considering his requirements thinks fit, and thereupon that tenant shall be liable to pay as rent for such building an amount equivalent to one per cent per month of the cost of construction thereof (including the cost of demolition of the old building but not including the value of the land) and the building shall, subject to the tenant's liability to pay rent as aforesaid, be subject to the provisions of this Act, and where the tenant makes no such application or refuses or fails to take that building on lease within the time allowed by the District Magistrate, or subsequently ceases to occupy it or otherwise vacates it, that building shall also be exempt from the operation of this Act for the period or the remaining period, as the case may be specified in sub-section (2) of section 2.

[CHAPTER IV-A

Summary Trial of Certain Applications

24-A The provisions of this Chapter or any rule made thereunder shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent herewith contained elsewhere in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force or in any contract (whether express or implied), custom or usage to the contrary.

24-B (1) Where a landlord who, being a person in occupation of any residential public building is required, by or in pursuance of any general or special order made by the Government or other authority concerned, to vacate such building, or in default, to incur certain obligations, on the ground that the owns, in the same city, municipality, notified area or town area residential building either in his own name or in the name of any member of his family, there shall accrue, on and from the date of such order, to such landlord, a right to recover immediately possession of any building let out by him:

Provided that nothing in this section shall be construed as conferring a right on a landlord owning, in the same city, municipality, notified area or town area, two or more dwelling houses, whether in his own name or in the name of any member of his family, to recover the possession of more than one dwelling house and it shall be lawful for such landlord to indicate the dwelling house, possession of which he intends to recover.

(2) Where the landlord exercises the right of recovery conferred on him by sub-section (1), no compensation shall be payable by him to the tenant or any person claiming through or under him and no claim for such compensation shall be entertained by any court tribunal or other authority:

Provided that where the landlord had received –

(a) any rent in advance from the tenant, he shall within a period of ninety days from the date of recovery of possession of the building by him, refund to the tenant such amount as represents the rent payable for the unexpired portion of the contract, agreement or lease;

(b) any other payment from the tenant, he shall, within the period aforesaid, refund to the tenant a sum which shall bear the same proportion to the total amount so received, as the unexpired portion of the contract or agreement, or lease bears to the total period of contract or agreement or lease:

Provided further that, if any default is made in making any refund as aforesaid, the landlord shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of twelve per cent per annum on the amount which he has omitted or failed to refund.

24-C (1) Every application by a landlord for the recovery of possession of any building on the ground specified in section 24-B shall be made to the District Magistrate and be dealt with in accordance with the procedure specified in this section.

(2) The District Magistrate shall issue summons, in relation to every application referred to in sub-section (1) in the form prescribed.

(3) (a) The District Magistrate shall, in addition to and simultaneously with, the issue of summons for service on the tenant, also direct the summons to be served by registered post, acknowledgment due, addressed to the tenant or his agent empowered to accept the service at the place where the tenant or his agent actually and voluntarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain and may, if the circumstance of the case so require, also direct the publication of the summons in a newspaper circulating in the locality in which the tenant is last known to have resided or carried on business or personally worked for gain;

(b) when an acknowledgment purporting to be signed by the tenant or his agent is received by the District Magistrate or the registered article containing the summons is received back with an endorsement purporting to have been made by a postal employee to the effect that the tenant or his agent had refused to take delivery of the registered article the District Magistrate may declare that there has been a valid service of summons.

(4) The tenant on whom the summons is duly served (whether in the ordinary way or by registered post) shall not contest the prayer for eviction from the premises unless he files an affidavit stating the grounds on which he seeks to contest the application for eviction and obtain leave from the District Magistrate as hereinafter provided, and in default of his appearance in pursuance of the summons or his obtaining such leave, the statement made by the landlord in the applications for eviction shall be deemed to be admitted by the tenant and the applicant shall be entitled to an order for eviction on the ground aforesaid.

(5) The District Magistrate shall give to the tenant leave to contest the application if the affidavit filed by the tenant discloses such facts as would disentitle the landlord from obtaining an order for the recovery of possession of the premises on the ground specified in section 24-B.

(6) Where leave is granted to the tenant to contest the applications, the District Magistrate shall commence the hearing of the application as early as practicable.

(7) No appeals or second appeal shall lie against an order for the recovery of possession of any premises made by the District Magistrate in accordance with the procedure specified in this section :

Provided that the District Judge, for the purpose of satisfying himself that an order made by the District Magistrate under this section is according to law, call for the records of the case and pass such order in respect thereto as he thinks fit.

(8) Where no application has been made to the District Judge on revision, the District Magistrate may exercise the powers of review in accordance with the provisions of order XLVII of the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.]¹

CHAPTER V

Regulation of other Rights and Obligations of Landlord and Tenant

Prohibition of sub-letting

25-

- (1) No tenant shall subject the whole of the building under his tenancy.
- (2) The tenant may with the permission in, writing of the landlord and of the District Magistrate, sub-let a part of the building.

Explanation-For the purposes of this section-

- (i) where the tenant ceases, within the meaning of clause (b) of sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 12, to occupy the building or any part thereof he shall be deemed to have sub-let that building or part ;
- (ii) lodging a person in a hotel or a lodging house shall not amount to sub-letting.

Certain
obligations of the landlord and tenant

26-

- (1) No landlord shall without lawful authority or excuse cut off, withholds or reduces any of the amenities enjoyed by the tenant.

1. Chapter IV-A added by section 16 of U.P. Act No 28 of 1976.

(2) The landlord shall be bound to keep the building under tenancy wind-proof and water-proof and, subject to any contract in writing to the contrary, carry out periodical white-washing and repairs.

(3) Subject to any contract in writing to the contrary, no tenant shall, whether during the continuance of the tenancy or after its determination, demolish and improvement effected by him in the building or remove any material used in such improvement, other than any fixtures of a movable nature.

[Explanation— The expression ‘material used in such improvement’ includes the writing of an electrical fitting or a pipe pertaining to any water connections.]¹

(4) The landlord shall give to the tenant a receipt for rent payable to and received by him.

Enforcement
of landlord's obligation
regarding amenities

(1) The prescribed authority may, on an application of the tenant, serve upon the landlord a notice requiring him, within such period, not exceeding one week, as may be specified in the notice to restore any amenity alleged to have been cut-off, withheld or reduced in contravention of sub-section (1) of section 26 or to show cause why an order under this section be not passed against him.

(2) If the landlord fails to restore the amenity within the said period, or to show sufficient cause, the prescribed authority may by order permit the tenant, have the amenity restored at his cost, and there-upon the tenant shall be entitled to recover such cost as may be incurred by him in pursuance of the order, by deduction from the rent payable to the landlord, after furnishing to him the account of the expenditure, and nothing in section 6 shall be deemed to apply to such cost.

Enforcement
of landlord's
obligation
regarding repairs etc.

28-

(1) If the landlord fails to carry out white-washing or repairs as required by sub-section (2) of section 26, the tenant may, by notice in writing, call upon him to carry out the same within one month from the date of service of such notice.

(2) Where the cost of the requisite white-washing or repairs is likely to exceed the amount of [two months rent]² in a year, then the tenant in his notice shall also intimate to the landlord his willingness to pay enhanced rent in accordance with the provisions of section 6.

(3) If the landlord fails to comply with the notice, the tenant may himself carry out the white-washing or repairs at a cost not exceeding [two month's rent]⁴ in a year and deduct the amount from the rent, and in any such case he shall furnish the account of the expenditure incurred to the landlord.

(4) Where the tenant claims that the building requires whit-washing or repairs to such extent that the cost thereof is likely to exceed the amount of [two month's rent]⁵ in a year, hereinafter in this section referred to as "major repairs", and the landlord either declines his responsibility to carry out the same or fails to comply with the notice, the tenant may apply to the prescribed authority for an order under sub-section (5).

1. Added by section 17 of UP Act No 28 of 1976.

2. Substituted by section 18 (i) (a) ibid.

3. Omitted by section 18 (i) (b) ibid.

4. Subs. by section 18 (ii) ibid.

5. Subs. by section 18 (iii) ibid.

(5) The prescribed authority on receiving an application under sub-section (4) may, after giving an opportunity of hearing to the parties-

(a) either reject the application; or

(b) require the landlord to carry out the requisite major re-pairs within such period as may be specified in the order, and on his failure to do so, permit the tenant to carry out those repairs at a cost not exceeding such amount (which shall not be more than the amount of two years rent) and within such period as may be specified in the order.

(6) Where in pursuance of an order under sub-section (5) any major repairs are carried out by the tenant, he shall furnish an account of the expenditure to the prescribed authority, which shall certify the amount recoverable by the tenant, and thereupon such amount, unless paid or otherwise adjusted by the landlord, may be deducted by the tenant from the rent in monthly installments not exceeding twenty-five per cent of one month's rent, and in any such case, the enhancement of rent under section 6 shall come into effect only from the month following the month in which the cost is fully recovered by the tenant.

(7) No appeal or revision shall lie from any order of the prescribed authority under sub-section (5) or sub-section (6), which shall be final.

[Alteration and improvement not to be made by sub-tenant]	28-A	Nothing in section 6 or clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 20, or sub-section (3) of section 26 shall be construed to confer on any sub-tenant a right to make any alteration or improvement in any building otherwise than in accordance with the terms of the tenancy.
Tenancy right to get water connection and sanitary fittings installed	28-B	Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force relating to a local authority, the tenant (including a sub-tenant) shall have the right to get water connection, electric connection and sanitary fittings installed in the building under his tenancy at his own cost, and the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 26 shall apply in relation to every such installation.] ¹
Special protection to tenants of buildings destroyed by collective disturbances, etc.	29-	(1) Where in consequence of the commission of mischief or any other offence in the course of collective disturbances, any building under tenancy is wholly or partly destroyed the tenant shall have the right to re-erect it wholly or partly as the case may be, at his own expenses within a period of six months from such injury: Provided that if such injury was occasioned by the wrongful act or default of the tenant he shall not be entitled to avail himself of the benefit of this provision. (2) Where in consequence of fire, tempest, flood or excessive rain-fall, any building under tenancy is wholly or partly destroyed the tenant shall have the right to re-erect or repair it wholly or partly, as the case may be, at his own expense after giving a notice in Writing to the landlord within a period of one month from such injury:

1. Added by section 19 of UP Act No 28 of 1976.

Provided that the tenant shall not be entitled to avail himself of the benefit of this provision---

(a) if such injury was occasioned by his own wrongful act of default; or

(b) in respect of any re-erection or repair made before he had given a notice as aforesaid to the landlord or before the expiration of a period of fifteen days after such notice, or if the landlord in the meantime makes an application under section 21; before the disposal of such application; or

(c) in respect of any re-erection or repair made after the expiration of a period of six months from such injury or if the land-lord has made any application as aforesaid from the disposal thereof.

(3) Where the tenant, before the commencement of this Act, has made any re-erection or repair in exercise of his rights under section 19 of the old Act, or after the commencement of this Act makes any re-erection in the exercise of his right under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2),-

(a) the property so re-erected or repaired shall be comprised in the tenancy;

(b) the tenant shall not be entitled, whether during the tenancy or after its determination, to demolish the property or parts so erected or repaired or to remove any material used therein other than any fixtures of a movable nature;

(c) Notwithstanding, anything contained in sub-section(2) of section 2, the provisions of this Act shall apply to the building so re-erected :

Provided that no application shall be maintain the under section 21 in respect of any such building on the ground mentioned in clause (b) of sub-section- (1) thereof within a period of three years from the completion of such re-erection.

[Protection against eviction to certain classes of tenants of land on which building exists

29-A

(1) For the purposes of this section, the expressions 'tenant' and 'landlord' shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in clauses (a) and (j) of section 3 with the substitution of the word 'land' for the word 'building'.

(2) This section applies only to land let out, either before or after the commencement of this section, where the tenant, with the landlord's consent has erected any permanent structure and incurred expenses in execution thereof.

(3) Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained in this section, the provisions of section 20 shall apply in relation to any land referred to in sub-section (2), as they apply in relation to any building.

(4) The tenant of any land to which this section applies shall be liable to pay to the landlord such rent as may be mutually agreed upon between the parties, and in the absence of agreement, the rent determined in accordance with sub-section (5).

(5) The District Magistrate shall on the application of the landlord or the tenant determine the annual rent payable in respect of such land at the rate of ten per cent per annum of the prevailing market value of the land and such rent shall be payable, except as provided in sub-section (6) from the date of expiration of the term for which the land was let or from the commencement of his section, whichever is later.

(6) (a) In any suit or appeal or other proceeding pending immediately before the date of commencement of this section, no decree for eviction of a tenant from any land to which this section applies, shall be passed or executed except on one or more of the grounds mentioned in sub-section (2) of section 20, provided the tenant, within a period of three months from the commencement of his section by an application to the court, unconditionally offers to pay to the landlord, the enhanced rent of the land for the entire period in suit and onwards at the rate of ten per cent per annum of the prevailing market value of the land together with costs of the suit (including costs of any appeal or of any execution or other proceedings);

(b) In every such case, the enhanced rent shall, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (5), be determined by the court seized of the case at any stage;

(c) Upon payment against a receipt duly signed by the plaintiff or decree-holder or his counsel or deposit in court of such enhanced rent with costs as aforesaid being made by the tenant within such time as the court may fix in this behalf, the court shall dismiss the suit, or as the case may be, discharge the decree for eviction, and the tenancy thereafter, shall continue annually on the basis of the rent so enhanced;

(d) If the tenant fails to pay the said amount with the time so fixed (including any extended time, if any, that the court may fix or for sufficient cause allow) the court shall proceed further in the case as if the foregoing provisions of this section were not in force.

(7) The provisions of this section shall have effect, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any contract or instrument or in any other law for the time being in force.

Explanation— For the purposes of sub-section (6) where a case has been decided against a tenant by one court and the limitation for an appeal therefrom has not expired on the date immediately before the commencement of his section, this section shall apply as it applies to pending proceedings, and the tenant may apply to that court for a review of the judgment in accordance with the provisions of this section.]¹

Deposit of rent 30-in court in
circumstances

(1) If any person claiming to be a tenant of a building tenders any amount as rent in respect of the building to its alleged landlord and the alleged landlord refuses to accept the same then the former may deposit such amount in the prescribed manner and continue to deposit any rent which he alleges to be due for any subsequent period in respect of such building until the landlord in the meantime signifies by notice in writing to the tenant his willingness to accept it.

(2) Where any bona fide doubt or dispute has arisen as to the person who is entitled to receive any rent in respect of any building, the tenant may likewise deposit the rent stating the circumstances under which such deposit is made and may, until such doubt has been removed or such dispute has been settled by the decision of any competent Court or by settlement between the parties, continue to deposit the rent that may subsequently become due in respect of such building.

1. Section 29-A added by section 20 of UP Act No 28 of 1976.

(3) The deposit referred to in sub-section (1), or sub-section (2) shall be made in the Court of the Munsif having jurisdiction.

(4) On any deposit being made under sub-section (1), the Court shall cause a notice of the deposit to be served on the alleged landlord, and the amount of deposit may be with drawn by that person on application made by him to the Court in that behalf.

(5) On a deposit being made under sub-section (2), the Court shall cause notice of the deposit to be served on the person or persons concerned and hold the amount of the deposit for the benefit of the person who may be found entitled to it by any competent Court or by a settlement between the parties, and the same shall be payable to such person.

(6) In respect of a deposit made as aforesaid, it shall be deemed that the person depositing it has paid it on the date of such deposit to the person in whose favour it is deposited in the case referred to in sub-section (1) or to the landlord in the case referred to in sub-section (2).

CHAPTER VI
