STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Bill seeks to provide the Union territory of Chandigarh with its first Municipal Corporation as required under Part IXA of the Constitution. It also seeks to do so by extending the Punjab Municipal Corporation Act, 1976 to Union territory of Chandigarh and by making exception and modification under article 243ZB. Furthermore, it also seeks to repeal all the provisions of Punjab Municipal Act, 1911, which are currently applicable to the Union territory of Chandigarh. The Bill purports to replace the Ordinance by which the above three objectives were achieved.

2. The Punjab Legislative Assembly enacted the Punjab Municipal Corporation Act, 1976 for establishment of Municipal Corporation in large urban agglomerations in the State of Punjab. This Act repealed, amongst others, the Punjab Municipal Act, 1911 in its application to the State of Punjab. In order to bring the provisions of 1976 Act, in conformity with the provisions of Part IXA of the Constitution relating to Municipalities, the Punjab Legislative Assembly amended 1976 Act through the Punjab Municipal Corporation (Amendment) Act, 1994.

3. In order to fulfil the constitutional obligation it was necessary to provide for a municipal corporation for Chandigarh before 31.5.1994 and the House of the People was not in session, it became necessary to extend the Punjab Municipal Corporation Act, 1976 to Chandigarh. Hence the Punjab Municipal Corporation Law (Extension to Chandigarh) Ordinance, 1994 was promulgated on 24.5.1994 to fulfil the constitutional obligation. The Ordinance mainly extends the Punjab Municipal Corporation Act, 1976 with some exceptions and modifications to suit the requirements of Chandigarh. It provides for the establishment and composition of Municipal Corporation of Chandigarh.

4. The other important features of the Ordinance are the following:—

(1) (a) The Corporation will be a combination of elected representatives and nominated members. 10 members will be directly elected, 9 members will be nominated (with voting right) by the Administrator. The nominated members will be from amongst the persons who are eminent or distinguished in public affairs or those who have special knowledge or practical experience in respect of Municipal administration. The Chair person will be elected by the full House.

(b) The Chairperson of the Corporation will be known as “Mayor”.

(2) The provisions of its qualification relating to the “Office of Profit” for purposes of election to the House of the People would not be applicable to the members to be nominated by the Administrator.

(3) The following items of work are proposed to be retained by the Chandigarh Administration:—

(i) Urban planning, including town planning.

(ii) Regulations of land use and regulation of construction of buildings.

(iii) Such important parks and stadia as may be specified by the Administrator.

(4) All the remaining functions included in the Twelfth Schedule of the Constitution and in the Punjab Municipal Corporation Act, 1976 as amended up-to-date, are proposed to be made the responsibility of the Municipal Corporation.

(5) No person shall be a member both of the Parliament and Corporation. If a person is so chosen, he will have to resign one seat failing which the seat in Parliament shall become vacant.

(6) The Capital of Punjab (Development and Regulation) Act, 1952 and the Punjab New Capital (Periphery) Control Act, 1952, and the rules and bye-laws made thereunder shall continue to be applicable to the development and regulation of Chandigarh as hitherto.

(7) A provision has been made for the appointment of a person to be called special officer to exercise powers and discharge the function of the Corporation until the date on which first meeting of the Corporation is held.

(8) Repeal of the Punjab Municipal Act, 1911 as applicable to the Union territory of Chandigarh.

5. The Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance.
