ACT No. XL OF 1953

[This Act received the assent of the President on the 12th June 1953; assent was first published in the Bombay Government Gazette, Part IV, on the 17th June 1953.]

An Act to provide for the constitution of a Fund for the financing of activities to promote welfare of labour in the State of ²[Maharashtra] ³[for conducting such activities and for certain other purposes.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to constitute a Fund for the financing of activities to promote 'welfare' of labour in the State of ⁴[Maharashtra] ⁵[for conducting such activities and for certain other purposes]; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. Short title, extent and commencement.— (1) This Act may be called ⁶[the Maharashtra Labour Welfare Fund Act.]

⁷[(2) It extends to the whole of the State of Maharashtra.]

(3) It shall come into force in such area and on such date as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint in this behalf.

2. Definitions.— In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

(1) "Board" means ⁸[the Maharashtra Labour Welfare Board] constituted under section 4;

⁹[(1A) "contribution" means the sum of money payable to the Board in accordance with the provisions of section 6BB;]

¹⁰[(2) "Employee" means any person who is employed for hire or reward to do any work, skilled or unskilled, manual, clerical, supervisory or technical in an establishment directly by the employer or through contractor or any other agency, but does not include any person—

(i) who is employed mainly in a managerial capacity,

(ii) who, being employed in a supervisory capacity, draws wages exceeding three thousand and five hundred rupees per mensem, or exercises powers or carries out, either by the nature of the duties attached to the office, or by reason of the powers vested in him, functions mainly of a managerial nature, or

(iii) who is employed as an apprentice under the Apprentice Act, 1961 (52 of 1961);]

(3) "Employer" means any person who employs either directly or through another person either on behalf of himself or any other person, one or more employees in an establishment and includes—

(i) in a factory, any person named under section 7(1)(f) of the Factories Act, 1948 (LXIII of 1948) as the manager ;

(ii) in any establishment, any person responsible to the owner for the supervision and control of the employees or for the payment of wages ;

(4) "Establishment" means—

6. Resignation of office by member and filling up of casual vacancies.— (1) A member may resign his office by giving notice thereof in writing to the State Government, and on such resignation being accepted, shall be deemed to have vacated his office.

(2) A casual vacancy in the office of a member shall be filled up, as soon as conveniently may be, by the authority concerned and a member so nominated shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the office of his predecessor.

(3) No act or proceedings of the Board shall be questioned on the ground merely of the existence of any vacancy in, or any defect in constitution of the Board.

²[6A. Unpaid accumulations and claims thereto.— (1) All unpaid accumulations shall be deemed to be abandoned property.

(2) Any unpaid accumulations paid to the Board in accordance with the provision of section 3 shall on such payment, discharge an employer of the liability to make payment to an employee in respect thereof, but to the extent only of the amount paid to the Board, and the liability to make payment to the employee to the extent aforesaid shall subject to the succeeding provisions of this section be deemed to be transferred to the Board.

(3) As soon as possible after the payment of any unpaid accumulations is made to the Board, the Board shall by notice (containing such particulars as may be prescribed)—

(a) exhibited on the notice—board of the factory or establishment in which the unpaid accumulation was earned and

³[* * * * * *]

(c) also published in any two newspapers circulating and in the language commonly understood in the area in which the factory or establishment in which the unpaid accumulation was earned is situate, or in such other manner as may be prescribed, regard being had to the amount of the claim, invite claims by employees for any payment due to them. The notice shall be inserted in the manner aforesaid in June and December of every year, for a period of three years from the date of the payment of the unpaid accumulation to the Board.

(4) If any question arises whether the notice referred to in sub-section (3) was given as required by that sub-section, a certificate of the Board that it was so given, shall be conclusive.

(5) If a claim is received whether in answer to the notices or otherwise, within a period of four years from the date of first publication of the notice in respect of such claim, the Board shall transfer such claim to the Authority appointed under section 15 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (IV of 1936), having jurisdiction in the area in which the factory or establishment is situated, and the Authority shall proceed to adjudicate upon, and decide, such claim. In hearing such claim, the Authority shall have the powers conferred by, and follow the procedure (in so far as it is applicable) followed in giving effect to the provisions of that Act.

² Section 6A was inserted by Mah. 36 of 1961, s. 10. Section 14 of Mah. 36 of 1961 reads as under,—

“14. Amendments made by sections 3(b) 7 and 10 to have retrospective effect.— The amendments made in the principal Act by sections 3(b), 7 and 10 of this Act shall, in relation to unpaid accumulations (including those already paid to the Board before the commencement of this Act), be deemed always to have been made in the principal Act :

Provided that, nothing in section 10 shall apply to any unpaid accumulations not already paid to the Board and—

(a) in respect of which separate accounts have not been maintained, so that any unpaid claims of employees are not traceable, or

(b) which through maintained as part of a separate account, are proved to have been spent before the 7th day of July 1961”.

³ Clause (b) was deleted by Mah. 22 of 1966, s. 4.

(6) If the Authority aforesaid is satisfied that any such claim is valid so that the right to receive payment is established, it shall decide that the unpaid accumulation in relation to which the claim is made shall cease to be deemed to be abandoned property, and shall order the Board to pay the whole of the dues claimed, or such part thereof as the Authority decides are properly due, to the employee; and the Board shall make payment accordingly :

Provided that, the Board shall not be liable to pay any sum in excess of that paid under sub-section (1) of section 3 to the Board as unpaid accumulations, in respect of the claim.

(7) If a claim for payment is refused, the employee shall have a right of appeal in Greater Bombay to the Court of Small Causes, and elsewhere to the District Court and the Board shall comply with any order made in appeal. An appeal shall lie, within sixty days of the decision of the Authority.

(8) The decision of the Authority, subject to appeal aforesaid, and the decision in appeal of the Court of Small Causes, or as the case may be, the District Court, shall be final and conclusive as to the right to receive payment, the liability of the Board to pay and also as to the amount, if any.

(9) If no claim is made within the time specified in sub-section (5), or a claim has been duly refused as aforesaid by the Authority, or an appeal by the Court, then the unpaid accumulations in respect of such claim shall accrue to, and vest in, the State as bona vacantia, and shall thereafter, without further assurance be deemed to be transferred to, form part of, the Fund.]

²[(2) The amount of contribution payable every six months in respect of every employee and an employer for each such employee shall be at the following rates, namely :—

(a) in respect of an employee, whose name appears in the register of an establishment on the 30th June and 31st December, respectively, shall be at the rate of twenty-five rupees :

Provided that, the State Government shall on receipt of a proposal from the Board, by notification in the Official Gazette, increase once in every three years, the rate of employee’s contribution so, however that, such increase shall not exceed thirty per cent. of the rate of contribution;

(b) in respect of an employer, for each employee referred to in clause (a), thrice the amount of contribution payable by an employee.]

(3) Every employer shall pay to the Board both the employer’s contribution and the employee’s contribution in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) before the 15th day of July and 15th day of January, as the case may be.]

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other enactment but subject to the provisions of this Act and any rules, the employer shall in the case of any such employee be entitled to recover from the employee that employee’s contribution by deduction from his wages, and not otherwise; and such deduction shall be deemed to be a deduction authorised by or under the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (4 of 1936).

Provided that, no such deduction shall be made in excess of the amount of the contribution payable by such employee, nor shall it be made from any wages other than the wages for the months of June and December :

Provided further that, if through inadvertence or otherwise, no deduction has been made from the wages of an employee for the months aforesaid, such deduction may be made from the wages of such employee for any subsequent month or months with the permission in writing of the Inspector appointed under this Act.

² Sub-section (2) was substituted by Mah. 25 of 2024, s. 2.

(5) Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary, no employer shall deduct the employer's contribution from any wages payable to an employee or otherwise recover it from the employee.

(6) Any sum duly deducted by an employer from the wages of an employee under this section shall be deemed to have been entrusted to him by the employee for the purpose of paying the contribution in respect of which it was deducted.

(7) An employer shall pay the employer's and the employee's contribution to the Board by cheque, money-order or in cash, and he shall bear the expenses of remitting to the Board such contributions.

(8) The Welfare Commissioner shall submit to the State Government as soon as possible after the end of July and January every year in the prescribed form a statement showing the total amount of ¹[the employer's contribution and the employees' contribution in respect of employees in each establishment]. On receipt of the statement from the Welfare Commissioner, the State-Government shall pay to the Board a contribution of ²[an amount equal to half the employee's contribution for the period from the 31st December 2000 to the 31st March 2003; and an amount equal to twice the employee's contribution with effect from the 1st April 2003, in respect of every employee referred to in sub-clause (i) and (ii) of clause (a) of sub-section (2).]

³[6B. Interest on unpaid accumulations or fines after notice of demand.— (1) If an employer does not pay to the Board any amount of unpaid accumulations, or fines realised from the employees ⁴[or the amount of the employer's and employee's contributions under section 6BB] within the time he is required by or under the provisions of this Act to pay it, the Welfare Commissioner may cause to be served a notice on such employer to pay the amount within the period specified therein which shall not be less than thirty days from the date of service of such notice.

(2) If the employer fails, without sufficient cause to pay any such amount within the period specified in the notice, he shall, in addition to that amount, pay to the Board simple interest—

⁵[(a) in the case of failure to pay any amount of unpaid accumulations or fines realised from the employees,—

(i) for the first three months, at ⁶[one and a half per cent.] of the said amount for each completed months, after the last date by which he should have paid it according to the notice; and

(ii) thereafter, at ⁷[two per cent.] of that amount for each completed months, during the time he continue to make default in the payment of that amount ;

(b) in the case of a failure to pay any amount of the employer's and employees' contributions under section 6BB,—

(i) for the first three months, at ⁸[one and a half per cent.] of the said amount for each completed month, after the last date by which he should have paid it in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 6BB ; and

(ii) thereafter, at ⁹[two per cent.] of that amount for each completed month, during the time he continues to make default in the payment of that amount:]

Provided that, the Welfare Commissioner may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, remit the whole or any part of the penalty in respect of any period.]

7. Vesting and application of Fund.— (1) The Fund shall vest in and be held and applied by the Board as Trustees subject to the provisions and for the purposes of this Act. The moneys therein shall
