Provided that this section shall not apply to persons in the service of any contractor employed by the Board.

5. Rules.— (1) The ¹[²[State] Government] may make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide—

(a) for the manner in which meetings of the Board shall be convened, the quorum necessary for the transaction of business and the procedure at such meetings;

(b) for the appointment of committees of the Board and the powers of expenditure and control which may be delegated to such committees;

(c) for the erection of the Museum on the land specified in the Schedule to this Act and for the maintenance and management of the said land and Museum, the care and custody of the objects deposited in the Museum and the conditions under which the public shall have access to the land or Museum;

(d) for the maintenance, management and disposal of any other immoveable property vested in the Board and for the investment and re-investment in public securities or otherwise and for the safe custody of the funds of the Board;

(e) for the form of accounts to be kept by the Board and for the audit and publication of such accounts; and

(f) for the application to the officers and servants employed by the Board of the rules which apply to the civil servants of the Crown or to any class of such civil servants;

³[(g) for the payment of contributions at such rates and subject to such conditions as may from time to time be prescribed by the Board to any provident fund which may be established by the Board for the benefit of the officers and servants employed by it.]

⁴[6. Powers to borrow from Central or ⁵[State] Government or person.— The Board may from time to time borrow or reborrow and take up at interest from ⁶[the Central or the ⁷[State] Government] or with the previous sanction of the ⁸[⁹[State] Government] from any person any sum necessary for the purpose of defraying any costs, charges or expenses incurred or to be incurred by them to carry out the purposes of this Act or for the purpose of repaying either in whole or part any sums hereafter borrowed or owing by the Board.

7. Mortgage of immoveable property or, revenues.— (1) The Board may borrow or reborrow any such sum as aforesaid from any person on the security of any immoveable property vesting in them other than the property mentioned in the proviso to Section 3 or of their revenues or of both of these securities.

¹ The words “Provincial Government” were substituted for the word “Government” by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

² This word was substituted for the word “Provincial” by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

³ Clause (g) was inserted by Bom. 7 of 1924, s. 2(1). This clause shall be deemed to have had effect from such date as may be fixed by the Board in this behalf. See Section 2(2), by the Adaptation of Laws order, 1950.

⁴ Sections 6 to 17 were added by s. 3 of the Prince of Wales Museum (Amendment) Act, 1921 (Bom. 6 of 1921).

⁵ This word was substituted for the word “Provincial” by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

⁹ This word was substituted for the word “Provincial” by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

¹⁰ The proviso to s. 6 was omitted by the Adaptation of Laws order, 1950.

(2) For the purpose of securing the repayment of any sum so borrowed with interest thereon they may mortgage to the person by or on behalf of whom such sum is advanced any such immoveable property or revenues of both of these securities.

8. Provisions as to sinking funds.— (1) In respect of every loan raised by the Board for a term exceeding one year, the Board shall either pay off the money borrowed by equal yearly or half yearly instalments of principal or of principal and interest, or they shall in every year set apart as a sinking fund and accumulate in the way of compound interest by investing the same in the purchase of public securities or in such other securities as the ¹[²[State] Government] may approve in this behalf such sum or sums as will, with accumulations in the way of compound interest, be sufficient after payment of all expenses to pay off the moneys so borrowed ³[within such period not exceeding sixty years] from the date of the raising of the loan as the ⁴[⁵[State Government] may in each case direct.

(2) The Board may at any time apply the whole or any part of a sinking fund set apart under this section in or towards the discharge of the moneys for the repayment of which the fund has been established:

Provided that they pay into the fund each time that interest would have been received by the Board in respect of the sinking fund or the part of the sinking fund so applied and accumulate, until the whole of the moneys borrowed are discharged, a sum equivalent to the interest which would have been so received.

9. Annual examination of sinking fund.— The sinking fund established for the liquidation of any loan shall be subject to annual examination by the ⁶[Accountant General, Maharashtra] who shall ascertain whether the cash and the value of the securities at the credit of the fund are actually equal to the amount which would have been accumulated, had investment been regularly made and had the rate of interest as originally estimated been obtained thereon. The Board shall pay forthwith into the sinking fund any amount which the Accountant General may certify to be deficient, unless the ⁷[⁸[State] Government] specially sanction a gradual readjustment.

10. Issue of debentures.— (1) In respect of any sinking fund which by this Act the Board are directed or empowered to invest in public securities or in such other securities as the ⁹[¹⁰[State Government] may approve in this behalf, it shall be lawful for the Board to reserve and set apart for, the purposes of any such investment any debentures to be issued on account of any loan for which the sanction of the ¹¹[¹²[State] Government] shall have been duly obtained, provided that the intention so to reserve and set apart such debentures shall have notified as a condition of the issue of the loan.

(2) The issue of any such debentures direct to and in the name of “the Trustees of the Prince of Wales Museum of Western India” ¹³[or, as the case may be, “The Trustees of the Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Vastu Sangrahalaya”] shall not operate to extinguish or cancel such debentures, but every debenture so issued shall be valid in all respects as if issued to and in the name of, any other person.

¹³ These words were inserted by Mah. 25 of 2001, s. 6.

(3) The purchase by or the transfer, assignment or endorsement to the Board of any debenture issued by the Board shall not operate to extinguish or cancel any such debenture but the same shall be valid and negotiable in the same manner and to the same extent as if held by or transferred, assigned or endorsed to any other person.

11. Form of debentures.— (1) When money is raised by the Board on debentures the debentures shall be in such form as the Board, with the previous sanction of the ¹[²State] Government], shall from time to time determine.

(2) The holder of any debenture in any form duly authorised under this section may obtain in exchange therefor, upon such terms as the Board shall from time to time determine, a debenture in any other form authorised by the Board.

(3) Every debenture issued by the Board shall be transferable by endorsement.

(4) The right to payment of the moneys secured by any such debentures and to sue in respect thereof shall vest in the respective holders thereof for the time being without any preference by reason of some of such debentures being prior in date to others.

12. Prohibition endorsements on allonges.— Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 15 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 (XXVI of 1881), the holder of any debenture issued under the provisions of this Act and transferable by endorsement shall not be said to endorse the debenture or be called the endorser thereof, if when he signs the same for the purpose of negotiation he subscribes his signature for that purpose elsewhere than on the back of the debenture itself.

13. Issue of stock certificates.— (1) The Board may at their discretion at the time of issue or at any time during the currency of any debentures issued under the provisions of this Act, upon the application of the subscriber for or holder of, any such debentures, issue to him, in lieu of the debentures deliverable to or held by him, a certificate in the nature of a stock certificate in respect of each loan to which such debentures relate, which shall be in such form as the Board, with the previous consent of the ³[⁴State] Government], shall from time to time determine.

(2) The Board shall upon the application of the holder of a stock certificate convert the same into debentures of the loan to which it relates.

14. Payment to survivors of joint payees.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 45 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872 (IX of 1872), when money in respect of any debenture or stock certificate issued under the provisions of this Act is payable to two or more persons jointly and either or any of them dies, the money shall be payable to the survivor or survivors of those persons.

(2) Nothing herein contained shall affect any claim which the representative of the deceased person may have against the survivor or survivors in respect of the money payable jointly to him or them and the deceased.

15. Power of one or more joint holders to grant receipt.— Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 45 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872 (IX of 1872), where two or more persons are joint holders of any debenture or stock certificate issued under the provisions of this Act, any one of those persons may give an effectual receipt for any interest or dividend payable in respect of such debenture or stock certificate, unless notice to the contrary has been given to the Board by any other of those persons.

16. Notice of trust not receivable.— No Notice of any trust in respect of any debenture or stock certificate issued by the Board shall be receivable by the Board.

17. Board empowered to make rules.— (1) The Board may from time to time make rules prescribing—
