13. Resignation of Membership.— Any member or Vice-President of a Council may at any time resign his office by giving notice in writing to the President. The President may resign his office by giving notice in writing to the Council concerned. Such resignation shall take effect in the case of a member, or Vice-President from the date on which it is received by the President and in the case of the President from the date on which it is placed before the Council.

14. Validity of Proceedings.— (1) No disqualification or defect in the election or nomination of any person acting as a member of a Council or as President or Vice-President or presiding member of a meeting shall be deemed to invalidate any act or proceedings of such Council in which such person has taken part.

(2) No act done by a Council shall be deemed to be invalid on the ground merely of the existence of any vacancy in or any defect in the constitution of such Council.

15. Time and place of meeting of Council.— Each Council shall meet at such time and place and every meeting of the Council shall be summoned by such person and in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations:

Provided that until such regulations are made, it shall be lawful for the President to summon a meeting at such time and place as he may deem expedient by notice addressed to each member.

16. Presidency at meetings of Council and procedure thereto.— (1) Every meeting of a Council shall be presided over by the President, in his absence by the Vice-President and in the absence the President and the Vice-President, by a member chosen by the meeting to preside for the occasion.

(2) The President shall preserve order and shall decide all points of order at or in connection with meetings. After the explanation of the member on the point of order, the President can take the decision and the said decision shall be final.

(3) The Vice-President or the member presiding for the occasion shall, for that meeting and during the period in which he presides over it, have all the powers of the President.

(4) The matters which are to be decided by voting in a meeting of a Council shall be decided by the votes of the majority of the members present and voting at the meeting. Two third of the members will form a quorum. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting there is no quorum, the meeting may stand adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and place, unless a place, date and time are decided otherwise and if at the adjourned meeting there is no quorum within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall form a quorum.

(5) At every meeting of a Council, the President shall, in addition to his vote as a member of the Council, have a second or casting vote in case of votes being equal.

17. Payment of fee and allowances.— There shall be paid to the President, Vice-President and other members of each Council such fees and allowance for attendance in connection with the meetings of the Council or of any committee thereof and such travelling allowances as shall, from time to time, be prescribed by rules.

18. Executive Committee and other committees.— Each Council shall have power to appoint an Executive Committee, Ethics Committee and other Committees from among its members and to delegate to such committee such of the powers and duties vested in the Council as the Council may deem fit, other than those provided by sections 19, 20 and 21.

19. Registrar.— (1) The Government shall, appoint a Registrar common to all the Councils and he shall be the Secretary to such Councils and committees appointed under section 18. The Government may grant him leave and may appoint a person to act in his place.

(2) The appointment of Registrar shall be made from the post not below the rank of Additional Secretary from Law Department, on deputation basis.

20. Duties of Registrar.— (1) The Registrar shall be Chief Executive of the three Councils and also the Head of the office of the Council.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act and subject to any general or special order of the Council concerned, it shall be the duty of the Registrar to keep the registers.

(3) There shall be separate registers for Modern Medicine, Homoeopathic Medicine, Ayurvedic Medicine, Siddha Medicine, Unani Tibbi Medicine, Yoga and Naturopathy. The registers shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed by rules.

(4) The Registrar shall keep the registers up-to-date in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations made thereunder, and shall remove from the registers the names of registered practitioners who are dead or whose names are directed to be removed from the registers under sections 28, 29, 33 and 34.

(5) The registers shall be deemed to be public documents under section 74 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (Central Act 1 of 1872).

21. Appointment/Recruitment.— (1) A joint sitting of all the three Councils may appoint or employ such other officers and employees on prescribed by rules as it may deem necessary, for the purposes of this Act. The Registrar shall be the appointing authority of all office staff of the Councils and he shall also be the disciplinary authority:

Provided that the number and designations of such officers and employees and their salaries and allowances shall be subject to the previous approval of the Government.

(2) The method of recruitment and the conditions of service such as pay, allowances, promotions, leave, pension, gratuity and provident fund relating to the officers and employees appointed or employed under sub-section (1) shall be governed by the rules applicable to officers and employees of the Government of similar class/grade.

(3) All officers and employees appointed or employed under sub-section (1) shall be under the direct control and supervision of the Registrar. The powers of the Registrar to punish, dismiss, discharge and remove any such officer or employees shall be governed by such rules as may be prescribed by the Government in this behalf.

(4) All officers and employees appointed or employed under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (Act 45 of 1860).

22. Framing of regulations and procedure for amendment thereof.— (1) As soon as the first Council is formed, the Council of Modern Medicine, the Council of Indian Systems of Medicine and the Council of Homoeopathic Medicine shall make regulations consistent with this Act and rules made thereunder by notification with the previous approval of Government.

(2) Each Council is competent to delete, add to, modify or alter all or any of the regulations. A proposal for such deletion, addition, modification or alteration shall not be taken into consideration unless twenty five or more registered practitioners petition to such Council and demand the same. Such changes shall not be deemed to have been effected by such Council unless not less than three fourth of the members present at the meeting of such Council vote in favour of the same.

23. Default of Council.— (1) If at any time it is convinced to the Government that a Council has failed to exercise or has exceeded or abused any of the powers conferred on it by or under this Act or has failed to perform any of the duties imposed upon it by or under this Act, the Government may, if it considers such failure, excess or abuse to be of a serious character notify the particulars thereof to such Council, and if such Council fails to remedy such default, excess or abuse, within such time the Government may fix in this behalf, the Government may dissolve such Council and cause all or any of the powers and duties of such Council to be exercised and performed by such a person and for such period as it may think fit, and thereupon the funds and property of such Council shall vest in the Government for the purposes of this Act until a new Council have been constituted under section 3.

(2) When the Government have dissolved a Council under sub-section (1), it shall take steps as soon as may be to constitute a new Council under section 3 and thereupon the property and funds referred to in sub-section (1) shall vest in the Council so constituted.

(2) No person shall be eligible for registration under sub-section (1), if he is subject to any of the disqualifications mentioned in clauses (a) to (d) of section 11.

25. Registration.— (1) All applications for registration under section 24 shall be sent direct to the Registrar.

(2) Application for registration under this Act shall be in the prescribed form and accompanied by such fee as prescribed by rules.

(3) Every registered practitioner who applies to the Registrar for registration in respect of any additional recognized qualification obtained shall pay fee as fixed by the Council from time to time.

(4) The Registrar shall place all applications under this section before the committee of the Council concerned, appointed for the purpose, for its report.

(5) The report of the committee under sub-section (4) shall be placed before the Council concerned for its decision.

(6) If the Council concerned allows the registration of the applicant, the Registrar shall enter the name of the applicant in the register concerned and issue him a certificate in such form and containing such particulars as prescribed by rules.

(7) In the case of transfer of registration of a person whose name has been registered on the basis of the primary or additional recognized qualification, as the case may be, under any enactment for the registration of practitioners in Modern Medicine, Indian Systems of Medicine or Homoeopathic Medicine for the time being in force in any State in India, shall apply for such a registration in the prescribed form accompanied by such fee as fixed by Council from time to time and registration may be given subject to the scrutiny of documents and the certification from the State Councils concerned.

(8) Any practitioner not registered under this Act or to whom sub-section (7) does not apply but registered in any other State in India shall obtain the registration of the Council concerned for practicing as a medical practitioner for a specific period in the State on applying in such form and on payment of such fee as may be prescribed by rules.

(9) Every practitioner shall renew his registration in every ten years as prescribed by rules.

26. List of practitioners as on a date to be notified by the Government under this Act.— (1) The Registrar shall prepare and keep a list called “List of persons in practice” as on the date to be notified by the Government under this section.

(2) Every person registered as per the Travancore-Cochin Medical Practitioners Act, 1953 (Act IX of 1953) shall be deemed to be registered under this Act:

Provided however, that any person whose name has been removed from the registers maintained under the Travancore-Cochin Medical Practitioners Act, 1953 (Act IX of 1953) or the registers maintained under any Act of a State Legislature in India or of the register of any country where he was formerly practising, for professional misconduct, shall not be entitled to have his name entered in the list.

(3) The provisions of sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 20, section 27 and section 33 shall mutatis mutandis apply to the list referred to in sub-section (1).

27. Practitioners registered under the Travancore-Cochin Medical Practitioners Act, 1953.— (1) Every practitioner registered under the Travancore-Cochin Medical Practitioners Act, 1953 (Act IX of 1953) and all practitioners deemed to have been registered under that Act, shall be deemed to be a practitioner registered under this Act, if at the commencement of this Act, his name stands entered in the appropriate register maintained under the said Act and every Bachelor of Naturopathy and Yoga Science degree holders provisionally registered in this Council as per G.O.(P) No.361/2009/H&FWD dated 19th October, 2009 shall be deemed to be registered under this Act and every certificate of registration issued to every such practitioner shall be deemed to be a certificate of registration issued under this Act.

(2) The Registrar shall, as soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, enter in the appropriate registers the names of all such practitioners as are referred to in sub-section (1) on an application and without payment of any fee:

Provided that this section shall not be applicable in the case of renewal of registration.

28. Removal from registers by Council.— (1) The name of any person who becomes subject to any of the disqualifications mentioned in clauses (b) to (d) of section 11 shall after obtaining an explanation in writing and after affording an opportunity of being heard, be liable to be removed altogether or for a specific period from the register:

Provided that the Council concerned may, on sufficient cause being shown, direct that the name of the practitioners so removed shall be re-entered in the register:

Provided further that the Council can suspend the registration of a medical practitioner forthwith in case of his conviction by a competent criminal court for any criminal offence, unsoundness of mind, removal or dismissal from Government service or serious violation of medical ethics. An enquiry shall be started by the Council or through its Ethics Committee, soon after the suspension of registration and final decision of removal shall be based on the enquiry report.

(2) The name of a practitioner shall not be removed from the register on the ground of his association in any professional respect with an unregistered practitioner for consultation, if such unregistered practitioner is possessed of recognized qualification:

Provided that the registered practitioner shall not be relieved of any obligations or compliance of any rules of conduct which may be imposed upon registered practitioners generally by the Council concerned.

29. Removal from registers on application.— (1) Any practitioner registered under this Act may make an application to the Council concerned for the removal of his name from the register of practitioners and the Council may, on such application, direct such removal:

Provided that no application from such practitioner for the removal of his name from the register shall be considered during the pendency of any disciplinary proceedings against him or in cases where disciplinary proceedings are contemplated against him, until such proceedings are dropped or concluded:

Provided further that if any such application is made with a view to enable the applicant to pursue a course of conduct which would have brought him under the disciplinary jurisdiction of the Council concerned, had his name continued to remain on the register, it shall be rejected.

(2) A practitioner whose name has been removed from the register under sub-section (1) may, on application being made and on payment of such fees as may be prescribed by rules, get himself re-registered, if he is at that time eligible for registration under this Act.

30. Annual list of practitioners.— (1) The Registrar shall in every year on a date to be fixed by the appropriate Council, cause to be published in the website a full or supplementary list of the names and qualification of all practitioners registered under this Act and the dates on which such qualifications were acquired.

(2) The Registrar shall, from time to time, cause to be published in the website the names of such practitioners which have been duly removed under any of the provisions of this Act.

(3) In any proceeding it shall be presumed that every person whose name is entered in the list published under sub-section (1) is a registered practitioner and that any person whose name is not so entered is not a registered practitioner:

Provided that in the case of a person whose name has been entered in the register after the publication of the list, a certified copy signed by the Registrar of the entry of the name of such person in the register shall be the evidence that such person is registered under this Act.

31. Disabilities.— (1) No practitioner, other than a qualified registered practitioner who has not undergone a course of practical training in surgery or obstetrics under modern medicine to the satisfaction of the appropriate Council shall practise surgery or obstetrics.

(2) No registered practitioner shall follow any other profession without the sanction of the Council concerned so long as his name continues in the register concerned.

32. Privileges.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force,—

- (i) the words “legally qualified medical practitioner” or “duly qualified medical practitioner” or any word or words imparting a person recognized by law as a medical practitioner or a member of the medical profession when used in any enactment for the time being in force in the State shall be construed to mean a qualified registered practitioner;
- (ii) no certificate required by law to be given by a medical practitioner shall be valid unless it is signed by a practitioner registered in Part ‘A’ of the register as prescribed by rules;
- (iii) no person other than qualified registered practitioner shall be eligible to hold any appointment as hospital physician, surgeon, specialist, super specialist or other medical officer in any dispensary or any clinic, sanatorium, nursing home or other similar institutions.

(2) Any person who, not being eligible to hold any appointment referred to in clause (iii) of sub-section (1), holds any such appointment shall, on conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to rupees five lakh.

(3) Whoever, after having been convicted under sub-section (2), continues to hold any such appointment shall, on conviction be punished for each day after the previous date of conviction during which he continues to hold the appointment, with fine of rupees ten thousand for each day.

33. Appeal to the Council from the action of the Registrar.— (1) Any person aggrieved by the action of the Registrar regarding any entry in the register may appeal to the Council concerned within thirty days from the date of receipt of the intimation of the Registrar.

(2) Such appeal shall be heard and decided by the Council in the manner prescribed by regulations.

(3) The Council concerned may, of its own motion or on the application of any person, after such inquiries as the Council may deem fit to make and after giving an opportunity to the person concerned of being heard, cancel or alter such entry in the register, if in the opinion of the Council, such entry was fraudulently or incorrectly made.

(4) The Council or its members or authorized officer may suo moto or on a complaint visit and inspect such places referred under clause (iii) of sub-section (1) of section 32 and may report to the Council concerned.

34. Alteration of register by Government.- The Government may after, giving notice to the person concerned and to the Council concerned and after inquiry into his objections, if any, order that any entry in the register which shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Government to have been fraudulently or incorrectly made or brought about, be cancelled or amended.

35. Appeal to Government from the decision of the Council.- An appeal shall lie to the Government from every decision of a Council under sections 25, 28 and 33. Such appeal shall be preferred within three months from the date on which notice of the order of the Council was issued, in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by rules.

CHAPTER IV
