(2) On the making of such deposit, the Government shall be deemed to have been completely discharged in respect of all claims to, or enforceable against, the compensation aforesaid.

Claims to be made within six months. 37. (1) Every person who makes a claim to, or enforceable against, the compensation deposited under any of the provisions of this Act or any portion thereof, including the principal or any other landholder, members of his family claiming any portion of such compensation, whether by way of a share or by way of maintenance or otherwise, and creditors, whether their debts are secured or not, shall apply to the Tribunal within six months from the date on which the amount was deposited or within such further time not exceeding three months as the Tribunal may, in its discretion, allow.

38. The Tribunal shall, after giving notice to all persons who have applied under section 37 and to any others whom it considers to be interested, make inquiry into the validity of the claims received by it, and determine the persons who, in its opinion, are entitled to the compensation deposited and the amount to which each of them is entitled.

Duty of Tribunal.

39. (1) As a preliminary to such determination, the Tribunal shall apportion the compensation among the principal landholder and any other persons whose rights or interests in the inam estates stand transferred to the Government under clause (b) of section 3, or cease and determine under clause (c) of section 3, including persons who are entitled to be maintained from the inam estate and its income, as far as possible, in accordance with the value of their respective interests in the inam estate.

Compensation to be apportioned by

(2) The value of those interests shall be ascertained—

(a) in the case of the impartible inam estates referred to in section 40, in accordance with the provisions contained in that section and in such rules, not inconsistent with that section, as may be made by the Government in this behalf; and

(b) in the case of other inam estates, in accordance with such rules as may be made by the Government in this behalf.

40. (1) In the case of an impartible inam estate which had to be regarded as the property of a joint Hindu family for the purpose of ascertaining the succession thereto immediately before the notified date, the following provisions shall apply.

Apportionment in
of certain impartible
inam estates.

(2) The Tribunal shall determine the aggregate compensation payable to all the following persons, considered as a single group :—

(a) the principal landholder and his legitimate sons, grandsons and great-grandsons in the male line living or in the womb on the notified date, including sons, grandsons and great-grandsons adopted before such date (who are hereinafter called "sharers"); and

(b) other persons who, immediately before the notified date were entitled to maintenance out of the estate and its income either under section 9 or 12 of the ¹[Tamil Nadu] Impartible Estates Act, 1904 (¹[Tamil Nadu] Act 11 of 1904), or under any decree or order of a Court, award, or other instrument in writing or contract or family arrangement which is binding on the principal landholder (who are hereinafter called "maintenance-holders"):

Provided that no such maintenance-holder shall be entitled to any portion of the aggregate compensation aforesaid, if, before the notified date, his claim for maintenance or the claim of his branch of the family for maintenance, has been settled or discharged in full.

(3) The Tribunal shall next determine which creditors, if any, are lawfully entitled to have their debts paid from and out of the assets of the impartible inam estate and the amount to which each of them is so entitled; and only the remainder of the aggregate compensation shall be divisible among the sharers and maintenance-holders as hereinafter provided.

(4) The portion of the aggregate compensation aforesaid payable to the maintenance-holders shall be determined by the Tribunal and notwithstanding any arrangement already made in respect of maintenance whether by a decree or order of a Court, award or other instrument in writing or contract or family arrangement, such portion shall not exceed one-fifth of the remainder referred to in sub-section (3), except in the case referred to in the second proviso to sub-section (2) of section 42.

(5) (a) The Tribunal shall, in determining the amount of compensation payable to the maintenance-holders and apportioning the same among them, have regard, as far as possible, to the following considerations, namely:—

(i) the compensation payable in respect of the inam estate ;

(ii) the number of persons to be maintained out of that estate ;

(iii) the nearness of relationship of the person claiming to be maintained ;

¹ These words were substituted for the word "Madras" by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws Order, 1969, as amended by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws (Second Amendment) Order, 1969.

(iv) the other sources of income of the claimant; and

(v) the circumstances of the family of the claimant.

(b) For the purpose of securing—

(i) that the amount of compensation payable to the maintenance-holders does not exceed the limit specified in sub-section (4) ; and

(ii) that the same is apportioned among them on an equitable basis, the Tribunal shall have power, wherever necessary, to reopen any arrangement already made in respect of maintenance, whether by a decree or order of a Court, award, or other instrument in writing, or contract or family arrangement.

(6) The balance of the aggregate compensation shall be divided among the sharers, as if they owned such balance as a joint Hindu family and a partition thereof had been effected among them on the notified date.

41. After the compensation has been apportioned among the persons referred to in sub-section (1) of section 39, or where it is more convenient so to do pending such apportionment, the Tribunal shall take into consideration the applications of the creditors other than those dealt with in sub-section (3) of section 40, and decide the amount to which each such creditor is entitled and the person or persons out of whose share or shares of the compensation such amount should be paid.

42. (1) Every maintenance-holder entitled to a portion of the compensation under section 40 shall also be entitled to the grant of a ryotwari patta in respect of a portion of the lands referred to in section 9.

Grant or ryotwari patta to maintenance-holders in certain impartible inam estates.

(2) The Tribunal shall determine the total extent of the lands in respect of which ryotwari pattas may be granted to the maintenance-holders and divide the same among them and in doing so, the Tribunal shall, unless for reasons recorded in writing it considers that it is inappropriate to do so, have regard to the considerations set forth in sub-section (5) of section 40 and the manner in which the compensation payable to the maintenance-holders has been or may be apportioned among them under that sub-section :

Provided that the total extent of the lands granted to all such maintenance-holders shall not exceed one-fifth of the extent of the lands in respect of which ryotwari patta may be granted under section 9 :

Provided further that where it is found to be inconvenient or impracticable to grant any such lands, or to grant any such lands to the full extent to which the maintenance-holder may be regarded as entitled, whether on the ground that such a grant will result in the creation of an uneconomic holding or for any other reason, the share of the compensation awarded to the maintenance-holder may be increased by such amount as the Tribunal may consider reasonable.

(3) The lands in respect of which ryotwari patta may be granted under section 9, after excluding any lands which may be granted to maintenance-holders under sub-section (2), shall be divided among the sharers, as if they owned such lands, as a joint Hindu family and a partition thereof had been effected among them on the notified date.

Certain estates to be treated as impartible inam estates for purposes of compensation.

43. Where the power of the land-holder to alienate any property in an inam estate is restricted whether by the terms of the grant or otherwise, the provisions of this Act relating to the payment and apportionment of compensation in respect of impartible inam estates shall, so far as may be and subject to such rules as may be made by the Government in this behalf, apply to the payment and apportionment of the compensation payable in respect of the inam estate.

Devolution of interest in compensation.

44. Where it is alleged that the interest of any person entitled to receive payment of any portion of the compensation has devolved on any other person or persons, whether by act of parties or by operation of law, the Tribunal shall determine whether there has been any devolution of the interest, and if so, on whom it has devolved.

CHAPTER VII.

INTERIM PAYMENTS.

45. (1) The provisions of this section shall apply in every case not governed by section 32. Interim payments to principal landholder and others.

(2) After the notified date and until the compensation is finally determined and deposited in pursuance of this Act, interim payments shall be made by the Government every fasli year prior to the fasli year in which the said deposit is made, to the principal landholder and to the other persons referred to in sub-section (1) of section 39 as follows :—

(3) In respect of the fasli year in which the inam estate is notified they shall together be entitled to such amount as the Government may, on a rough calculation, determine to be the basic annual sum referred to in section 24 :

Provided that the rents, if any, collected before the notified date by the landholder from the ryots in respect of the fasli year aforesaid ¹[and in the case of an existing inam estate in respect of which the rate of rent has been determined before the notified date under the ²[Tamil Nadu] Estates Land (Reduction of Rent) Act, 1947 (²[Tamil Nadu] Act XXX of 1947)], also any amount collected by him from the ryots in excess of the rent so determined], and outstanding to the credit of the ryots on the first day of that fasli year, shall be deducted.

² These words were substituted for the word "Madras" by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws Order, 1969, as amended by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws (Second Amendment) Order, 1969.

(4) In respect of each subsequent fasli year, they shall together be entitled to the amount estimated under sub-section (3) to be the basic annual sum, unless data for the better calculation thereof have since become available, in which case the amount to be paid shall be revised by the Government with reference to such data :

Provided that if, for any reason, the whole or any portion of the rents and excess collections referred to in the proviso to sub-section (3) was not deducted in pursuance of that proviso, the amount remaining undeducted shall be deducted from the amount payable under this sub-section.

(5) The Government shall deposit all such amounts in the office of the Tribunal and the Tribunal shall, after such inquiry, if any, as it thinks fit, apportion the amounts among the principal landholder and the other persons referred to in sub-section (2), as far as possible in accordance with the value of their respective interests.

¹ This explanation was substituted for the following explanation by section 5 (ii) of the Tamil Nadu Inam Estates (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Amendment Act, 1966 (Tamil Nadu Act 27 of 1966), which was deemed to have come into force on the 1st January 1964 :—

“Explanation.—Any amount collected by the Government on behalf of the landholder as rent from the ryots in excess of the rent determined under the Madras Estates Land (Reduction of Rent) Act, 1947 (Madras Act XXX of 1947) and paid to the landholder shall, for the purposes of this sub-section, be deemed to be an amount collected by the landholder.”

² These words were substituted for the word “Madras” by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws Order, 1969, as amended by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws (Second Amendment) Order, 1969.

(6) On the making of such a deposit, the Government shall be deemed to have been completely discharged in respect of all claims to, or enforceable against, the amount so deposited.

(7) (a) After the compensation has been finally determined, the Government shall ascertain the aggregate interim payment which would have been due in respect of the inam estate under sub-sections (3) and (4) for the fasli years concerned if the basic annual sum as finally determined had been adopted instead of the basic annual sum as roughly estimated.

(b) If the aggregate interim payment thus determined exceeds the aggregate amounts already deposited under sub-section (5) the balance with interest thereon at three per cent per annum shall be deposited by the Government in the office of the Tribunal.

(c) If the aggregate interim payment determined under clause (a) is less than the aggregate amount already deposited under sub-section (5), the excess amount deposited shall be deducted by the Government from the amount of compensation finally determined and the balance shall be deposited in the office of the Tribunal.

(8) No interim payment made under this section shall be deemed to constitute any part of the compensation which the Government are liable to deposit under sub-section (1) of section 36 or to any extent to be in lieu of such compensation.

(9) The Tribunal shall revise the apportionment of the interim payments with reference to the aggregate interim payments as finally determined by the Government under sub-section (7) on the basis that each of the persons entitled to receive any portion of the interim payments shall be entitled separately to the same share of the said aggregate interim payments as the share of the compensation to which he is finally held to be entitled under section 39. Any excess payment disclosed by such revision shall be deducted by the Tribunal, with interest thereon at three per cent per annum from the compensation payable to the person concerned.

CHAPTER VIII.

APPEALS.

Appeals.

46. (1) Against any decision of the Tribunal under sub-section (2) of section 12, and sections 38 to 45, the Government may within six months from the date of the decision and any person aggrieved by such decision may within three months from the date of such decision appeal to a Special Appellate Tribunal consisting of two Judges of the High Court nominated from time to time by the Chief Justice in that behalf :

Provided that the Special Appellate Tribunal may, in its discretion, allow further time not exceeding three months for the filing of such appeal.

(2) The members of the Special Appellate Tribunal shall hear the appeal on all points, whether of law or of fact. Where on any such point or points the members are divided in their opinion, they shall state the point or points on which they are so divided and such point or points together with their opinions thereon, shall then be laid before one or more Judges nominated for the purpose by the Chief Justice and such Judge or Judges shall hear the appeal in so far as it relates to such point or points, and on each such point, the decision of the majority of the Judges who have heard the appeal including those who first heard it shall be deemed to be the decision of the Special Appellate Tribunal.

(3) ¹[The Special Appellate Tribunal shall, subject to the provisions of section 72-A] have the same powers as are vested in a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), when trying a suit or when hearing an appeal.

(4) The decision of the Special Appellate Tribunal and subject to such decision, the decision of the Tribunal shall be final.

(5) Every decision of the Special Appellate Tribunal and subject to such decision, every decision of the Tribunal shall be binding on all persons claiming an interest in any inam estate notwithstanding that any such person has not preferred any application or filed any statement or adduced any evidence or appeared or participated in any proceeding before the Tribunal or the Special Appellate Tribunal, as the case may be.

47. (1) In cases of apportionment of the compensation among the persons referred to in section 39 and of the apportionment of the interim payments among the persons referred to in section 45, the jurisdiction of the Tribunal and the Special Appellate Tribunal shall be limited to the apportionment as such and neither the Tribunal nor the Special Appellate Tribunal shall have jurisdiction to go into the question of the correctness of the determination or the adequacy of the compensation or of the interim payments, as the case may be.

Restriction on the jurisdiction of the Tribunal and Special Appellate Tribunal in certain cases.

(2) In cases falling under section 42, the jurisdiction of the Tribunal, and in cases of appeal from the order under section 12, the jurisdiction of the Special Appellate Tribunal, shall be limited to the division of the lands in respect of which ryotwari patta may be granted under section 9 and neither the Tribunal nor the Special Appellate Tribunal shall have jurisdiction to go into the question of the correctness of the order under section 12.

Explanation.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the jurisdiction of the Tribunal when hearing an appeal under sub-section (2) of section 12 or of the Special Appellate Tribunal when hearing an appeal under sub-section (1) of section 46 from the decision of the Tribunal under sub-section (2) of section 12.

SCHEDULE II.

Provisions relating to the determination of fair rent.

1. For topes, orchards and lands used for non-agricultural purposes, the fair rent shall be the lease amount as determined by rules made by the Government in this behalf.

2. In respect of lands, other than those specified in paragraph 1, the fair rent shall be the aggregate of—

(a) (i) in the case of wet land, 40 per cent of the normal gross produce or its value in money ;

(ii) in the case of wet land, the irrigation of which is supplemented by lifting water, 35 per cent of the normal gross produce or its value in money ;

(iii) in the case of land on which crops which do not give any yield within a period of one year from the time of cultivation are cultivated, 40 per cent of the normal gross produce or its value in money ;

(iv) in the case of any other class of land, 33½ per cent of the normal gross produce or its value in money :

Provided that in the case of lands referred to in sub-paragraphs (ii) and (iv) for the cultivation of which water is lifted by pumpset installed at the cost of the service-holder, the fair rent shall be increased to 40 per cent ; and

(b) the value of one-fifth of the straw or stalk of all the crops cultivated on the land in an agricultural year.

Explanation I.—In this paragraph, ‘normal gross produce’—

(a) in respect of a land cultivated with any crop which does not give any yield within a period of one year from the time of cultivation, means the gross produce for one year if the land were cultivated with paddy ;

(b) in respect of a land cultivated with any other crop means the produce which would be obtained for one year from a land of the same class as the land in question similarly situated and possessing similar advantages if the rainfall and the seasons were normal.

Explanation II.—In the case of land on which different crops are cultivated at different times on different portions of the lands, the rent shall be calculated with reference to the actual crops similarly cultivated according to the ordinary rotation of crops in the area in which such land is situated.

Explanation III.—In this paragraph, “agricultural year” means the year commencing on the 1st day of April, or, in respect of the whole or any part of any district, on such other date as the Governor of the district may specify in that behalf, by notification, in the District Gazette.

3. In the case of land cultivated by the service-holder, the fair rent shall be the fair rent as calculated in the manner provided in paragraph 2 in respect of a land of the same class as the land in question, similarly situated and possessing similar advantages.

4. If the rent actually payable to the service-holder in respect of land during the fasli year immediately before the fasli year in which the appointed day falls is less than the fair rent ascertained as aforesaid, the said rent shall be deemed to be the fair rent in respect of the land.
