The University shall strive to fulfill the above objects by a diversity of means of distance and continuing, education, and shall function in co-operation with the existing Universities and Institutions of higher learning and make full use of the latest scientific knowledge and new educational technology to offer a high quality of education which matches contemporary needs.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Although numerous degree colleges and Universities are imparting higher education, yet a large number of students every year are deprived of institutional higher education, in the State. The reason is that the number of students desiring institutional higher education is larger than the capacity of the various institutions. The students deprived of getting institutional higher education though get facilities to fill in examination forms and appear at examinations as private candidates but they do not get any other cooperation from the said institutions. In order, therefore, to provide all the students desirous of institutional higher education with the facility of getting institutional higher education it was decided to establish an Open University by the name of the Uttar Pradesh Rajarshi Tandon Open University in the State on the pattern of the Indira Gandhi National Open University of the Central Government.

Since the State Legislature was not in session and immediate legislative action to implement the aforesaid decision was necessary the Uttar Pradesh Rajarshi Tandon Open University Ordinance, 1998 (U.P. Ordinance No. 18 of 1998) was promulgated by the Governor on November 2, 1998.

This Bill is introduced accordingly to replace the aforesaid Ordinance.
