Functions of the Committee

5. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Committee shall exercise powers and perform the functions as mentioned below:-

- a) to prepare the draft district development plan keeping in view the matters of common interest between urban and rural population including spatial planning sharing of water and other physical and natural resources, the integrated development of infrastructure and environment conservation, the plans prepared at the grass-root level by the concerned Panchayat and the extent and type of available resources whether financial or otherwise;
- b) to prepare priority-wise list of schemes and programmes taking into account the resources available with the Committee and the resources provided by the State Government.
- c) to take appropriate measures for proper implementation of the development schemes, programmes and projects;
- d) to monitor the progress of projects;
- e) to encourage the Panchayats and the Municipalities to take up and expedite the implementation of development projects;
- f) to make efforts to generate additional resources for development works with the cooperation of people; Non-Government Organizations and Non-Resident Indians and other agencies; and
- g) to perform such other additional functions relating to District Planning and Coordination and monitoring of the activities of different departments of the State Government, as may be assigned to the Committee by the State Government.

(2) While preparing the draft development plan, the Committee may consult such institutions and organisations, as may be specified by the State Government from time to time.

(3) The Chairperson shall forward the district development plans prepared by the Committee under clause (a) of sub-section (1) to the State Government.

Abolition of DP & DB.

6. With effect from the date, the Committees are constituted under this Act, the existing District Planning and Development Boards in the State shall cease to function.

Meetings

7. (1) In the transaction of its business, the Committee shall follow such procedure, as may be prescribed.

(2) If on account of any reason, the Chairperson is unable to attend the meeting of the Committee, any other member, chosen by the present members, shall preside over the meeting.

(3) The meeting of the Committee shall be held at the District Head Quarters or at such place, as may be decided by the Committee.

Removal and suspension of members including Chairperson

- 8. The State Government may remove the Chairperson or any member from his office, if:-
- a) he has been adjudged insolvent; or
 - b) he has been convicted of an offence which, in the opinion of the State Government, involves moral turpitude; or
 - c) he has become physically or mentally incapable; or
 - d) he has acquired such financial or other interest, as is likely to affect prejudicially his functions in any of the said capacities; or
 - e) he has so abused his position as to render his continuance in office prejudicial to the public interest.
- (2) Before removing any member including the Chairperson from his office, a reasonable opportunity of being heard shall be given to him by the State Government.

Filling of vacancies

- 9. If any vacancy occurs, it shall be filled up from the same source from which it has occurred.

Power to issue directions

- 10. The State Government may, from time to time, issue such directions to the Committees, as it may consider appropriate in public interest.

Power to make rules

- 11. (1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.
- (2) Every rule made under this Act, shall be laid, as soon as may be, after it is made, before the House of the State Legislature, while it is in session, for a total period of ten days, which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the successive sessions as aforesaid, the House agrees in making any modification in the rule or the house agrees, that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done or omitted to be done under that rule.

remove difficulties

12. (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of this Act, the State Government may, by an order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, as may appear to it to be necessary for removing the difficulty.

Provided that no such order shall be made under this section after the expiry of a period of two years from the date of the commencement of this act.

(2) Every order made under this section, shall be laid, as soon as may be, after it is made, before the Punjab Legislative Assembly.
