CHAPTER II.

CONSTITUTION OF DISTRICT AND MUNICIPAL SCHOOL BOARDS.

3. (1) For each district there shall be a district school board.
- (2) For each area of an authorized municipality there shall be a municipal school board.
4. (1) Each school board shall consist of members not less than twelve and not more than sixteen in number.
- (2) Of these members not less than two and not more than three in number shall be appointed by the ¹³[State] Government.
- (3) The number of members under sub-sections (1) and (2) shall be determined by the ¹³[State] Government from time to time.
- (4) Of the members appointed by the ¹³[State] Government under sub-section (2) one shall be an Officer of the ¹³[State] Government, and the remaining shall be persons (i) who shall have passed the matriculation examination or shall possess any other equivalent or higher educational qualification which the ¹³[State] Government may specify in this behalf or (ii) who have had experience of the system or institution of primary education.
- (5) (a) The members other than those appointed by the ¹³[State] Government shall be elected by the district local board or the authorized municipality as the case may be ;
- School Boards.
- Constitution of school boards.

Provided that where approved schools within the area of any non-authorized municipalities are controlled by the district school board or the authorized municipality, not more than two of such members as may be determined by the ¹⁷[State] Government from time to time shall be elected in the manner prescribed by the said non-authorised municipalities, or the district school board or municipal school board, as the case may be.

(b) Members elected under this sub-section shall not necessarily be members of the electing local authority.

¹⁸[(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in this sub-section, in the case of a district local board or a authorised municipality the term of office of the members or councillors of which expires on or before the 31st day of July, 1949, the election of the members of the school board shall not be held by such district local board or authorized municipality, as the case may be, until, after the new district local board or the authorized municipality, has been constituted.]

¹⁹[(6) Of the members elected by the district local board or by the authorized municipality such member not exceeding two as may be prescribed shall be from amongst the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes.]

(7) Members elected under sub-section (5) shall have passed the primary school certificate examination or shall possess such other equivalent or higher educational qualification as may be prescribed :

Provided that persons from amongst ²⁰[the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes] shall be eligible for being elected as members, if they shall have passed atleast the primary fourth standard examination :

Provided further that out of the seats of the members to be elected by the district local board or the authorised municipality not less than three shall be reserved in the prescribed manner for persons ²¹[who have passed the matriculation or the second year training certificate examination or who possess any other equivalent or higher educational qualification which the ¹⁷[State] Government may specify in this behalf;

²²[Explanation, -For the purposes of sub-sections (6) and (7), "Scheduled Castes" and "Scheduled Tribes" means those Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes which are deemed to be Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in relation to the ²³[State of Gujarat] under article 341 or 342, as the caes may be, of the Constitution.]

(8) If the ²⁴[State] Government is satisfied that any election (including a bye-election) cannot for any reason be held at all or cannot be completed within such period as the ²⁴[State] Government considers reasonable or has not resulted in the return of the required number of qualified persons willing to take office, the ²⁴[State] Government shall nominate from amongst persons who would have been qualified to be elected the required number of persons as members of the school board and the persons so nominated shall be deemed 'to have been duly elected under sub-section (5):

²⁵[Provided that if at any time after the nomination of such persons as members of the school board, the State Government is satisfied that fresh eleation, (including a by-election) can be duly held, the State Government may, by notification published in the Official Gazette, direct that the members so nominated shall cease to hold office with effect from such date as may be specified in such notification, notwithstanding the fact that the term of office of such members for which they had been nominated has not expired.]

(9) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the term of office of the members of a school board shall cease on the expiry of the term of the electing district local board or authorised municipality;

Provided that the term of office of such members shall not be deemed to expire by reason only of the fact that the district local board or authorized municipality, as the case may be, is dissolved or superseded.

(10) (a) If the term of office of the members of a school board expire during the supersession of the electing district local board or authorised municipality a new school board shall be constituted as provided in sub-section (1) to (7) until the district local board or authorized municipality, as the case may be, is re-established, provided that the member of such school board shall be nominated by the ²⁴[State] Government.

(b) The term of office of the members of the school board so nominated shall be for such period not exceeding three years as the ²⁴[State] Government may determine:

Provided that if during such period the district local board or authorised municipality, as the case may be, is re-established, the term of office of the members of the school board shall expire on the date on which a new school board is constituted.

(11) Notwithstanding ²⁶[the cessation or expiry of the term of office of the members] of any school board under sub-section ²⁷[(8), (9)] or (10) they shall continue in office until the members of a new school board are elected, appointed or nominated, as the case may be.

(12) (a) Any member of a school board other than the chairman or vicechairman may resign his office by giving notice in writing to that effect to the chairman and such, resignation shall take effect from the date of its receipt by the chairman.

(b) The vice-chairman may resign his office as vice-chairman or member by giving notice in writing to that effect to the chairman. The chairman may resign his office as chairman or member by giving notice in writing to that effect to the president of the district local board or the authorized municipality, as the case may be. Such resignation shall take effect from the date of their acceptance by the chairman or the president.

(13) Casual vacancies including that of a chairman or vice-chairman during the term of a school board shall be filled for the remaining period by election, appointment or nomination, as the case may be:

²⁸[Provided that no election shall be held to fill up a vacancy of a member occurring within four months of the date on which the term of office of the members of the school board expires.]

²⁹[(14) During any vacancy the continuing members may act as if no vacancy had occurred.]

³⁰[(15) When any area is added to the limits of a district during the term of office of the electing district local board of the district, the ³¹[State] Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in the preceding sub-sections, direct that the school board constituted for the district may consist of 'such number of members exceeding sixteen, and may appoint such persons to be the additional members of the school board to represent the area added to the limits of the district, as it thinks fit.]

5. No person shall be elected, appointed or nominated a member of a school board who—

Disqualifications of members.

³²[(a) is not a citizen of India, or has voluntarily acquired the citizenship of a foreign State or is under any acknowledgement of allegiance or adherence to a foreign State, or]

³³[(aa)] is less than 26 years of age, or

(b) is a judge of civil court or ³⁴[a salaried magistrate], or

(c) (i) has been sentenced by a criminal court to fine, imprisonment or whipping for an offence involving moral turpitude and punishable with imprisonment for a term exceeding six months or to transportation, such sentence not having been subsequently reversed or quashed, or

(ii) is a person against whom an order has been passed under section 118 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, in proceedings instituted under section 110 of the said Code, such order not having subsequently been reversed or quashed, or

(iii) has been removed from office under this Act and five years have not elapsed from the date of such removal, unless he has, by an order of the ³²[State] Government notified in the Official Gazette, been relieved from the disqualification arising on account of such sentence, order or removal from office, or

(d) is a stipendiary officer or an employee of any school board, or district local board or municipality, or
Bom. VII of 1925.

(e) who has been adjudged an insolvent and has not obtained his discharge, or

(f) has, directly or indirectly, by himself or his partner, any share or interest in any work done by order of, or in any contract entered into on behalf of the school board or the electing local authority, or

(g) is an employee or a teacher in any approved school, or

(h) has resided within the district for a period of less than six months preceding the date fixed for recording of votes for elections to the school board, or

(i) has been adjudged by a competent court to be of unsound mind.
Explanation—A person shall not be deemed to have incurred disqualification under clause (f) by reason of his—

(a) having any share or interest in any lease, sale or purchase of any immovable property or in an agreement for the same if before taking his seat as a member of the school board, he has obtained the sanction of the ³⁵[State] Government to have such share or interest, or

(d) having a share or interest in any joint stock company or in any society registered or deemed to be registered under the Bombay Co-operative Societies Act, 1925, which may contract with or be employed by or on behalf of the school board or the electing local authority, or

(c) having a share or interest in any newspaper in which any advertisement relating to the affairs of the school board or the electing local authority may be inserted, or

(d) holding a debenture or being otherwise interested in any loan raised by or on behalf of the school board of the electing local authority, or

(e) having a share or interest in the occasional sale to the school board or electing local authority of any article in which he regularly trades, or in the purchase from the school board or the electing local authority of any article, to a value in either case not exceeding in any official year five hundred rupees, or such higher amount not exceeding two thousand rupees as the school board or the electing local authority with the sanction of the ³⁵[State] Government may fix in this behalf, or

(f) having a share or interest in the occasional letting out on hire to the school board or the electing local authority or in the hiring from the school board or the electing local authority of any article for an amount not exceeding in any official year fifty rupees, or such higher amount not exceeding two hundred rupees as the school board or the electing local authority with the sanction of ³⁵[State] Government may fix in this behalf, or

(g) being a police patel who is an ex-officio keeper of village cattle pounds under the control of the electing local authority.

Determination of validity of elections; enquiry
by Judge:
procedure.

6. (1) If the validity of the election of a member of a school board is brought in question by an unsuccessful candidate or by any person qualified to vote at the election, such person may, at any time within fifteen days after the date of the declaration of the result of the election, apply to the District Judge of the district within which the election has been or should have been held for the determination of such question.

(2) An enquiry shall thereupon be held by a Judge not below the grade of an Assistant Judge and such Judge may, after such enquiry as he deems necessary, pass an order confirming or amending the declared result of the election or setting the election aside. For the purposes of the said enquiry, the said Judge may exercise any of the powers of a civil court, and his decision shall be conclusive. If he sets aside an election, a date shall forthwith be fixed, and necessary steps taken for holding a fresh election.

(3) All applications received under sub-section (1)— .

(a) in which the validity or the election of members is in question shall as far as possible, be heard by the same Judge, and

(b) in which the validity of the election of the same member is in question shall be heard together.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Civil Procedure 1908, the Judge shall not allow

(a) any application to be compromised or withdrawn, or

(b) any pleadings in the proceedings to be altered or amended, unless he is satisfied that such application, alteration or amendment is bonafide and not conclusive.

(5) (a) If on holding such enquiry the Judge finds that a candidate has for the purpose of the election committed a corrupt practice within the meaning of sub-section (6), he shall declare the candidate disqualified both for the purpose of that election and of such fresh election as may be held under sub-section (2), and shall set aside the election of such candidate if he has been elected.

(b) If, in any case to which clause (a) does not apply, the validity of an election is in dispute between two or more candidates, the Judge shall after a scrutiny and computation of the votes recorded in favour of each such candidates, declare the candidate who is found to have the greatest number of valid votes in his favour to have been duly elected:

Provided that for the purpose of such computation no vote shall be reckoned as valid if the Judge finds that any corrupt practice was committed by any person, known or unknown, in giving or obtaining it.

(6) A person shall be deemed to have committed a corrupt practice—

(a) who, with a view to inducing any voter to give or refrain from giving a vote in favour of any candidate, offers or gives any money or valuable consideration, or holds out any promise of individual profit or holds out any threat of injury to any person; or

(b) who gives, procures or abets the giving of a vote in the name of a voter who is not the person giving such vote;

and a corrupt practice shall be deemed to have been committed by a candidate, if it has been committed with his knowledge and consent, or by a person who is acting under the general or special authority of such candidate with reference to the election.

Explanation.—The expression "a promise of individual profit"

(i) does not include a promise to vote for or against any particular measure which may come before a school board for consideration, but

(ii) subject thereto, includes a promise for the benefit of the person himself or any person in whom he is interested.

(7) If the validity of the election is brought in question only on the ground of an irregularity or informality which has not materially affected the result of the election or which has not been corruptly caused, the Judge shall not set aside the election.

(8) If the Judge sets aside an election under clause (a) of sub-section (5) he may, if he thinks fit, declare any person by whom any corrupt practice has been committed within the meaning of sub-section (6) to be disqualified from being a member of any school board for a term of years not exceeding five and the decision of the Judge shall be conclusive :

Provided that no such declaration shall be made in respect of any person without such person being given an opportunity to show cause why such declaration should not be made :

Provided further that such person may by an order of the ³⁶[State] Government in that behalf be at any time relieved from such disqualification.

³⁷[6A. (1) If it appears to the State Government on representation being made to it that a member of a school board was disqualified for being such member under the provisions of section 5 or section 9-A at the time when such member was elected, appointed or nominated and the member does not admit that he was so disqualified, the question shall be decided by the State Government and its decision shall be final.

(2) No such representation shall be entertained,-

(i) if it is made by a person who is or was entitled to file an application to the District Judge under section 6 to question the validity of the election of the member,

(ii) if it is made before the expiration of the period prescribed for such application under the said Section, or

(iii) if an application to the District Judge under section 6 is pending or has been tried, unless the State Government is satisfied that the question of the member's disqualification by reason of these circumstances was not or could not have been raised in such proceedings.

(3) Where in relation to proceedings under sub-section (1) the member admits that he was disqualified under the provisions of section 5 or section 9-A or where under the aforesaid sub-section the State Government decides that the member was disqualified, his seat shall thereupon become vacant; but no person who does not admit that he was disqualified, shall be held to be disqualified unless such decision has been arrived at after giving such person reasonable opportunity to show cause.]

7. (1) If any member of a school board, during the term for which he has been elected, appointed or nominated—

³⁸[(a) absents himself from the meetings during the three successive months or from three consecutive meetings of the school board whichever period is longer, without the ³⁹[*] permission of the Board, or]

(b) becomes subject to any of the disqualifications mentioned in ⁴⁰[section 5] he shall be disabled from continuing to be a member of such board and his seat shall be deemed to be vacant:

Provided that he shall not be deemed to have incurred any disqualification under clause (f) of section 5 by reason of his having any share or interest in any lease, sale or purchase of any immovable property or in any agreement for the same, if he has obtained the previous sanction of the ⁵[State] Government to have such share or interest.

(2) If any question, dispute or doubt arises whether a vacancy has occurred under this section, the orders of the ⁴¹[State] Government shall be final for the purpose of deciding such question, dispute or doubt.

Disqualification at time of election, etc., discovered subsequently.

Disqualification after becoming member.

⁴²[7A. (1) If any person sit or votes as a member of a school board when he knows that he is not qualified or that he is disqualified for membership thereof, he shall upon it being so found by the Collector be liable in respect of each day on which he so sits or votes to a penalty of 50 rupees to be recovered as an arrear of land revenue. (2) The Collector shall give such person a reasonable opportunity of being heard and shall record his decision, and the reasons therefor, in writing. (3) Any person found liable to pay a penalty under this section, may within fifteen days of such decision appeal to the State Government and the decision of the State Government shall be final.]	Penalty for sitting or voting when disqualified.
8. A member shall not Vote or take part in a discussion on any matter before a Meeting of school board in which he has directly or indirectly, by himself or his partner, any share or interest such as is described in clause (f) of section 5 or in which he is professionally interested on behalf of a client, principal or other person. The vote so given shall not be counted.	Disabilities on account of interest in subject matter.
9. The ⁴¹[State] Government may on its own motion or on the recommendation supported by a resolution passed by atleast two-thirds of the whole number of members of— (i) a school board, or (ii) the district local board or the authorised municipality which elected the members, remove any member elected, appointed or nominated on the school board, if such member has been guilty of misconduct in, the discharge of his duties or of any disgraceful conduct or has become incapable of performing his duties as a member by reason of any physical or mental infirmity: Provided that no person shall be so removed nor shall any resolution recommending the removal of any member be passed unless the member to whom it relates has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause why he should not be so removed or why such recommendation should not be made.	Removal of members of school board for misconduct.
⁴³[9A. Transitory and special provision, in respect of Banaskantha District School Board, on account of re-organisation of States.

67. (1) With effect from such date as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette appoint, the District School Board of Banaskantha shall notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, stand reconstituted and shall be deemed to be the District School Board for the District of Banaskantha as formed on the 1st day of November 1956 by the State Re-organisation Act, 1956, and shall consist of such number of members as may be nominated by the State Government in this behalf.

XXXVII of 1966.

(2) The members to be nominated shall, as far may be, be persons who were the members of the Banaskantha School Board and who represented the areas included in the said district excluding the Abu-Road taluka, before such reconstitution.

(3) The members of the school board so reconstituted shall hold office for such period, as the State Government may by notification in the Official Gazette specify, but not exceeding one year from the date of such reconstitution.

(4) The chairman and Vice-Chairman of the school board reconstituted as aforesaid shall be elected in the manner provided in this Act.

(a) When the period of office of the members of the school board under sub-section (3) is due to expire, the school board of the district shall be constituted in the manner provided in section 4 and other relevant provisions of this Act.

(b) Notwithstanding the expiry of the period of office of such members, they shall continue in office until the members of the new school board are elected, appointed or nominated, as the case may be.

(6) Upon the reconstitution of the school board under this section, or as soon as may be thereafter, the State Government after consulting the Government of Rajasthan, may by order provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the transfer, in whole or in part, of the assets, rights and liabilities (including any rights and liabilities under contract) of the former school board of Banaskantha to the reconstituted school board of Banaskantha and the terms and conditions (if any) of such transfer ;

(b) the transfer or re-employment of any of the employees of the former school board to or by the reconstituted school board of Banaskantha;

(c) such incidental, consequential and supplementary matters as may be necessary to give effect to such appointment and transfer.

(7) Where an order is made under this section transferring the assets, rights or liabilities of the former school board, then by virtue of that order such assets, rights and liabilities of such board shall vest in and be the assets, rights and liabilities of the reconstituted school board.]
