CHAPTER VI.
MANAGEMENT OF ESTATES HELD BY LANDHOLDERS.

Power to assume management of landholder's estate.

35. Notwithstanding any law for the time being in force, usage or custom or the terms of contract or grant, when the Government is satisfied that on account of the neglect of a landholder or disputes between him or his tenants the cultivation of his estate has seriously suffered, or when it appears to the Government that it is necessary for <sup>9</sup>[.....] ensuring the full and efficient use of the land for agriculture to assume management of any landholder's estate, a notification announcing such intention shall be published in the Official Gazette and the Collector shall cause notice of the substance of such notification to be given at convenient place in the locality where the estate is situated. Such notification shall be conclusive.

Vesting estate in management.

36. On the publication of the notification under section 35, the estate in respect of which the notification has been published shall, so long as the management continues, vest in the Government. Such management shall be deemed to commence from the date on which notification is published and the Government shall appoint a manager to be in charge of such estates.

management.

37. On the publication of the notification under section 35, the following consequences shall ensue:—

(1) All proceedings then pending in any civil court in respect of the debts and liabilities enforceable against the estate shall be stayed : and the operation of all processes, executions and attachments then in force for or in respect of such debts and liabilities shall be suspended.

(2) So long as the management continues no fresh proceedings, processes, executions or attachments shall be instituted in or issued, enforced or executed by any civil court in respect of such debts and liabilities.

(3) So long as the management continues the holder of the estate shall be incompetent :—

(a) to enter any contract involving the estate in pecuniary liability;

(b) to mortgage, charge, lease, or alienate the property under management or any part thereof; or

(c) to grant valid receipts for the rents and profits arising or accruing therefrom:

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to preclude the manager from letting and the holder from taking the whole or any part of such estate on such terms consistent with this Ordinance as may be agreed upon between the parties.

(4) So long as the management continues, no person other than the manager shall be competent to mortgage, charge, lease or alienate such estate or any part thereof.

38. (1) The manager shall, during the management of the estate, have all the powers which the holder thereof might as such have exercised and shall receive and recover all rents and profits due in respect of the property under management. Manager's powers.

(2) For the purpose of recovering such rents and profits the manager shall have, in addition to any powers possessed by the Collector under the law for the time being in force for securing and recovering land revenue due to Government.

39. (1) From the sums received or recovered under section 38, the manager shall pay: Manager to pay costs of management, etc.

(i) the costs of management including the costs of necessary repairs;

(ii) the Government revenue and all debts and liabilities for the time being due or incurred to the Government in respect of the property under management;

(iii) the rent, if any, due to any superior holder in respect of the said estate;

(iv) such periodical allowances as the Collector may from time to time fix for the maintenance and other expenses of the holder and of such members of his family as the Collector directs;

(v) the cost of such improvements of the said estate as he thinks necessary and as approved by the Collector.

(2) The residue shall be retained by the manager for the liquidation, in the manner hereinafter provided, of the debts and liabilities other than those mentioned in sub-section (1) and also for the repayment either before or after the liquidation of such debts and liabilities, of any loan received from Government by the manager under this Ordinance. The balance, if any, shall be paid to the holder.

40. On the publication of the order of management, the manager shall publish in the Official Gazette a notice calling upon all persons having claims against the estate under management to notify the same in writing to such manager within two months from the date of the publication. He shall also cause copies of such notice to be exhibited at such several places as he thinks fit. Notice to claimants.

41. (1) Every such claimant shall, along with his claim, present full particulars thereof. Claim to contain full particulars.

(2) Every document on which the claimant founds his claim or on which he relies in support thereof, shall be delivered to the manager along with the claim.

(3) If the document be an entry in any book, the claimant shall produce the book to the manager, together with a copy of the entry on which he relies. The manager shall mark the book for the purpose of identification and, after examining and comparing the copy with the original, shall return the book to the claimant.

(4) If any document in possession or under the control of the claimant is not delivered or produced by him before the manager along with the claim, the manager may refuse to receive such document in evidence on claimant's behalf at the investigation of the case.

42. Every such claim other than the claim of the Government not informed to the manager within the time and in the manner required by such notice shall, except as provided herein, be deemed for all purposes and on all occasions, whether during the continuance of the management or afterwards, to have been duly discharged :

Claim not duly notified. to be barred.

Provided that when proof is made to the manager that the claimant was unable to comply with the provisions of section 40, the manager may receive such claim within the further period of two months from the expiration of the original period of two months.

Determination of debts and liabilities.

43. The manager shall inquire into the history and merits of every claim received under the preceding section and shall in accordance with the rules to be made under this Ordinance determine the amount of the debts and liabilities, if any, justly due to the several claimants.

Power to rank debts and fix interest.

44. If such amount cannot be paid at once, the manager shall then proceed to rank such debts and liabilities according to the order in which they shall be paid and fix the interest, if any, to be paid thereon, respectively from the date of the final decision thereon to the date of the payment and discharge thereof.

Scheme for liquidation.

45. When the total amount of the debts and liabilities including those due and incurred to the Government has been finally determined, the manager shall prepare and submit to the Collector a schedule of such debts and liabilities, and a scheme (hereinafter called the liquidation scheme) showing the mode in which it is proposed to pay and discharge the same, whether from the income of the property under management, or with the aid of funds raised under the powers hereinafter conferred, or partly in one of such ways and partly in the other.

Provision of scheme.

46. Every liquidation scheme shall further provide for the continuance of the payments to be made by the manager and for the repayment of money, if any, the manager proposes to borrow from Government under this Ordinance and may provide for the improvement of the estate under management either from the said income or with the aid of the funds raised as aforesaid or partly in one of such ways and partly in the other.

Effects of sanctioning scheme.

47. When the Collector sanctions the liquidation scheme, he shall notify the fact of such sanction at such place and in such manner as the Government may from time to time by rule direct; and thereupon:—

(i) all proceedings, processes, execution and attachments stayed or suspended under section 37 shall be forever barred;

(ii) every debt or liability due or owing to any person which was provable before the manager shall be extinguished, and such person shall be entitled to receive under the liquidation scheme the amount, if any, finally awarded to him under the preceding sections in respect of such debt or liability.

Power to remove mortgagee in possession.

48. (1) If the estate under management or any part thereof be in the possession of a mortgagee or conditional vendee, the manager at any time after the liquidation scheme has been sanctioned as aforesaid, may, by an order in writing, require such incumbrancer to deliver up possession of the same to him at the end of the then current year.

(2) If such incumbrancer refuses or neglects to obey such order, the manager may without resorting to a civil court enter upon the property and summarily evict therefrom the said incumbrancer or any other person obstructing or resisting in his behalf.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be held to affect the right of any incumbrancer to receive under the liquidation scheme the amount, if any, awarded to him under this Ordinance.

Power to sell or lease.

49. Subject to the rules made under this Ordinance, the manager, after the liquidation scheme has been sanctioned as aforesaid, shall have power to sell or grant on lease all or any part of the estate under the management :

Provided that the estate or any part thereof shall not be sold or leased for a period exceeding 10 years without the previous permission of the Collector :

Provided further that the Collector shall not give such permission unless he is satisfied that such sale or lease is necessary for the benefit of the estate. The decision of the Collector shall be final.

50. The manager's receipt for any moneys, rents or profits raised or received by him under this Ordinance shall discharge the person paying the same therefrom or from being concerned to see to the application thereof.

Manager's receipts
a discharge.

51. (1) If the holder of the estate dies after the publication of the order of management, the management shall continue and proceed in all respects as if the holder were still living.

Holder of estate

(2) Any person succeeding to the whole or any part of the estate under management shall, while such management continues, be subject in respect of such estate to the disabilities imposed under this Ordinance.

(3) No civil court shall, during the continuance of the management, issue any attachment or other process against any portion of the estate under management for or in respect of any debt or liability incurred by any such person either before or after his said succession.

52. The Government, when it is of opinion that it is not necessary to continue the management of the estate, by order published in the Official Gazette, may direct that the said management shall be terminated. On the termination of the said management the estate shall be delivered into the possession of the holder, or, if he is dead, of any person entitled to the said estate together with any balances which may be due to the credit of the said holder. All acts done of or purporting to be done by the manager during the continuance of the management the estate shall be binding on the holder or on any person to whom the possession of the estate has been delivered.

management.

53. The manager appointed under this Chapter shall be deemed to be a public servant under section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

<sup>18</sup>[55. (1) Nothing in section 54 shall prohibit the sale or the agreement for the sale of land for which no permission is required under sub-section (1) of section 65B of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879 in favour of any person for use of such land by such person for a bonafide industrial purpose:

Bom. V of 1879.

Provided that—

(a) the land is not situated within the urban agglomeration as defined in clause (n) of section 2 of the Urban Land (Ceiling and Regulation) Act, 1976.

(b) where the area of the land proposed to be sold exceeds ten hectares, the person to whom the land is proposed to be sold in pursuance of this sub-section shall obtain previous permission of the industries Commissioner Gujarat State or such other officer, as the State Government may, by an order in writing authorise in this behalf.

(c) the area of land proposed to be sold shall not exceed four times the area on which construction for a bonafide industrial purpose is proposed to be made by the purchaser:

Provided that any additional land which may be required for pollution control measures or required under any relevant law for the time being in force and certified as such by the relevant authority under that law shall not be taken into account for the purpose of computing four times the area,

(d) where the land proposed to be sold is owned by a person belonging to the Scheduled Tribe, the sale shall be subject to the provisions of section 73A of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879.

Bom. V of 1879.

(2) (a) Where the land is sold to a person in pursuance of sub-section (1) (hereinafter referred to as "the purchaser"), he shall within thirty days from the date of the purchase of the land for a bonafide industrial purpose, send a notice of such purchase in such form alongwith such other particulars as may be prescribed, to the Collector and endorse a copy thereof to the Mamlatdar.

(b) Where the purchaser fails to send the notice and other particulars to the Collector under clause (a) within the period specified therein, he shall be liable to pay, in addition to the non-agricultural assessment leviable under this Ordinance, such fine not exceeding two thousand rupees as the Collector may, subject to rules made under this Ordinance, direct.

(c) Where, on receipt of the notice of the date of purchase for the use of land for a bonafide industrial purpose and other particulars sent by the purchaser under clause (a), the Collector, after making such inquiry as he deems fit—

(i) is satisfied that the purchaser of such land has validly purchased the land for a bonafide industrial purpose in conformity with the provisions of sub-section (1), he shall issue a certificate to that effect to the purchaser in such form and within such time as may be prescribed,

(ii) is not so satisfied, he shall, after giving the purchaser an opportunity of being heard, refuse to issue such certificate and on such refusal, the sale of land to the purchaser shall be deemed to be in contravention of section 54.

(d) (i) The purchaser aggrieved by the refusal to issue a certificate by the Collector under sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) may file an appeal to the State Government or such officer, as it may, by an order in writing, authorise in this behalf.

(ii) The State Government or the authorised officer shall, after giving the appellant an opportunity of being heard, pass such order on the appeal as it or he deems fit.

(3) (a) The purchaser shall comply with the provisions of any law for the time being in force or any order or direction of the Central Government or State Government or any Corporation owned or controlled by such Government, Government Company, local authority or statutory authority in relation to use of land for industrial purpose before the land is put to use for such purpose.

(b) The purchaser to whom a certificate is issued under sub clause (i) of clause (c) of sub-section (2) shall commence industrial activity on such land within three years from the date of certificate and commence production of goods or providing of services within five years from such date :

Provided that the period of three years or, as the case may be five years may, on an application made by the purchaser in that behalf, be extended from time to time, by the State Government or such officer, as it may, by an order in writing, authorise in this behalf, in such circumstances as may be prescribed.

(4) Where the Collector, after making such inquiry as he deems fit and giving the purchaser an opportunity of being heard, comes to a conclusion that the purchaser has failed to commence industrial activity or production of goods or providing of services within the period specified in clause (b) of sub-section (3), or the period extended under the proviso to that clause, the land shall vest in the State Government free from all encumbrances on payment to the purchaser of such compensation as the Collector may determine, having regard to the price paid by the purchaser and such land shall be disposed of by the State Government, having regard to the use of land.]
