STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

There has been a rapid growth of Financial establishments, not covered by the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 (Central Act II of 1934) in the State. These financial establishments are receiving deposits from the public, mostly middle class and poor classes on the promise of high rates of interest and easy gains, Many of the financial establishments have defaulted to return to the public, the deposits on maturity and thereby cheating the depositors of their legitimative due. There have been representations from Depositors Associations and public to have a legal mechanism to protect the interests of depositors. The Reserve Bank of India has also suggested that the State Government should enact a law in order to protect the interests of the depositors. Therefore it was considered necessary to bring a suitable legislation to regulate the activities of such financial establishments, other than those covered by the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934.

Accordingly, the Karnataka (Protection of Interest of Depositors in Financial Establishments) Bill, 2000 (L. A. Bill No. 36 of 2000) was introduced in the State Legislature and both the Houses approved the same. The Bill was then sent to the Government of India to obtain assent of the President. However, the President of India withheld his assent to the Bill on the ground that the amendments suggested by the Ministry of Finance Company Affairs (Banking Division) could not be carried out as the Bill had already been passed by the State Legislature.

The Bill among other things provides for the following:-

- (i) Defining the term "Default" to include fraudulent failure to return the deposit or pay interest, bonus, and profit or perform service promised.

- (ii) Attachment of property of financial establishment and that of the Promoter, Director, Partner, Manager or Member of the Financial Establishment, in case of default of return of deposit.
- (iii) Attachment of property of malafide transferees where it is transferred by the Financial Establishment otherwise than in good faith and for consideration.
- (iv) Appointment of competent authority to exercise control over the said property and the powers and duties of the competent authority
- (v) Constitution of Special Court for dealing with all the cases
- (vi) Institution of Criminal Proceedings against the Promoter, Partner, Director, Manager or any other person responsible for management of the Financial Establishment for contravention of the provisions of the law which is punishable up to ten years of imprisonment and up to one lakh rupees of fine.

Certain other consequential and incidental provisions are also made.

Hence the Bill.
