STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

I

Act 12 of 1962.- At present five different Acts are in force on money-lenders and money-lending in different regions of the State. These Acts are not equal in scope. It has become necessary to have an Act applicable to the entire State and with sufficient provisions not only to regulate and control the money-lending transactions effectively but to afford sufficient protection to innocent debtors. The Mysore Money-lenders Bill, 1958 seeks to achieve this object.

Some of the main features of the Bill are:-

- (i) licensing of money-lenders;
- (ii) requiring money-lenders to keep and furnish prescribed accounts;
- (iii) empowering of courts to direct payment of decretal amount by installments;
- (iv) loans to or by a bank, by a co-operative society, insurance company, local authority authorised by Government and other types of loans specified in clause 2(9) are excluded from the purview of the Act.

(Published in the Karnataka Gazette (Extraordinary) Part IV-2A dated 26th March 1959)

II

Amending Act 77 of 1976.—With a view to further restricting the usurious practices of money lending it has become imperative to plug certain inadequacies in the existing Act, and also to provide the Executive Officers with sufficient powers to enforce the provisions of the Act, besides providing deterrent penalties for the infringement of the Act.

Accordingly the present facility available under section 11 of the Act enabling Courts to give permission to unlicensed money lenders to obtain licences and thereafter to proceed with their suits for the recovery of dues is now done away with under the amended provisions.

Secondly section 15 has been substituted empowering the authorised officers under the Act to enter the premises where the business of money lending is carried on and to call upon the money lenders to produce the required records and if need be to search the premises and seize any record and documents as may be necessary.

Thirdly the penalties under the Act have been enhanced both by way of fine and imprisonment to create a deterrent impact on the undesirable money lending practices.

Hence the Bill.

(Obtained from L.A. Bill No.59 of 1976)

III

Amending Act 41 of 1985.—The persons who borrow money from the licensed money lenders pledge costly gold ornaments and other articles with them.

To safeguard the interests of these borrowers it is proposed to insist on a security deposit in a Government Treasury from such licensed money lenders, and to make a security deposit a condition precedent for granting license in future.

In view of the voluminous work in the Administration of the Act, it is also proposed to increase the license fee.

As the matter was very urgent, the Karnataka Money Lenders (Amendment) Ordinance, 1985 (Karnataka Ordinance No. 11 of 1985) was issued.

This Bill seeks to replace the said ordinance.

(Published in the Karnataka Gazette (Extraordinary) Part IV-2A, dated 25th July 1985 as No. 399 at page. 6.)

IV

Amending Act 2 of 1987.—It is considered necessary to exclude certain Banking and financial institutions from the purview of the definition of the Money Lender under the Karnataka Money Lenders Act, 1961.

The existing provisions of the Act provide for the licensee to maintain his books of accounts in any recognised language. It is proposed to make it obligatory to keep such accounts either in Kannada or in English language.

For the above purpose an Ordinance was promulgated. This Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance.

(Published in the Karnataka Gazette (Extraordinary) Part IV-2A, dated 4th February 1987 as No. 97 at page 4.)

Amending Act 14 of 1998.—It is considered necessary to amend the Karnataka Money Lenders Act, 1961 (Karnataka Act 12 of 1962) for the following reasons, namely:—

- (i) to enhance the period of licence from one year to five years;
- (ii) to enhance the licence fee from Rs. 100-00 per year to Rs. 5000.00 for the term of licence.
- (iii) to enhance the licence fee for additional place of business from Rs. 50.00 per year to Rs. 2500.00 for the term of licence;
- (iv) to provide for refund of security deposit in the event to cancellation of licence.
- (v) since, the Karnataka High Court in Writ Petition No. 8912/85 and other connected matters directed the Government to pay interest on security deposit as there is no specific provision prohibiting payment of interest, appropriate provisions are made to remove the lacuna retrospectively from 31st May 1985, and to validate the action.

Hence the Bill.

VI

Amending Act 12 of 2021.- It is considered necessary to amend sections 38 and 39 of the Karnataka Money Lenders Act, 1961(Karnataka Act 12 of 1962) to enhance the penalty amount and conviction term in order to ensure strict adherence to the provisions of the Act.

Hence, the Bill.

VII

Amendment Act 16 of 2025.- It is considered necessary to amend the Karnataka Money Lenders Act, 1961 (Karnataka Act 12 of 1962) to protect economically vulnerable groups and individuals from the undue hardship usurious interests rates and coercive means of recovery by licensed money lender and unlicensed money lender.

Hence, the Bill

1. Omitted by Act 77 of 1976 w.e.f. 27.10.1976.

13. Application for cancellation of licence.— (1) Any person may, during the currency of a licence, file an application, to the Registrar for the cancellation of the licence issued to a money-lender on the ground that such money-lender has been guilty of any act or conduct for which the Registrar may under section 8 refuse him the grant of a licence. At the time of filing his application the said person shall deposit such amount not exceeding one hundred rupees as the Registrar may direct.

(2) On the receipt of such application and deposit, the Registrar shall hold an inquiry and if he is satisfied that the money-lender has been guilty of such act or conduct he may cancel the licence of the money-lender and may also direct the return of the deposit made under sub-section (1).

(3) If in the opinion of the Registrar, an application made under sub-section (1) is frivolous or vexatious, he may, out of the deposit made under sub-section (1), direct to be paid to the money-lender such amount as he deems fit as compensation.

(4) Any person aggrieved by an order of the Registrar under sub-section (2) or (3) may, within such time and on payment of such fee as may be prescribed, appeal to the Registrar General and the order of the Registrar General on such appeal shall be final.

14. Registrar and Assistant Registrar to have powers of Civil Court.— For the purposes of sections 7 and 13, the Registrar and Assistant Registrar shall have and may exercise the same powers as are vested in a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in respect of the following matters:—

- (a) enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;
- (b) compelling the production of documents and material objects;
- (c) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses; and
- (d) proof of facts by affidavits.

15. Power of authorised officer to require production of records or documents and power of entry, inspection and seizure— (1) The Registrar, Assistant Registrar or any Officer authorised by the State Government in this behalf may, for the purpose of verifying whether the business of money-lending is carried on in accordance with the provisions of this Act, enter the premises of the money lender or any person who in his opinion is carrying on the business of money-lending and call upon him to produce any record or document relating to such business and every such money lender or person shall allow such inspection and produce such record or document.

(2) The Registrar, Assistant Registrar or the other officer referred to in sub-section (1) may, for the purposes of the said sub-section, search the premises and seize any record and document as may be necessary. The record or document seized shall be retained only for such period as may be necessary for the purposes of examination, prosecution or other legal action:

Provided that the provisions of sections 100 and 102 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974) shall, so far as may be, apply to such search and seizure:

Provided further that for every record or document seized, appropriate acknowledgement shall be given to the person from whose custody it is seized.

(3) The Registrar, Assistant Registrar or the other officer referred to in sub-section (1) shall also have power to summon and examine the money lender or any person who in his opinion is in a position to furnish relevant information.]¹

1. Inserted by Act 16 of 2025 w.e.f 25.03.2025.

16. Court's power to cancel or suspend a licence.— (1) (i) A Court passing an order of conviction against a money-lender for an offence under this Act, or (ii) a Court trying a suit to which this Act applies, if satisfied that such money-lender has committed such contravention of any provision of this Act or the rules as would, in its opinion, make him unfit to carry on the business of money-lending,—

(a) may order that all the licences held by such money-lender in the State be cancelled or suspended for such period as it may think fit; and

(b) may, if it thinks fit, declare any such money-lender, or if any money-lender is an undivided Hindu family, a company or an unincorporated body, such family, company or body and also any person responsible for the management of the business of money-lending carried on by such family, company or body, to be disqualified from holding any licence in the State for such time as the Court may think fit:

Provided that no order or declaration shall be made under this sub-section unless a reasonable opportunity has been given to the person concerned to show cause against the order or declaration proposed to be made.

(2) Where a Court convicts a money-lender of an offence under this Act, or makes an order or declaration under clause (a) or (b) of sub-section (1), it shall cause the particulars of the conviction, order or declaration, as the case may be, to be endorsed on all the licences held by the money-lender convicted or by any other person affected by the order or declaration and shall cause copies of its order or declaration to be sent to the Registrars by whom the licences were granted, for the purpose of entering such particulars in the registers:

Provided that where any licence held by any money-lender is suspended or cancelled or any money-lender is disqualified from holding any licence under this section he may appeal against such order to the Court to which an appeal ordinarily lies from the decision of the Court passing the order; and the Court which passed the order or the Court of appeal may, if it thinks fit, pending the appeal, stay the operation of the order under this section.

(3) Any licence required by a Court for endorsement in accordance with sub-section (2) shall be produced by the person by whom it is held in such manner and within such time as may be directed by the Court and any person who, without reasonable cause, makes default in producing the licence so required shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for each day of the period during which the default continues.

(4) Powers conferred on a Court under this section may be exercised by any Court in appeal or in revision.

17. No compensation for suspension or cancellation of licence.— Where any licence is suspended or cancelled under this Act, no person shall be entitled to any compensation or the refund of any licence fee.

18. Persons debarred from doing business during period of suspension or cancellation of licence.— A person whose licence has been suspended or cancelled in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall not during the period of suspension or cancellation, as the case may be, carry on the business of money-lending in the State.

19. Person whose licence is suspended or cancelled not to apply without giving particulars of endorsement or of disqualification.— No person whose licence has been endorsed under section 16 or who has been disqualified from holding a licence shall apply for, or be eligible to hold a licence, without giving particulars of such endorsement or disqualification.

20. Duty of money-lender to keep accounts and furnish copies.— (1) Every money-lender shall keep and maintain a cash book and a ledger ¹[in Kannada or in English]₁ in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Every money-lender shall,-

(a) deliver or cause to be delivered,-

(i) to the debtor within thirty days from the date on which a loan is made, a statement ¹[either in Kannada or in English]₁ showing in clear and distinct terms the amount and date of the loan and of its maturity, the nature of the security, if any, for the loan, the name and address of the debtor and of the money-lender and the rate of interest charged:

Provided that no such statement shall be required to be delivered to a debtor if he is supplied by the money-lender with a pass book which shall be in the prescribed form and shall contain an up-to-date account of the transactions with the debtor;

(ii) to the Assistant Registrar, within the said period, a statement containing the particulars referred to in sub-clause (i);

(b) upon repayment of a loan in full, mark indelibly every paper signed by the debtor with words indicating payment or cancellation, and discharge every mortgage, restore every pledge, return every note and cancel or reassign every assignment given by the debtor as security for the loan.

(3) No money-lender shall receive any payment from a debtor on account of any loan without giving him a duly signed receipt for the payment.

(4) No money-lender shall accept from a debtor any article as a pawn, pledge or security for a loan without giving him a signed receipt for the same with its description, estimated value, the amount of loan advanced against it and such other particulars as may be prescribed.

21. Delivery of statement of accounts and copies thereof by money-lender.—

(1) Every money-lender shall deliver or cause to be delivered every year to each of his debtors a legible statement of such debtor's accounts signed by the money-lender or his agent of any amount that may be outstanding against such debtor. The statement shall show,-

(i) the amount of principal and the amount of interest, separately, due to the money-lender;

(ii) the amount of every payment already received by the money-lender in respect of the loan during the year together with the date on which each payment was made;

(iii) all payments credited first in the account of interest and the residue, if any, of any payment more than sufficient to discharge the balance of interest due at the time it is made, credited to the debtor in the account of principal, in the alternative such of the payments credited first in the account of principal as the money-lender may determine and the remaining payments credited in the account of interest calculated on the basis of the decreased balance of principal and when the balance of interest is fully discharged the residue of the payments, if any, further credited in the account of principal;

(iv) the amount of principal and interest remaining unpaid.

The statement shall be signed by the money-lender, or his agent, and shall be ¹[either in Kannada or in English]¹. It shall be in such form and shall be supplied to the debtor on or before such date as may be prescribed:

Provided that no such statement shall be required to be delivered to a debtor if he is supplied by the money-lender with a pass book which shall be in the prescribed form and shall contain an up-to-date account of the transactions with the debtor.

The money-lender shall on or before the aforesaid date deliver or cause to be delivered a statement containing the particulars specified in clauses (i) to (iv) to the Assistant Registrar.

(2) In respect of any particular loan, whether advanced before or after the date on which this Act comes into force, the money-lender shall, on demand in writing being made by the debtor at any time during the period when the loan or any part thereof has not been repaid, and on payment of the prescribed fee supply to the debtor or if the debtor so requires, to any person specified in that behalf in the demand, a statement, ¹[either in Kannada or in English]¹, signed by the money-lender or his agent, and containing the relevant particulars specified in sub-section (1).

1. Substituted by Act 2 of 1987 w.e.f. 16.10.1986.

(3) A money-lender shall, on a demand in writing by the debtor, and tender of the prescribed sum of expenses, supply a copy of any document relating to a loan made by him or any security therefor, to the debtor, or if the debtor so requires, to any person specified in that behalf in the demand.

1[(4). x x x]1

1. Omitted by Act 14 of 1998 w.e.f. 22.5.1998.

22. Fees for certain statements supplied to debtors and Assistant Registrars.—

(1) A money-lender may recover from a debtor fees for the statements or a pass book supplied to him under sub-section (2) of section 20 or sub-section (1) of section 21 and in respect of copies of such statements supplied to the Assistant Registrar under the said sub-sections.

(2) Such fees shall be recoverable at such rates and in such manner as may be prescribed, subject to the maximum of two rupees per debtor, per year, irrespective of the number of statements or copies thereof supplied to the debtor or the Assistant Registrar during the relevant year.

23. Debtors not bound to admit correctness of accounts.— A debtor to whom a statement of accounts or a pass book has been furnished under section 20 or 21 shall not be bound to acknowledge or deny its correctness and his failure to do so shall not, by itself, be deemed to be an admission of the correctness of the accounts.

24. Procedure of court in suits regarding loans.— Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, in any suit to which this Act applies,—

(a) a Court shall, before deciding the claim on merits, frame and decide the issue whether the money-lender has complied with the provisions of sections 20 and 21;

(b) if the Court finds that the provisions of section 20 or section 21 have not been complied with by the money-lender, it may, if the plaintiff's claim is established, in whole or in part, disallow the whole or any portion of the interest found due as may seem reasonable to it in the circumstances of the case and may disallow costs.

Explanation.—A money-lender who has given the receipt or furnished a statement of accounts or a pass book in the prescribed form and manner, shall be held to have complied with the provisions of section 20 or section 21, as the case may be, in spite of any errors and omissions if the Court finds that such errors and omissions are not material or not fraudulent.

25. Provisions of certain sections not to apply to loans made by company or unincorporated body exempted by Government.— Nothing in sections 20 to 24 shall apply to loans advanced by any class of companies or unincorporated bodies which the State Government may by notification exempt from the operation of those sections.

26. Power of Court to limit interest recoverable in certain cases.— Notwithstanding anything contained in any agreement or any law for the time being in force, no Court shall in respect of any loan whether advanced before or after the date on which this Act comes into force, decree, on account of interest, a sum greater than the principal of the loan due on the date of the decree.

27. Power of Court to direct payment of decretal amount by instalments.—

The Court may, at any time, on application of a judgment-debtor, after notice to the decree-holder, direct that the amount of any decree passed against him, whether before or after the date on which this Act comes into force, in respect of a loan, shall be paid in such number of instalments and subject to such conditions, and payable on such dates, as, having regard to the circumstances of the judgment-debtor and the amount of the decree, it considers fit.

28. Limitation on rates of interest.— (1) The State Government may from time to time by notification fix the maximum rates of interest for any local area or class of business of money-lending in respect of secured and unsecured loans.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, no agreement between a money-lender and a debtor for payment of interest at a rate exceeding the maximum rate fixed by the State Government under sub-section (1), shall be valid and no Court shall in any suit to which this Act applies award interest exceeding the said rates.

(3) If any money-lender charges or receives from a debtor interest at a rate exceeding the maximum rate fixed by the State Government under sub-section (1), he shall, for the purposes of section 39, be deemed to have contravened the provisions of this Act.

29. Prohibition of charge for expenses on loans by money-lenders.— No money-lender shall receive from a debtor or intending debtor any sum other than reasonable costs of investigating title to the property, costs of stamp, registration of documents and other usual out-of-pocket expenses in cases where an agreement between the parties includes a stipulation that property is to be given as security or by way of mortgage and where both parties have agreed of such costs and reimbursement thereof; or where such costs, charges or expenses are leviable under the provisions of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, or any other law for the time being in force.

30. Notice and information to be given on assignment of loan.— (1) Where a loan advanced, whether before or after the date on which this Act comes into force, or any interest on such loan or the benefit of any agreement made or security taken in respect of such loan or interest, is assigned to any assignee, the assignor (whether he is the money-lender by whom the money was lent or any person to whom the debt has been previously assigned) shall, before the assignment is made,—

(a) give the assignee notice in writing that the loan, interest, agreement or security is affected by the operation of this Act;

(b) supply to the assignee all information necessary to enable him to comply with the provisions of this Act; and

(c) give the debtor notice in writing of the assignment supplying the name and address of the assignee.

(2) Any person acting in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be liable to indemnify any other person who is prejudiced by the contravention.

31. Application of Act as respects assignees.— (1) Save as hereinafter provided, where any debt due to a money-lender in respect of money lent by him whether before or after the date on which this Act comes into force, or of interest on money so lent or of the benefit of any agreement made or security taken in respect of any such debt or interest, has been assigned, the assignee shall be deemed to be the money-lender and all the provisions of this Act shall apply to such assignee as if he were the money-lender,

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force, where for any reason any such assignment is invalid and the debtor has made any payment of money or transfer of property on account of any loan which has been so assigned, the assignee shall in respect of such payment or transfer be deemed to be the agent of the money-lender for all the purposes of this Act.

32. Reopening of transactions.— Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, the Court shall, in any suit to which this Act applies, whether heard ex parte or otherwise,—

- (a) reopen any transaction, or any account already taken between the parties;
- (b) take an account between the parties;
- (c) reduce the amount charged to the debtor in respect of any excessive interest;
- (d) if on taking accounts it is found that the money-lender has received more than what is due to him, pass a decree in favour of the debtor in respect of such amount:

Provided that in the exercise of these powers, the Court shall not,-

- (i) reopen any adjustment or agreement purporting to close previous dealings and to create new obligations which have been entered into by the parties or any person through whom they claim at a date more than six years from the date of the suit;
- (ii) do anything which affects any decree of a Court.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section “excessive interest” means interest at a rate which contravenes any of the provisions of section 28.

33. Inquiry for taking accounts and declaring the amount due.— (1) Any debtor may make an application at any time to the Court, whether the loan has or has not become payable, for taking accounts and for declaring the amount due to the money-lender. Such application shall be in the prescribed form and accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(2) On receipt of such application, the Court shall cause a notice of the application to be given to the money-lender.

(3) On the date fixed for the hearing of the application or on such date to which the hearing may be adjourned from time to time, the Court shall make an inquiry and shall after taking an account of the transactions between the parties pass an order declaring the amount, if any, still payable by the debtor to the money-lender, in respect of the principal and interest, if any. In taking accounts under this section the Court shall follow the provisions of sections 20 to 32 and section 35.

34. Deposit in Court of money due to money-lender.— (1) At any time a debtor may tender to a money-lender any sum of money due from him to the money-lender in respect of a loan by way of principal, interest or both.

(2) If the money-lender refuses to accept any sum so tendered, the debtor may deposit the said sum in Court to the account of the money-lender.

(3) The Court shall thereupon cause written notice of the deposit to be served on the money-lender, and he may, on presenting a petition stating the sum then due in respect of the loan, and his willingness to accept the said sum, receive and appropriate it first towards the interest and the residue if any towards the principal.

(4) When the money-lender does not accept the sum, the Court shall appropriate the said sum first towards the interest and the residue if any towards the principal.

35. When interest to be paid for entire month.— Notwithstanding any agreement between the parties or any law for the time being in force, when a statement is delivered or pass book is supplied to a debtor under section 21 or if accounts are taken under section 33, or a tender is made by a debtor to a money-lender in respect of a loan under section 34 before the sixteenth day of a calendar month, the interest due shall be calculated as payable for fifteen days of the said month, and if the statement is delivered or pass book is supplied or accounts are taken or tender is made on any subsequent day, then for the entire calendar month irrespective of the fact that such statement is delivered or pass book is supplied or such accounts are taken or such tender is made on any such day.

36. Money-lenders to exhibit their names over shops.— Every money-lender shall always keep exhibited over his shop or place of business, his name with the word 'money-lender' and its equivalent in Kannada.

37. Entry of wrong sum in bond, etc., to be an offence.— (1) No money-lender shall take any promissory note, acknowledgment, bond or other writing which does not state the actual amount of the loan, or which states such amount wrongly or execute any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled after execution.

(2) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment which may extend to ¹[ten years]¹ or with fine which may extend to ¹[five lakh]¹ or with both.

1. Substituted by Act 16 of 2025 w.e.f. 25.03.2025.

38. Penalty for molestation.— Whoever molests, or abets the molestation of, a debtor for the recovery of a debt due by him to a creditor shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment which ²[may extend to ³[ten years]³ or with fine which may extend to ³[five lakh]³ rupees or with both]¹².

1. Substituted by Act 77 of 1976 w.e.f. 27.10.1976.

2. Substituted for the words "may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with both" by Act 12 of 2021 w.e.f. 26.03.2021.

3. Substituted by Act 16 of 2025 w.e.f. 25.03.2025.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, a person who, with intent to cause another person to abstain from doing any act which he has a right to do or to do any act which he has a right to abstain from doing,—
