 - (xi) present to the Government, annually and at such other times as the Commission may deem fit, reports upon the working of the safeguards referred to in the preceding clauses;
 - (xii) make in such reports recommendations for the effective implementation of the aforesaid safeguards for improving the conditions of women by the Union or any State;
 - (xiii) review, from time to time, the existing provisions of the Constitution and other laws affecting women and recommend amendments thereto so as to suggest remedial legislative measures to meet any lacunae, inadequacies or shortcomings in such legislation; and
 - (xiv) any other matter which may be referred to it by the Government.

Government to consult the Commission.

11. The Government shall consult the Commission on all major policy matters affecting women.

Power of the Commission to utilize the services of certain officers and investigation agencies for conducting investigation.

12. (1) The Commission may, for the purpose of conducting investigation under this Act, utilize the services of –

- (a) any officer or investigation agency of any other state or the Central Government with the concurrence of that Government; or
- (b) any other person.

(2) For the purpose of conducting an investigation, any officer or agency referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1) may, subject to the direction and control of the Commission, -

- (a) summon and enforce the attendance of any person and examine him;
- (b) require the discovery and production of any document; and
- (c) requisition any public record or copy thereof from any office.

(3) Such officer or agency or the person shall investigate into the matter as directed by the Commission and submit a report thereon (hereinafter in this section referred to as "the investigation report"), to the Commission within such period, as may be specified by the Commission in this behalf.

(4) The Commission shall satisfy itself about the correctness of the facts stated and the conclusions, if any, arrived at in the investigation report submitted to it under sub-section (3), and for this purpose, the Commission may make such inquiry (including the examination of the person or persons who conducted or assisted in the investigation), as it thinks fit.

Statements made by persons to the Commission.

13. No statement made by a person in the course of giving evidence before the Commission or an officer or agency, referred to in clause (a), or the person referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 12, shall subject him to, or be used against him in, any civil or criminal proceedings except a prosecution for giving false evidence by such statement:

Provided that the statement, -

- (a) is made in reply to a question, which is required by the Commission or such officer or agency or such person to answer; or
- (b) is relevant to the subject matter under investigation.

Protection of acts done in good faith.

14. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against any member of the Commission or any officer or other employee of the Commission or any person acting under the direction either of the Government or of the Commission, in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or any rules or orders made thereunder.

Registration of voluntary organisations and seeking their assistance.

15. (1) Any voluntary organisation for women within the State, may seek registration with the Commission for the purposes of this Act. The Commission may, after satisfying itself in the manner as it may deem fit about the importance and role of such organisation in the society, include the name of such organisation in its register.

(2) The Commission may, in consultation with the voluntary organisations, evolve norms and standards on the basis of which registration of a voluntary organisation is to be made.

(3) The Commission shall maintain a register of voluntary organisations referred to in sub-section (1).

(4) In discharge of its functions, the Commission may seek the assistance of any voluntary organisation within the State, more particularly, the women's organisations.

(5) A list of such organisations shall be made available to any court or authority or, to the members of general public on request.

(6) If, for any reason to be recorded in writing, the Commission deems it fit to cancel the name of any organisation from its register, it may do so, after giving such organisation a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(7) The decision of the Commission about such cancellation shall be final.

16. (1) The State Government shall, after due appropriation made by the State Legislature by law in this behalf, pay to the Commission by way of grants from the Consolidated Fund of the State, such sums of money, as the State Government may think fit for being utilised for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Commission may spend such sums, as it thinks fit for performing the functions under this Act, and such sums of money shall be treated as expenditure payable out of the grants referred to in sub-section (1).

17. (1) The Commission shall maintain proper accounts and other relevant record and prepare annual statement of accounts in such forms, as may be prescribed by the Government.

(2) The Accounts of the Commission shall be audited by the Local Fund Examiner, Punjab, at such intervals, as may be specified by him and any expenditure in connection with such audit, shall be payable by the Commission to the Local Fund Examiner, Punjab.
