Powers to issue orders for maintenance of order at religious ceremonials.

24. (1) If in respect of an actual or intended assemblage of a religious nature or ceremonial or corporate display or organised assemblage or exhibition or meeting held in any street or public place, it appears to the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] that a dispute has arisen due to such assemblage or its conduct which is likely to cause grave disturbance of public peace, the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] may give such orders as to the conduct and behaviour of the persons interested towards each other and towards the public as may appear to him reasonable under the circumstances regard being had of the apparent legal rights and established practice of the parties and of the persons interested. Every such order shall be published in the place or area wherein it is to operate and all persons concerned shall be bound to conform to the same.

(2) Any order made under sub-section (1) of this section shall be subject to a decree, or injunction or other order of a competent Court; and the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] shall cancel or modify the order made by him when it is made known to him that the said order is inconsistent with the decree, injunction or any other order of a competent Court made by such Court on the complaint, suit or application of the person interested as to the rights or duties of the person who has suffered injury by the order of the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad.]

Such orders to be subject to decree etc., of Court.

25. (1) For the purpose of preventing any serious disorder or unlawful acts or imminent danger to the persons assembled at any public place of amusement or at any meeting or assembly to which the public is invited or allowed, every police officer of rank superior to that of Head Constable present at such public place of amusement or meeting or assembly may, subject, to the rules and orders lawfully made in this behalf, give such orders and directions as to the mode of admission of the public to the conduct of persons attending, and maintenance of the public safety at such places as he thinks necessary and all persons shall be bound to conform to such reasonable directions and orders.

Powers of the Police to prevent disorder at public place of amusement and public resort.

(2) The Police shall have power to enter every such public place of amusement, meeting, or assembly without obstruction for the purpose of giving effect to or carrying out the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section and every direction given thereunder.

Employees of Police to have general permission to enter such places.

26. (1) Whenever it appears to the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad],-

Dispersal of gangs or assembly of persons.

(a) that the movements or acts of any person residing in the City of Hyderabad are causing or likely to cause danger, alarm or harm to the life or property of any person or that there are reasonable grounds to believe that such person is engaged or is about to be engaged in the commission of an offence necessitating the use of force or violence or an offence punishable under <sup>11</sup>[Chapters XII, XVI and XVII of the Indian Penal Code] or is about to abet such offences and when in the opinion of the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] no witness is willing to give evidence in public against such person by reason of apprehension of harm to his life and property; or

(b) that an outbreak of an epidemic disease is likely to result from the continued residence of an immigrant; he may, by order in writing to be served on such person or by beat of drum or otherwise as the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] thinks fit, direct such person or immigrant to conduct himself in such manner as shall be necessary to prevent violence and alarm or the outbreak or spread of such disease or shall require such person to remove himself to such place or places and by such route or routes and within such time as the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] may prescribe.

(2) The *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] may direct any person who has been twice convicted under section 69 of this Act or any person who has been thrice convicted within a period of 3 years under section 4 or section 13 of the Gambling Act, 1319 Fasli as amended, to remove as aforesaid.

(3) The *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] may also direct any person who not having been born within the City Police limits, has been more than twice convicted of offences under <sup>12</sup>[Chapters XII, XVI and XVII of the Indian Penal Code] to remove himself in like manner from the City of Hyderabad or not to enter the City Police limits.

11. Substituted by the A.P.A.O. 1957.

A copy of such order shall be sent to the Chief City Magistrate.

(4) For the purposes of sub-section (2) the decision of the * [Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad], that a person has or has not been born within the City Police limits, shall be final.

(5) (firstly)- The Government may, if satisfied that peace or public safety in the City of Hyderabad or in any part thereof is disturbed or is likely to be disturbed on account of a conflict between different communities or groups or sections or gangs, thereof, declare by a proclamation (hereinafter referred to as the proclamation of emergency) that an emergency exists.

(secondly)- Such proclamation of emergency,-

(a) may be revoked by any other subsequent proclamation; and

(b) shall, in any case, be deemed to be cancelled after one month unless before the expiration of such period it has been renewed.

(thirdly)- After a proclamation of emergency has been issued by the Government under clause first whenever it appears to the * [Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] that the presence, movements or acts of any person in the city is or are causing or likely to cause danger or alarm or that a reasonable suspicion exists that such person has a design to disturb public peace and tranquility, he may, by order in writing to be served on such person or by beat of drum or otherwise as he thinks fit, direct such person to conduct himself in such manner as in the opinion of the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] may be reasonable for public safety or may direct such person to remove himself to such place or places and by such route or routes and within such time as the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] may prescribe.

(fourthly)- Any person aggrieved by an order of the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] made under clause third may appeal to the Government within ten days from the date when such order is made.

(fifthly)- An order passed by the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] under clause third shall, subject to an appeal referred to in clause fourth be deemed to be final.

(sixthly)- nothing contained in this section shall require any Police officer to disclose to the person against whom an order is made under clause third or to a court the sources of his information or any fact the communication of which may, in the opinion of the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] reveal the name or identity of person giving information.

(seventhly)- Any order made by the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] under clause third or by the Government under clause fourth shall not be deemed to be operative at the expiration of proclamation of emergency.

(6) If the person who has been ordered under subsection (1), (2), (3) or (5) fails or refuses to remove himself outside the City of Hyderabad or enters the City of Hyderabad within the prescribed period, the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] shall cause him to be arrested and removed in Police custody to such place outside the City of Hyderabad as may be suitable in his opinion.

(7) Before an order under sub-section (1), (2) or (3) is passed against any person, the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] or any officer authorised by him not below the rank of an Assistant Commissioner of Police shall inform such person in writing of the general nature of the allegations against him and give him sufficient opportunity of explaining those allegations.

If such person makes an application for the examination of any witness produced by him, the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] or such officer shall grant such application and examine such witness unless for reasons to be recorded in writing he is of the opinion that such application is made merely for the purpose of vexation or delay. Any written statement put in by such person shall be filed with the relevant record. Such person shall be entitled to appear before the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] or the said officer by a pleader or attorney for the purpose of explaining the allegations against him and for the purpose of examination of witnesses produced by him.

(8) The *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] or the officer authorised under sub-section (7) may, for securing the attendance of any person against whom an order is proposed to be made under sub-section (1), (2) or (3), exercise all or any of the powers of a court under <sup>13</sup>[sections 70, 71 and 72 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973]. When such person is brought before the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] may release him on bail with or without sureties or may, from time to time, detain him in custody for such period as he thinks fit; but such period shall not exceed fifteen days at a time.

(9) Any person aggrieved by an order made by the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] under sub-section (1), (2) or (3) may appeal to the Government within thirty days from the date when such order is made.

(10) Any order passed by the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] under sub-section (1), (2), or (3) or by the Government under sub-section (9) shall not be called in question in any Court unless the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] or the officer mentioned in sub-section (7) had not followed the procedure laid down in the said sub-section or there was no material before the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] upon which he could have based such order or the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] was not of opinion that witnesses were unwilling to give evidence in the public against the person in respect of whom an order was made under sub-section (1).

(11) Nothing contained in this section shall require any Police officer to disclose to the person against whom an order is made under sub-section (1), (2) or (3) or to a Court the sources of his information or any fact the communication of which may in the opinion of the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] reveal the name or identity of the person giving information.

Destruction of stray dogs.

27. (1) The *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] may from time to time by notification proclaim that any stray dog found, during such time as may be specified in the notification, wandering in any street or in any public place shall be destroyed and every such dog found in any street, or public place during the hours mentioned in the notification, shall be destroyed.

(2) The *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] may by public notice, require that every such dog as may be in any street or public place and not led by some person shall be muzzled in such a manner as to prevent it from biting, while not causing inconvenience to it in eating or breathing and every Police officer may, so long as such notice remains in force, destroy, or take possession of and detain any dog not so muzzled and found astray beyond the premises of the owner:

Muzzling or seizure of dogs.

Provided that any dog so found, with a collar bearing the name or address of its owner, shall not, unless it is rabid, be forthwith destroyed; but it shall be detained and information thereof be given by post or otherwise to its owner.

Saving as to dogs wearing collars.

(3) Any dog which has been detained under sub-section (2) remains without the owner providing with a muzzle for 3 clear days and paying all expenses for such detention may be sold or destroyed with the sanction and under the order of *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad.]

Destruction or sale of dogs.

(4) The proceeds of the sale of any dog under sub-section (3) shall be applied, as far as may be, towards the expenses for its detention; and the Government shall be entitled to appropriate the balance if any.

Proceeds of sale how disposed of.

(5) Any expenses incurred for the detention or destruction of any such dog shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (4) of this section, be recoverable upon a warrant by the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] as fine under <sup>14</sup>[section 386 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898].

Mode of recovery of expenses.

14. Substituted by the A.P.A.O. 1957. See now the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

Destruction of suffering and unfit animals.

28. (1) Any Police officer who in any street or place, other than a place of worship, finds any animal other than a cow or bull so diseased, or so severely wounded and in such a physical condition that in his opinion it cannot without cruelty be removed therefrom, shall, if the owner of the animal is absent or does not consent to the destruction of the animal, at once summon the Veterinary officer of the area in which the animal is found and if the Veterinary officer certifies that the animal is so mortally wounded or severely diseased or in such a physical condition that it is cruel to keep it alive, the said Police officer may, without the permission of the owner, destroy the animal or cause it to be destroyed. But if the Veterinary Practitioner is of opinion that the animal can be removed from the place where it is found without causing it great suffering, and if the owner or person incharge of the animal, or in his absence any other person present on the spot, is willing or offers to remove the animal to the nearest veterinary hospital within such time as the Veterinary Practitioner considers reasonable, the Veterinary Practitioner shall allow the animal to be so removed. If the owner or person incharge of the animal or any other person does not consent or fails so to remove the animal, the Veterinary Practitioner may direct the Police officer to remove the animal before it is destroyed to such place as he may think fit:

Provided that when any animal is destroyed in any street or public place it shall, as far as possible, be screened from the public gaze while it is being destroyed.

Explanation:— For the purposes of this section the word “bull” shall not be deemed to include “bullock”.

(2) The Government may appoint such persons as it thinks fit for veterinary treatment to be Veterinary Practitioners for the purposes of this section and determine the areas of which they shall be incharge for the purposes of this section.

(2) Every person shall be bound to conform to every reasonable direction of a Police officer given by him in the discharge of the aforesaid duties.

(3) A Police officer may remove or detain any person who fails to conform to or refuses to comply with or assists the aforesaid directions.

POWERS OF POLICE OFFICERS TO ARREST WITHOUT WARRANT.

30. Any Police officer may without an order from a Magistrate and without a warrant arrest any person,-

When Police may arrest any person without warrant.

(a) who has been concerned in any cognizable offence before him under <sup>15</sup>[sub-section (1) of section 41 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973];

Central Act 2 of 1974.

15. Substituted by Act No.2 of 2004.

(b) who is liable to be punished for an offence before him under sections 59, 61, 63,64, 65 and sub-sections (e), (g) and (i) of section 66 and sections 67, 69, 70, 71 and sub-section (a) of section 73, section 75 and clauses first and second of section 76 and section 77 or who contravenes the <sup>16</sup>[rules made under clauses (b) and (gg) of sub-section (1)] and sub-sections (4) and (5) or fails to conform to the prohibitory directions given under clause (b) of sub-section (1) and clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (2) of section 22 or sections 3, 4 and 5 of <sup>17</sup>the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act No.I of 1313 Fasli;

(c) who has been concerned in an offence punishable under section 60 of this Act or against whom a complaint has been made on reasonable grounds or about whom credible information has been received or reasonable suspicion exists for believing that he is so concerned.

Other powers of arrest to Police Officers.

31. (1) Any police officer empowered in this behalf by the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] may arrest without warrant any person for an offence specified in section 68 of this Act.

(2) Any Police officer may, on the information of any person in possession or charge of any dwelling house, private building or land or ground attached thereto, arrest without warrant any person alleged to have committed therein or thereon an offence punishable under section 59 of this Act.

Enforcement of orders issued under sections 22, 23, 24.

32. When a notification, or order in writing or public notice has been issued under sub-section (2) (3) or (4) of section 22 of this Act, or an order has been made under section 23 or 24, any Magistrate or Police officer may require any person who contravenes or is about to contravene the same, to desist or to abstain from so doing and in case of refusal or disobedience, may arrest such person. Any such Magistrate or Police officer may also seize any object or article used or about to be used in contravention of the aforesaid notification, order or notice and the object or articles seized shall be proceeded with according to the order of the Chief City Magistrate.

16. Substituted by Act No.XXIV of 1952.

17. Repealed by A.P. Act No.XXIII of 1958.

UNLAWFUL ASSEMBLY.

33. If on any emergency the available Police force is not sufficient to disperse an unlawful assembly or to quell a riot or any disturbance likely to disturb public peace, the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] or Magistrate of the highest rank who is present at the time, may apply to the officer of highest rank of the Regular forces who may be on the spot for military aid for such purpose.

Requisitioning military aid to disperse assembly.

34. (1) When the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] or a Magistrate determines to disperse any unlawful assembly by military aid, he may require any commissioned or non-commissioned officer commanding a battalion of the Regular Forces, or the volunteer corps, to disperse such assembly by military force and to arrest and confine such persons taking part in the said assembly as the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] or the Magistrate may direct, or as it may be necessary to arrest and confine for the purpose of dispersing the assembly or to have them punished according to law.

Duty of officer commanding military required to disperse assembly by Magistrate or *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad].

(2) Every such officer shall obey such requisition in such manner as he thinks fit, but in so doing shall use as little force, and do as little injury to the life and property of persons as may be possible and as may be consistent with dispersing the assembly and arresting and detaining the persons taking part in it.

Power of
officer to disperse unlawful assembly.

35. When the public peace is manifestly endangered by any such assembly and when it is impracticable to take instructions from the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] or a Magistrate, any Commissioned officer may disperse such assembly by Military, and may arrest and confine any person or persons taking part in it in order to disperse the assembly or that they may be punished according to law; but if while he is acting under this section, it becomes practicable to inform the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] or a Magistrate, he shall do so and shall thence forward obey the instructions of the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] or Magistrate as to whether he shall or shall not continue such action.

Bar of prosecution
for acts done
under sections 33,
34, 35.
Central Act 2 of 1974.

36. No prosecution against any person for any act done while acting under sections 33, 34 and 35 of this Act, or under <sup>18</sup>[section 37 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973] shall be instituted in any Criminal Court, except with the sanction of the Government; and

(a) no Magistrate or Police officer acting in good faith,

(b) no officer acting under section 35 in good faith,

(c) no person doing any act in good faith on being required under section 34 of this Act or under <sup>17</sup>[section 37 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973],

(d) no inferior officer, soldier or volunteer doing any act in obedience to any order which he is bound to obey, shall be deemed to have thereby committed any offence.

Mode of recovery of compensation for injury caused by unlawful assembly.

37. (1) The Chief City Magistrate may, with the sanction and subject to the orders of the Government which may have been issued in this behalf, and after such enquiry as he thinks necessary,-

---

18. Substituted by Act No.2 of 2004.

(a) determine the amount of compensation which, in his opinion, becomes payable to any person or persons in respect of any loss or damage caused to any property by any act connected with the common object of the unlawful assembly or in respect of death or grievous hurt caused to any person or persons by such act; and

(b) require the Municipal Commissioner to recover such amounts by an addition to the general tax which shall be imposed and levied in those municipal wards or sub-wards or sections.

(2) On the recommendation of the Chief City Magistrate the Government may, by order, exempt any person or persons from the payment of a portion of such compensation.

Exemption from payment of compensation.

(3) No compensation shall be awarded under this section unless a claim therefor is made within one month from the date of the loss or damage or death or grievous hurt and unless the Chief City Magistrate is satisfied that the person claiming, or where such claim is in respect of the death of any person, that person also had been free from blame in connection with the occurrences which lead to the aforesaid loss, damage, death or grievous hurt.

(4) No suit shall be instituted in any Civil Court in respect of any loss or damage for which compensation has been awarded under this section.

38. (1) The addition in the general tax imposed under the preceding section shall be recovered by the Municipal Commissioner from the persons liable therefor in the same manner as the general taxes are recovered.

Recovery of amount through Municipal Commissioner.

Act II of 1956.

(2) The provision of <sup>19</sup>[section 204 of the <sup>20</sup>[Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation Act, 1955] shall apply to any such addition as if it were part of the general tax levied under the said Act.

UNCLAIMED PROPERTY.

Police to take charge of unclaimed property.

39. (1) The Police shall take temporary charge of the following property:-

(a) all unclaimed property found by or made over to them; and

(b) all property found lying in any street, if the owner or person in charge of such property, on being directed, refuses or fails to remove the same from the street;

(2) Every property of which the Police have taken charge under sub-section (1) shall be produced before the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad.]

*[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] to issue proclamation.

40. (1) The *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] shall issue a proclamation with the particulars of the property, requiring, any person who may have a claim in respect of such property, to appear before the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] or any other officer whom he appoints for the purpose within six months from the date of the proclamation and submit his claim.

Immediate sale of perishable property.

(2) If such property or any part thereof is subject to speedy decay or consists of live-stock and animals or if the value of such property is less than five rupees it may be forthwith sold by auction under the orders of the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] and the proceeds of sale shall be dealt with in the same manner as is hereinafter provided for the disposal of the said property.

41. (1) If the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] is of opinion that the claimant of any seized property is entitled to the said property, he shall order the same to be delivered to him after deducting or payment of the expenses incurred in the seizure and detention thereof. Property to be delivered to person entitled.

(2) The *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] may, at his discretion, before the issue of an order under sub-section (1) demand reasonable security from the person to whom the said property is to be delivered, and the foregoing provisions shall not affect the right of any person to recover the whole property or any part thereof, from the person to whom such property has been delivered pursuant to such order. Power to take security.

(3) If no person establishes his right within the prescribed time, such property shall be at the disposal of the Government and the said property or part thereof which has not been sold under sub-section (2) of section 40 may be sold by auction under the orders of the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad.]. Property to be at the disposal of Government in case no claim or objection is filed.

CATTLE POUNDS.

42. (1) The *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] shall from time to time appoint such places as he thinks fit to be cattle pounds, and a Police officer of such rank shall be appointed as pound-keeper as the Government may approve. Power to establish pounds for cattle and to appoint keeper.

(2) Every pound-keeper so appointed shall discharge his duties subject to the orders of the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad.].

Impounding of cattle.

43. It shall, be the duty of every Police officer, and shall be lawful for any other person, to seize and impound in any Government pound any cattle found straying in any street or trespassing upon any private or Government property within the Hyderabad City Police limits.

Delivery of cattle.

44. (1) If the owner of the impounded cattle or his agent appears and claims delivery of such cattle, the pound-keeper shall deliver the said cattle to him on payment of the pound fees and the actual expenses in respect of such cattle fixed under sub-section (4).

(2) If, within ten days from the date of impounding any animal, no person who is the owner of such animal appears and pays the fees and expenses specified in sub-section (4), such cattle shall be forthwith sold by auction, and the surplus remaining after deducting the fees and expenses aforesaid from the proceeds of the sale, shall be paid to any person who, within fifteen days from the date of sale, appears before the officer appointed by the * [Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] for this purpose and proves to his satisfaction that he is the owner of the said animal. In other cases such proceeds of sale shall be appropriated by the Government.

(3) No Police officer or pound-keeper shall directly or indirectly purchase any cattle at a sale under sub-section (2).

<sup>21</sup>[(4) (a) Fines in respect of the following cattle impounded in accordance with the foregoing provisions shall be levied at the rates shown against each of them namely:—

the Secretary concerned to annul, alter or amend such rule or order stating that the same is unlawful or oppressive.

When suit shall lie to declare order unlawful.

(2) If such an application has been wholly or in part rejected or if after the lapse of four months no answer thereto or decision thereon has been received from or published by the Government, it shall be competent to the person interested to institute a suit against the Government for a declaration that such order or rule is unlawful either wholly or in part. Any such rule or order finally adjudged by a Court to be unlawful shall be annulled or so altered or amended as to make it conformable to law.

Specifying condition etc., in licences and permits.

84. (1) Any written permission or licence granted under this Act to any person, shall specify the period and locality for which, and the conditions and restrictions subject to which, the person to whom the permission or licence is granted shall act, and shall be signed by the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad]; and such fee shall be charged therefor as may be prescribed by rules made under this Act in this behalf.

Suspension, revocation of licence etc.

(2) Any written permission or licence granted under this Act may be suspended or revoked by the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] if the person to whom the written permission or licence has been granted infringes or evades compliance with its conditions and restrictions, or is convicted of any offence in any matter which relates to such licence or written permission.

When licence is suspended or revoked the person shall be deemed without licence.

(3) When any such licence or written permission is suspended or revoked or when the period for which the same was granted has expired, the person to whom the same was granted shall be deemed to be without a licence or permission, until the order of suspension or revocation is cancelled by the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] or until the same is renewed.

- (4) Every person to whom any licence or written permission has been granted shall, while the licence or written permission remains in force, at all reasonable times produce the same before a Police officer when required. Production of licence on demand.
85. Any notification required to be published under this Act, shall be in writing and shall be published by affixing in any conspicuous place in the locality where it is intended to be published, or by proclaiming the same with beat of drum, or by advertising the same in any local newspaper or by any other means which the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] may think fit or by any two or more of the aforesaid means as may be suitable. Mode of publication of notification.
86. Whenever under this Act any act or omission or the validity of any act depends upon the consent, approval, opinion or satisfaction of the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] or of any other Police officer, a document signed by the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] or by such Police officer, purporting to set forth consent, approval, opinion or satisfaction shall be deemed sufficient evidence thereof. Permission etc., of *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] may be proved by writing under his signature.
87. Save any summonses, warrants, or search warrants, required, by the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder, to be signed by the *[Commissioner of City Police, Hyderabad] every licence or written permission or notification or document shall be deemed to be duly signed if it bears a facsimile of his signature stamped thereon. Notifications may be signed by seal.
88. (1) No Magistrate or Police officer shall be liable to any penalty or to payment of any damages on account of any act done or intended to be done in good faith in the discharge of his duties or exercise of powers under the provisions of this Act or in accordance with any rule or order or direction issued or rules made thereunder. Saving for Magistrate or Police officer for any act done in good faith in discharge of duties.

(2) No Government servant or person who has been duly appointed or authorized shall be liable to payment of the penalty or damages as aforesaid for giving effect in good faith to any such order or direction purporting to be issued by the Government or by any person authorised in that behalf under this Act or under any rule made under this Act.

Prosecution or suit to be filed within three months.

(3) If a Magistrate or Police officer or other person is charged with an offence or a wrong in respect of an act done by him under colour of his functions or in excess of his powers or duties as aforesaid, or wherein it shall appear to the Court that the offence or wrong with which any Magistrate or Police officer or other person has been charged, or which has been committed by him is of the character aforesaid, any suit or prosecution instituted after three months from the date on which the act is done, shall not be entertained and shall be dismissed.

Suits in certain cases shall be dismissed.

(4) If the plaint relating to such suit does not expressly allege that the act complained of has been done with malicious intent and without reasonable cause, such suit shall be dismissed, and if in a suit for damages tender of sufficient amends is made by the defendant before the institution of the suit, or a sufficient sum of money is paid into Court, with costs by or on behalf of the defendant, after the institution of the suit, such suit shall be dismissed.
