(iii) where a Shikmidar is declared to be a pattadar in respect of any land under clause (i) or clause (ii), the former pattadar of that land, who has not received the price payable therefor from the Shikmidar, shall within a period of one year from the date of intimation to him, apply to the Deputy Collector for the determination of the reasonable price to be paid to the former pattadar for that land by the Shikmidar;

(iv) on receipt of an application under clause (iii), the Deputy Collector shall give notice to the applicant and the Shikmidar who is declared as pattadar and to all other persons who appear to him to be interested, of the date, time and place at which he proposes to enquire into the application and on the completion of the enquiry, he shall determine the reasonable price payable for the land by the Shikmidar to the former pattadar:

99. Substituted by Act No.13 of 1969.

Provided that the amount so determined as reasonable price shall not be more than ten times and less than eight times the difference between the rent paid or payable by the Shikmidar to the former pattadar for the year 1952 and the land revenue paid or payable for that year by the former pattadar to the Government in respect of that land;

(v) where the Shikmidar fails to pay, in the manner and within the time prescribed, the reasonable price for the land in respect of which he has been declared as pattadar under clause (i) or clause (ii), as determined by the Deputy Collector, the amount so payable shall be recovered from the Shikmidar as an arrear of land revenue in the following manner and paid to the former pattadar of the land,-

(a) by the sale of the properties, if any, of the Shikmidar other than the land in respect of which the reasonable price is payable;

(b) where he has no properties other than such land or where the amount realised from such properties falls short of the reasonable price, by the sale of such land.

Explanation.-¹⁰⁰[In this section and in section 67-B],-

(i) the expression 'Shikmidar' shall, in relation to any land, include a person who shall be deemed to be a Shikmidar in respect of that land under section 67;

(ii) the expression 'pattadar' shall, in relation to any land, include any other person interested in that land but does not include a 'Shikmidar'.]

100. Substituted by Act No.13 of 1969.

¹⁰¹[67-B. (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act where, before the commencement of the Andhra Pradesh (Telangana Area) Land Revenue (Amendment) Act, 1964, any transferee has in good faith purchased or otherwise acquired the interests of the Shikmidar in the land either directly from the Shikmidar or from any other person who in good faith acquired such interests, and where such transferee is in possession of the land on such commencement, apply to the Deputy Collector within whose jurisdiction the land is situate for declaring him as pattadar of that land.

Validation of certain transfers of land and conferment of pattadari rights on transferees.

(2) Where transferee has made an application for declaring him to be a pattadar in respect of any land under sub-section (1), if the former pattadar has not received the price payable thereof from the transferee, the Shikmidar or any other person who in good faith purchased the interests of the Shikmidar in the land, such former pattadar shall, within a period of one year from the date of intimation to him by the Deputy Collector of such application, apply to the Deputy Collector for the determination of the reasonable price to be paid to him by the transferee.

(3) On receipt of an application under sub-section (2), the Deputy Collector shall give notice to the applicant and the transferee and to all other persons who appear to him to be interested, of the date, time and place at which he proposes to inquire into the application and on the completion of the enquiry, he shall determine the reasonable price payable for the land by the transferee to the applicant:

Provided that the amount so determined as reasonable price shall not be more than ten times and less than eight times the difference between the rent paid or payable by the

Shikmidar to the former pattadar for the year 1952 and the land revenue paid or payable for that year by the former pattadar to the Government in respect of that land.

(4) Where the transferee fails to pay, in the manner and within the time prescribed, the reasonable price for the land in respect of which he has applied to be declared as pattadar under sub-section (1), as determined by the Deputy Collector, the amount so payable shall be recovered from the transferee as an arrear of land revenue in the following manner and paid to the former pattadar referred to in sub-section (2), of the land,-

(a) by the sale of the properties, if any, of the transferee other than the land in respect of which the reasonable price is payable;

(b) where he has no properties other than such land or where the amounts realised from such properties falls short of the reasonable price, by the sale of such land.

(5) The Deputy Collector shall after satisfying himself that the price payable to the former pattadar referred to in sub-section (2) has been paid or has been deposited within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, require the transferee to deposit in the office of the Deputy Collector an amount equal to the registration fees and the stamp duty that would have been payable had the transfer been effected by a registered document in accordance with the provisions of the Indian Registration Act, 1908. On the deposit of such amount, the Deputy Collector shall issue a certificate in the prescribed form to the transferee declaring him as pattadar of that land and such certificate shall, notwithstanding anything in the Indian Registration Act, 1908, be conclusive evidence of such transfer.

68. A Shikmidar shall pay on the land held by him only so much of fixed rent or share of produce as may be due in accordance with the agreement entered into between him and the pattadar or pote-pattadar; and if no such agreement has been entered into as much as he was paying in accordance with the usage in previous years, and so long as he continues to pay the rent he shall not be evicted from the land in his possession.

Liability of Shikmidar to payment of land revenue.

69. The rent on the Shikmidar may be enhanced in the following cases only:-

When rent may be enhanced on Shikmidar.

(a) When after expiry of the term of settlement an enhancement in the assessment of land revenue on the land held by the Shikmidar is made by the ¹⁰²[Government] or at any time any new local tax is levied by the ¹⁰²[Government], the Shikmidar shall be liable to a proportionate increase, provided that no agreement to the contrary has been entered into.

(b) When the term of agreement between the pattadar and the Shikmidar expires and the right of the pattadar to enhance the rent after the expiry of the term has been agreed to under the agreement the enhancement may be made under the terms of the agreement.

(c) If, apart from the labour and expenses of the Shikmidar through the expenses of the pattadar or owing to other reasons the capacity or the area of the land is improved an enhancement may be made with regard to such improvement, provided that no agreement to the contrary has been entered into and enhancement shall not be made again within five years.

102. Amended by Act No.III of 1308 F.

When Shikmidar shall be entitled to reduction of rent.

70. A Shikmidar shall be entitled to a reduction of rent in the following cases only:-

(a) When any reduction in the land revenue in respect of land held by the Shikmidar is made by the ¹⁰³[Government] or any local tax is remitted by the ¹⁰³[Government] in proportion thereto provided that no agreement to the contrary exists.

(b) When it may be so provided in the agreement.

(c) When the area or capacity of the land is diminished owing to some reason, not being the result of an act of the Shikmidar, provided that no agreement to the contrary has been entered into.

Liability of Asami Shikmi respecting payment of rent and procedure when Shikmi relation is not desired to be maintained.

71. If no agreement has been entered into with the Asami Shikmi the same rent as was due for the previous year shall be recoverable either in cash or share of produce and if the Asami Shikmi has from the beginning taken possession of the land without any agreement, such rent shall be fixed as is realised for land of similar capacity from Asami Shikmis in the neighbourhood.

The pattadar shall not be entitled, after the commencement of the agricultural year, to make any variation without the consent of the Asami-Shikmi, in the terms or the rent for that year, or to evict the Asami from the land.

If the pattadar desires to vary the terms or evict the Asami for which there is no express agreement a written notice of enhancement of rent and other conditions of eviction shall be given to the opposite party three months before the termination of the agricultural year or if the person giving the notice so desires such notice may be given through the Tahsil Office under the rules made in this behalf.

If the Asami-shikmi agrees to the rent and terms he shall retain possession of the land during the following year, otherwise he shall relinquish the land. If he retains his possession notwithstanding the receipt of notice he shall be bound to pay the enhanced rent and observe the conditions set forth in the notice; and if the notice be for eviction the Asami Shikmi shall have no right of possession during the following year. Asami-Shikmi, after commencement of the agricultural year, shall not be authorised to relinquish the land for the whole year, without payment of rent, but if he desires to relinquish, he shall, as hereinbefore specified, notify the pattadar three months before the termination of the current agricultural year.

Application regarding enhancement or reduction of rent or eviction shall be presented and heard in the Tahsil.

72. If a pote-pattadar, shikmidar or Asami Shikmi does not pay the land revenue or rent in time, application in respect of the same may be presented in Tahsil within three years from the date of its becoming due and the decision of the Tahsil shall be enforced under the rules for the realisation of land revenue, but this procedure shall not be a bar to seek remedy in the Civil Court.

Application for arrears of land revenue or rent in Tahsil within three years.

73. If land revenue is wholly or partially remitted or suspended by the ¹⁰⁴[Government] the remission or suspension shall also apply to the rent of pote-pattadar, Shikmidar and Asami Shikmi according to the shares; provided that no agreement has been made to the contrary.

Penalty when proved that land holder has by force recovered any amount in excess of fixed land revenue or rent.

75. When it is proved to the ¹⁰⁶[Collector] regarding any land holder that he has unlawfully recovered from any shikmidar or Asami Shikmi an amount in excess of fixed land revenue or rent payable under the provisions of this Chapter, the ¹⁰⁶[Collector] shall get the amount recovered in excess refunded to the aggrieved person and may also levy on him a fine not exceeding the amount recovered in excess and the ¹⁰⁶[Collector] may also, if he deems fit, order to pay a portion of the amount of fine recovered to the aggrieved person by way of damages.

In default of payment of land revenue it shall be lawful in certain cases to cease and auction right of pattadar and make any co-occupant or other concerned person a pattadar.

76. When it appears to ¹⁰⁶[Collector] that a pattadar with intent to defraud or cause injury to shikmidar or other person interested in the number, has, wilfully not paid the land revenue and rendered the number liable to attachment and sale, the ¹⁰⁶[Collector] may, instead of attaching and selling the right of occupancy, attach only the title of such pattadar, and on condition of payment of the whole amount of land revenue due on that land cause the name of the Shikmidar or the person interested in such number to be entered as a pattadar in the village records. The person whose name may be so entered in the village records shall acquire the same rights as the original pattadar.

CHAPTER VII. SETTLEMENT AND PARTITION OF AREAS.

Government may introduce revenue survey into any part of Dominions.

Such survey may be made of the land of any village, town or city generally of such land only as the Government may direct; and subject to the orders of the Government the officers conducting such survey may exempt from survey any land the settlement of which does not appear expedient.

The entire power to control every such survey shall vest in the Government.]

78. The ¹⁰⁹[Survey officer] may require, by general notice or summons, the attendance of all land holders and all persons interested in such land, person or through an authorised agent acquainted with the facts and able to answer material questions, and the presence of village servants and officers concerned, who are, legally or by usage, bound to perform their functions by virtue of their offices and services and also take from them such assistance in the operation of survey as may not be inconsistent with their dignity and position.

Land holders etc., may be made by general notice or summons, to attend survey operations and assistance of village officers, and officers concerned may be taken.

79. Number of any cultivable land shall not be made of less or greater area than fixed by the ¹¹⁰[Government] for each district according to different types of land and a statement showing the area fixed shall, before the commencement of the survey, be displayed at a conspicuous place in each village. 102. No suit against the order of the ¹⁴³[Collector] made under section 101 shall be instituted in any Civil Court after one year from the date of the order.

Suit not to be instituted in Civil Court after one year from order of ¹⁴³[Collector].

CHAPTER IX. REALIZATION OF LAND REVENUE AND OTHER GOVERNMENT DEMANDS.

103. The person primarily liable for payment of land revenue for khalsa land, shall be the pattadar of such land, and for non-khalsa land the superior holder thereof.

Responsibility for payment of land revenue.

And when he fails to pay the land revenue, the land revenue may be recovered from the Shikmidar, or co-sharer of the superior holder or inferior holder or person in actual occupation of the land, but the amount which he may have paid to the pattadar or superior holder at the time of instalment or thereafter shall not be recovered from him, and the amount so recovered shall be refunded from that pattadar or superior holder.

PRIORITY OF ¹⁴⁴[GOVERNMENT] CLAIM FOR LAND REVENUE.

104. The demand on any land, for its land revenue shall have priority over other demands whether in respect of debts or mortgage or based on a decree of or attachment by a Court, and if the title to any land on which such Government demand is due is transferred, such land or its transferer shall not be discharged from such demand. If the demand for land revenue which cannot be recovered from the title to or existing produce of that land is due from a person, the liability for the payment of the land revenue shall have precedence over debt or decree of a Court also on his property other than the land on which the demand is due; provided that such property before it is forfeited for recovery of the said demand, is not sold or mortgage or given as a gift or otherwise transferred or hypothecated or attached.

Government demand to have priority over all claims.

Produce of land to be deemed as, hypothecated for payment of land revenue.

105. The produce of land for every year shall be deemed to have been hypothecated for land revenue due for that year.

PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES FOR SECURING LAND REVENUE.

Produce disposed of by sale etc., may be withheld till payment of land revenue.

106. When the produce of any land is wholly or partly sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of, whether by order of a Court or other competent department or with the desire of the land holder, the ¹⁴⁵[Collector] may prevent such produce being removed until the land revenue for the current year has been paid, though the date for the prescribed instalment has yet not arrived. But in no case shall a produce or a portion of the produce, which, has been sold, mortgaged or disposed of, be detained on account of land revenue of a period exceeding one year.

Power of Collector when apprehended that revenue shall not be recoverable.

107. If the ¹⁴⁵[Collector] has reason to believe that any land holder is a defaulter or it is apprehended that land revenue shall not be recoverable on any land in case the crop is reaped or the produce is sold,-

(a) he may require that the standing crop of the land liable to payment of land revenue shall not be reaped without a notice to himself or to the officer appointed by him for this work. Such notice shall be given in writing and returned with acknowledgment receipt and if the crop has been reaped,

145. Substituted for "Taluqdar" by the A.P.A.O. 1957.

(b) he may direct that such crop shall not be removed from the land on which it has been reaped, or from the place where it may have been stored, without the written permission of the ¹⁴⁶[Collector] or of other officer as aforesaid,

(c) he may appoint a watchman, fixing his pay, to watch that the standing crop is not unlawfully reaped or removed without permission. The pay of such watchman shall not exceed five rupees per month, and may be realized as an arrear of land revenue from the land holders; but if the produce could be watched through the village officers a paid watchman shall not be appointed.

108. Orders provided in clauses (a) and (b) of the preceding section may be issued generally to all the co-occupants or land holders or individually to any particular holder.

Issue of orders provided for in section 107 and penalty for contravention thereof.

If the orders be made generally to all land holders they shall be issued by proclamation to be made by beat of drum and a copy thereof shall be affixed at some conspicuous place in the village Chavdi. If the said orders be made individually they shall be issued separately to each holder concerned. Any person who contravenes the orders so issued or abets such contravention shall be liable, on conviction after a summary enquiry before the ¹⁴⁶[Collector] to a fine not exceeding double the amount of the land revenue on the land in respect of produce of which the offence is committed.

109. The ¹⁴⁶[Collector] shall not defer the reaping of the crop and its removal so as to damage the produce of the land and if the land revenue has not been paid within two months from the date of attachment or within such lesser time as the ¹⁴⁶[Collector] may fix in special cases, he shall either release

Attachment of village or part of village for land revenue.

110. If the holding consists of an entire village or of a part of a village and the ¹⁴⁷[Collector] has reason to believe that owing to a dispute among the sharers or for any other reason its land revenue will not be recoverable in the prescribed instalments, he may temporarily attach the village or part of the village and take it under his own management or entrust it to an officer or agent appointed by him for that work.

The provisions of section 125 shall also apply to any village or part of a village which has been temporarily attached under this section and the income of the village or part of the village in surplus after allowing the costs of attachment and management of the land, and the payment of the land revenue and of the cost of survey and settlement, if made under section 77 shall be kept in deposit for eventual payment to the person entitled to the same, or subject to the orders of the ¹⁴⁸[Board of Revenue], shall be paid by the ¹⁴⁷[Collector] to the person entitled to the same.

Precautionary measures to be suspended on security being furnished.

111. The precautionary measures provided for in sections 106 to 110 shall be suspended or relinquished if the person responsible for the payment of land revenue shall pay the entire costs of attachment and management of the land up to the time of relinquishment and shall furnish reliable security to the effect that the land revenue shall be paid on

MODE OF INSTALMENTS OF LAND REVENUE.

112. (1) Land revenue, except under the circumstances mentioned in sections 106 to 110, shall be payable in such instalments and on such dates and at such places, and to such persons as may be determined by order of the Government for this purpose.

Government to determine date and instalments for recovery of amount.

(2) No officer shall recover any instalment before the prescribed date.

DEFAULTERS.

113. An amount of land revenue not paid as above shall be called an arrear of land revenue and the persons from whom the arrear is due under section 103 or any other section shall be called defaulters.

Arrears and defaulter.

114. If any instalment be not fully paid even after the expiry of the prescribed time, the ¹⁴⁹[Collector] may adopt measures to recover both the entire amount of land revenue due by the defaulter for the current year and the interest or penalty as may be recovered according to a scale fixed by the ¹⁵⁰[Government]; but if he is satisfied that the arrear of land revenue is only due to poverty he may remit the penalty or interest and refund the same if already recovered.

Liability incurred in case of non-payment of arrears.

115. An account, certified by Peshkar or any other Taluqa officer, higher in rank than a Peshkar shall be conclusive evidence of the existence of the arrear its amount, or of the person by whom it is due. On receipt of such certified

Revenue officer to be subordinate to his superior.

145. In all official works and proceedings a Revenue officer shall be subject as to the place, time, and manner, of performing his duty, to the direction and control of his superior, provided there is no express provision in the law to the contrary.

Power to issue summons for evidence and producing document etc.

146. Every Revenue officer not lower in rank than a Peshkar of a Tahsil, ¹⁷⁵[the Assistant Settlement Commissioner] may issue summons to any person to be examined as a party or to give evidence as a witness or to produce any document or article, as the case may be, for the purposes of an enquiry which he is empowered to make. Such officer shall have all the powers which are vested in a Civil Court under the ¹⁷⁶[Code of Civil Procedure, 1908] to compel the attendance of person to whom summons has been issued or the production of document or other article.

Central Act 5 of 1908.

Every person to whom summonses have been issued shall attend either in person or by an agent as may be directed in the summons and state the truth upon any subject respecting which his statement or evidence is recorded and produce such document and articles as may be required.

Form, issue and service of summons.

147. The provisions of the ¹⁷⁶[Code of Civil Procedure, 1908] shall apply mutatis mutandis to the form, issue and service of summons.

Central Act 5 of 1908.

175. Substituted for the words "Madadgar Nazim Paimaish Bandobast or Madagar Nazim Land Records" (the Assistant Commissioner of Survey Settlement or the Assistant Commissioner of Land Records) by A.P.A.O. 1957.

176. Substituted for the expression "Hyderabad Civil Procedure Code" by the A.P.A.O. 1957.

148. If any party, in any formal or summary inquiry, shall desire the attendance of witnesses he shall follow the rules contained in the ¹⁷⁷[Code of Civil Procedure, 1908] regarding summons, allowance and sustenance to witnesses.

Code of Civil Procedure regarding sustenance allowances to be followed when party desires attendance of witnesses.

Central Act 5 of 1908.

FORMAL INQUIRY.

149. In a formal inquiry, the officer making the inquiry shall in his own hand record evidence in full ¹⁷⁸[XXX] or cause it to be recorded in his presence and under his personal superintendence that it may be audible to him and sign it.

Mode of recording evidence in formal inquiry.

The cases in which the officer making the inquiry is not able to record the evidence in his own hand, he shall, in the course of examination, make, in his own hand, a memorandum of the substance of the deposition of the witness and after signing it cause it to be put on the file. If such officer is not able to record such memorandum, he shall write the reason of his inability.

150. The competent officer shall after completing the inquiry write every decision in his own hand and fully record therein the grounds on which the decision is based.

Mode of writing of decisions.

SUMMARY INQUIRY.

151. In summary inquiry the competent officer shall, in the course of inquiry, record a minute of the proceedings in his own hand ¹⁷⁸[XXX], containing the material averments of the parties to the case, the gist of the evidence, and the

155. When, under the provisions contained in this Act, a defaulter or any other person is held liable to be arrested, such arrest shall be made upon a warrant of arrest issued by an officer competent to order the arrest, of such person.

Arrest to be made by warrant.

156. Every Revenue officer may, enter, whenever necessary for measurement, fixing of boundary marks or inspecting of boundaries, classification of soil, or assessment, or for any other necessity connected with the discharge of duty, any land or premises, whether such land or premises belongs to the ¹⁸¹[Government] or to any private individual and whether the revenue is partially or wholly realised from the land or not: Provided that he shall not enter into any house used as a dwelling without the permission of the occupier of the house and without giving twenty-four hours' previous notice, and on entering such a house due regard shall be had to the religious and social ideologies of the occupier of the house.

Power to enter upon land or premises when necessary.

157. Whenever a ¹⁸²[Collector] may desire to evict, under the provisions of this Act or any other law, any person having unlawful occupation of any land, such eviction shall be made in the following manner:-

Mode of evicting unlawful occupant.

(1) a notice shall be served on the unlawful occupant requiring him to vacate the land within a fixed period from the date of receipt of the notice;

(2) if it is not obeyed such person shall be evicted from the land by force;

181. Amended by Act No.III of 1308 F.

182. Substituted for "Taluqdar" by the A.P.A.O. 1957.

(3) if such eviction is resisted and obstructed by any person, the ¹⁸³[Collector] may hold before him a summary inquiry into the case and if satisfied after inquiry into the facts of the case that the resistance or obstruction was without any just cause and that such resistance and obstruction continues, shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the said person and keep him in custody in the office of the district, or Tahsil or send him with a warrant for imprisonment in the Civil Jail of the district for a period not exceeding thirty days, as may be necessary to prevent the obstruction and resistance.

Explanation:- Nothing in this section shall prevent proceedings against such person under the ¹⁸⁴[Indian Penal Code, 1860].

Central Act 45 of 1860.

¹⁸⁵[CHAPTER XI].
APPEAL, REVIEW AND REVISION.
