3. Land development and building construction.— (1) All land development and building construction in the State shall, subject to the provisions of section 9, be in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations made under the provisions of this Act.

(2) Any law in force in the State governing land development and building construction, in so far as it is inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or the rules and regulations made under the provisions of this Act, shall stand repealed.

Explanation.— In this section, unless the context otherwise requires, “law” includes any Ordinance, Orders, bye-laws, rules, regulations or notifications.

4. Power to make regulations and rules.— (1) The Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, frame regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, for carrying out the provisions of this Act by following the procedure specified in sections 5, 6 and 7.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, the Government shall make regulations providing for:—

(a) zoning of the land and it’s use;

- (b) general requirements for land development;
- (c) group housing;
- (d) sub-division of land including amalgamation of plots;
- (e) preservation and conservation;
- (f) procedure for seeking development permission from Corporation, Municipal Council, Panchayat and Planning and Development Authority;
- (g) any other aspect relating to planning and development.

(3) The Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, frame rules for carrying out the provisions of this Act.

(4) Every regulation and rules made under this section shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made, before the Legislative Assembly of Goa.

5. Public notice of the regulation.— The power to make regulations under section 4 shall be subject to the condition of previous publication and such publication shall be made in the Official Gazette and in at least three local newspapers having wide circulation inviting objections and suggestions from the public for a period of thirty days.

6. Steering Committee.— (1) The Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint a “Steering Committee” consisting of the Chief Minister, Government of Goa, as it’s Chairman, the Minister for Urban Development, Minister for Panchayats, Minister for Town and Country Planning, Chief Secretary, Secretary to the Government of Goa in charge of Urban Development, Secretary to the Government of Goa in charge of Panchayats and Secretary to the Government of Goa in charge of Town and Country Planning, as it’s members. The Chief Town Planner of the Town and Country Planning Department shall be it’s Member Secretary. The Government may co-opt an expert having vast knowledge in the field of town planning on the said Committee.

(2) The Steering Committee shall appoint a Sub-Committee consisting of the Director of Municipal Administration, Director of Panchayats, the Chairman or member of the Goa Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the Chairman or member of the Goa Chamber of Housing Industry, a representative each of registered local Chapter/Associations of Town Planners, Engineers and Architects to consider objections and suggestions received from the public and to submit a report within a period of two months from the date of it’s appointment to the Steering Committee or within such further period as the Steering Committee may from time to time extend on request of the Sub-Committee. The Senior Town Planner shall be the Member Secretary of the said Sub-Committee.

(3) The Steering Committee and the Sub-Committee shall meet at such intervals and transact such business as may be prescribed.

(4) The Steering Committee shall, after considering the report of the Sub-Committee, submit it’s report together with recommendations to the Government within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of the report of the Sub-Committee.

7. Regulations.— The Government shall, after receiving the report and recommendations of the Steering Committee, and after making such modifications as the Government considers necessary, direct the Chief Town Planner to notify the regulations.

8. Notification and effect.— On and from the date of the coming into force of the regulations framed under section 7, any land development and building construction in the State shall be in accordance with the provisions of such regulations.

9. Interim provision, pending finalization of regulations.— (1) All applications for land development permission or construction licenses for building submitted, before the date of commencement of regulations framed under section 7, shall be considered as per the law applicable before the commencement of this Act.

(2) (a) In respect of areas, which are not declared as planning areas under section 18 of the Goa Town and Country Planning Act, 1974 (Act 21 of 1975), no objection certificate shall be necessary to be obtained from the Town and Country Planning Department from planning point of view.

(b) Any application for land development or construction of building received by the Panchayat/Municipal Council/Municipal Corporation shall be forwarded by the concerned authority to the respective district level/taluka level office of the Town and Country Planning Department for obtaining no objection certificate from planning point of view.

(3) The Town and Country Planning Department shall consider the applications for issuing of No Objection Certificate if it is satisfied after such scrutiny of plan and/or site inspection, deemed to be necessary, that the proposed land development and/or construction of building is in conformity with:—

(a) Regional Plan for the State in force and the Outline Development Plans/Zoning Plans in force prior to 16th May, 2007.

(b) Planning and Development Authority (Development Plan) Regulations, 2000, published in the Official Gazette, Extraordinary No. 3, Series I No. 22, dated 28th August, 2003, with exception of regulations governing farm houses:

Provided that —

(a) no land development shall be permitted in any areas having gradient of more than 25%;

(b) farm houses shall be permitted only in plots with minimum area of 4,000 square meters and coverage 2.5 % and F.A.R. 5 and height 5.5 meters, following the guidelines issued by the Town and Country Planning Department;

(c) the F.A.R in the areas regulated as per Surface Utilization Plans of Regional Plan shall be 80.

10. Saving provision.— (1) Any land development permission/construction licence for building, etc., issued under the relevant laws applicable before the commencement of this Act, shall remain valid for all purposes including renewals.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), such development permission and/or construction licence for building shall not get immunity if such development permission or construction license is otherwise in accordance with this Act and rules and regulations framed thereunder.

11. Repeal and Saving.— (1) The Goa (Regulation of Land Development and Building Construction) Second Ordinance, 2008 (Ordinance No. 2 of 2008) is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the said Ordinance, shall be deemed to have been done or taken under this Act.
