

श्रीमान, दिनांक 21 मार्च 1982

8. 10528-इंजीनियरिंग (पा.)—गणराज्य में संविधान के अनुच्छेद 348 के अन्तर्गत (3) के अन्वय में सम्राट अशोक टेक्नॉलॉजिकल इंस्टीट्यूट (डिग्री) विदिशा (प्रबन्ध प्रणाली) अधिनियम, 1981 (अधिनियम संख्या 1 वर्ष 1982) का अंग्रेजी अनुवाद राज्यपाल के आदेश से एतद्वारा प्रकाशित किया जाता है।

मध्यप्रदेश के राज्यपाल के नाम से तथा धारणावृत्त, शिवनारायण जौहरी, उचिब

MADHYA PRADESH ACT

No. 11 of 1982

SAMRAT ASHOK TECHNOLOGICAL INSTITUTE (DEGREE)
VIDISHA (PRAMANEH GRAHAN) ADHINAYAM, 1981.

Table of contents

Sections

CHAPTER I—PRELIMINARY

1. Short title and commencement.
2. Definitions.

CHAPTER II—TAKING OVER OF THE MANAGEMENT OF THE INSTITUTE

3. Management of Institute to vest in the State Government for a limited period.
4. Consequences to ensue on and from appointed day.
5. Administrator of the Institute.
6. Advisory Council.
7. Delivery of possession of properties of the Institute. ...
8. Relinquishment of management before the specified period.
9. Tribunal.
10. Appeal.

CHAPTER III—MISCELLANEOUS

11. Act to have overriding effect.
12. Contracts, etc. cease to have effect unless ratified by the State Government.
13. Exclusion of period of operation of Act.
14. Protection of action taken in good faith.
15. Penalties.
16. Offence by companies.
17. Power to make rules.

MADHYA PRADESH ACT

No. 12 of 1982

SAMRAT ASHOK TECHNOLOGICAL INSTITUTE (DEGREE) VIDISHA
(PRABANDH GRAHAM) ADHINIYAM, 1981

[Received the assent of the President on the 16th April, 1982; assent first published in the "Madhya Pradesh Gazette (Extraordinary)" dated the 21st April, 1982.]

An Act to provide for the taking over, in the public interest, of the management of the Samrat Ashok Technological Institute (Degree) Vidisha, run and managed by Maharaja Jiwajirao Education Society, Vidisha, for the limited period in order to secure proper management thereof with the object of generally improving the academic atmosphere and maintenance of better educational standards in the field of Engineering and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

Be it enacted by the Madhya Pradesh Legislature in the Thirty-second Year of the Republic of India as follows :—

CHAPTER I—PRELIMINARY

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Samrat Ashok Technological Institute (Degree) Vidisha (Prabandh Graham Adhiniyam, 1981.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

Definitions.

2. In this Act unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Administrator" means the Administrator appointed under section 5;

(b) "Appointed day" means the date of commencement of this Act;

(c) "Institute" means the Samrat Ashok Technological Institute (Degree) Vidisha, an Engineering College run and managed by the Maharaja Jiwajirao Education Society, Vidisha;

(d) "Society" in relation to the Institute means the Maharaja Jiwajirao Education Society, Vidisha;

(e) "Society Registrickaran Act" means the Madhya Pradesh Society Registrickaran Achiriyam, 1973 (No. 44 of 1973).

CHAPTER II—TAKING OVER OF THE MANAGEMENT OF THE INSTITUTE

Management of Institute to vest in the State Government for a limited period.

3. (1) On and from the appointed day and for a period of three years thereafter, the management of institute shall vest in the State Government.

Provided that if the State Government is of opinion that in order to secure the proper management of the institute it is expedient that such management should continue to vest in the Government after the expiry of the such period of three years, it may, from time to time, issue directions for the continuance of such management for such period, not expiry of such period of three years, it may, from time to time, issue period for which such management shall continue to vest in the State Government shall not, in any case, exceed five years.

3) Institute shall be deemed to have all the assets, rights, liabilities, powers, authorities and immovables, and all property (movable and immovable), including lands, buildings, works, workshops, projects, stores, instruments, machinery, motor cars and other vehicles, cash balances, funds, including reserve funds, investments and bank accounts of the Society as form part of, or are attributable to Institute and all other rights and interests arising out of such properties as were immediately before the appointed day in the ownership, possession, power or control of the Society, and all books of account, registers, maps, plans and all other documents of whatever nature relating thereto ;

Provided that if any building was immediately before the appointed day also used by the Society or any person other than the purpose of the Institute, the State Government may allow use of such building for that purpose.

4. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or in the memorandum or the rules and regulations of the Society:—

- (a) on and from the appointed day every member of the Governing Body of the Society, by whatever name called, shall cease to exercise any powers of management in relation to Institute;
- (b) it shall not be lawful for the Society or any other person to nominate or appoint any person as Manager or Director of so much of the assets of the Society as are or may be related to Institute;
- (c) no resolution in relation to Institute passed at any meeting of the members of the Society shall be given effect to unless it is approved by the State Government;
- (d) no proceedings for the dissolution of the Society or merger of the Society with any other Society or for the appointment of a receiver in respect of any assets forming part of, or relating to the Institute the management of which has vested in the State Government under section 3, shall be in any court except with the consent of the State Government.

5. (1) The State Government shall, as from the appointed day, appoint a person or a body of persons as the Administrator for the purpose of taking over the management of the Institute and the Administrator shall carry on the management of the Institute in accordance with the wishes of the Council. Administrator of Institute

(2) The Administrator may authorise such person as he thinks fit also to exercise all or any of the powers exercisable by him under this Act and different persons may be authorised to exercise different powers and subject to the general or special directions given or imposed by the Administrator, the persons so authorised to exercise any power of the Administrator may exercise the powers in the same manner and with the same effect as if they had been conferred on that person directly by the Administrator by way of authorisation.

(3) If, on the appointed day, any suit, appeal or other proceedings of whatever nature, in relation to any matter which has vested in the State Government under section 3, instituted or commenced by or against the Society is pending, the same shall not abate, be discontinued or be, in any way, proceedings initiated by reason of the taking over of the management of Institute or anything done in this Act but the suit, appeal or other proceedings may be initiated, commenced or enforced by or against the State Government.

(4) The State Government may issue such directions (including directions as to initiation, defending or continuing any legal proceedings before any court, tribunal or other authority) to the Administrator, as to his powers and duties as the Government may deem desirable and the Administrator may apply to the State Government at any time for instructions as to the manner in which he shall conduct the management of the Institute or in relation to any matter arising out of the management.

(5) Subject to the other provisions of this Act and to the control of the State Government, the Institute shall be deemed, notwithstanding anything contained in the Act or in the Society Regulation - Adhivyan, 1971 (No. 47) or in any other law for the time being in force, to exercise in relation to the Institute, the powers of the Governing Body or Executive Committee of the case may be of the Board of Trustees of the Society, including powers to dispose of any property or assets of the Society, whether such powers are derived from this Act or from the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Society or from any other source.

(6) The Administrator or any other persons authorized by him under sub-section (2) shall not draw from the funds of the Society relatable to the Institute such moneys as the State Government may fix.

6. (1) As soon as may be after the commencement of this Act in any case within the meaning of such commencement, the State Government shall constitute, by notification in the Official Gazette, an Advisory Council.

(2) The Council shall be constituted on a motion or on a reference made to it by the State Government, or by the State Government on any matter concerning the management of the Institute.

(3) In order to carry out the State Government, the Council shall endeavour to secure that

- (a) the standard of education is maintained;
- (b) adequate provision is made for the maintenance of the Institute;
- (c) such other matters pertaining to the Institute as may be prescribed.

(4) The Council shall consist of such number of members not exceeding eleven as may be determined by the State Government, five from amongst persons who are at all times engaged or connected with technical education, and the rest from amongst the senior officers of the State.

(5) The State Government may nominate one member to be the Chairman of the Council.

(6) The term of office of the members of the Council shall be such as may be determined by the State Government, and the Council may be reconstituted from time to time, if any part of the members of the Council shall be found to be vacated.

(7) The Council may make such rules that may be made in this behalf, as may be necessary to regulate its own procedure.

(8) Any person who is employed by the State Government in his possession, custody, control or management of any property or movable or immovable property shall be deemed to be in the possession, custody, control or management of the Institute if such property is being used for the purposes of the Institute or is being used for the purposes of the State Government as may be authorised by the State Government in this behalf.

D-11
 11/11/72
 11/11/72

...of documents...

- (v) recording evidence on oath;
- (vi) signing any public record from any court or office;
- (vii) making commissions for the examination of witnesses or documents;
- (viii) any other matter that may be prescribed.

(3) The Commission shall have power to regulate its own procedure in all matters relating to the discharge of its functions (including the place or places at which it may hold its sittings).

(4) Expenses incurred in connection with the Tribunal shall be defrayed out of the Consolidated Fund of the State.

Appeal.

(1) Any appeal against the decision of the Tribunal under section 9 may be preferred to the High Court on the date of such decision or after an appeal to the High Court.

Provided that the High Court may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the period specified in this section if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within the period aforesaid.

MISCELLANEOUS to have...

...of a law.

(1) No provision of this Act or any notification, order or rule made thereunder shall be deemed to be inconsistent with any law in force in this State or in any instrument having effect by virtue of any law in force in this State or in any decree or order of any court.

contracts, etc.
...of the
...by the
...Governor

(2) Every contract entered into by the Government or other authority in connection with the management of any Government undertaking or any Government property shall, on and from the date of its expiry, terminate and shall cease to have effect unless such contract has been approved, before the expiry of that period, in writing by the Government, and in relation to such contract the Government may make such alterations or modifications as it may think fit.

(3) No contract entered into by the Government or other authority shall be deemed to be void or voidable on the ground that it is ultra vires or that it is not in conformity with any law or that it is not in conformity with any provision of this Act or that it is not in conformity with any provision of any other law.

(4) No contract entered into by the Government or other authority shall be deemed to be void or voidable on the ground that it is not in conformity with any provision of this Act or that it is not in conformity with any provision of any other law.

(5) No contract entered into by the Government or other authority shall be deemed to be void or voidable on the ground that it is not in conformity with any provision of this Act or that it is not in conformity with any provision of any other law.

(6) No contract entered into by the Government or other authority shall be deemed to be void or voidable on the ground that it is not in conformity with any provision of this Act or that it is not in conformity with any provision of any other law.

... to whom any compensation or other arrangement is made...

... to whom any compensation or other arrangement is made...

... In consequence of the exercise of any power conferred by this Act...

... described in any one of the sections of the Act...

... The National Council for the State Government...

... proceedings shall be taken for the protection of any employee...

... No person shall be liable for any action taken by the Administration...

... against the State Government or the Administration...

... The Government shall be liable for any loss or damage...

... in consequence of any action taken by the Administration...

... The Government shall be liable for any loss or damage...

... in consequence of any action taken by the Administration...

... The Government shall be liable for any loss or damage...

... in consequence of any action taken by the Administration...

... The Government shall be liable for any loss or damage...

... in consequence of any action taken by the Administration...

... When any person is appointed to any office...

... he shall be deemed to have accepted the office...

... The Government shall be liable for any loss or damage...

... in consequence of any action taken by the Administration...

... The Government shall be liable for any loss or damage...

... in consequence of any action taken by the Administration...

Pendule

Order by...

of, any director, manager, secretary or director, manager, secretary or other person who is liable to be fined.

(b) In this section,

"corporate body" means a firm or individual;

"firm" means a partnership firm;

and, by no means in the rules to the general powers, the following shall apply:-

(a) the council shall have the clause (section 6);

(b) of billing cannot be among other remuneration payable under section 6;

(c) of which the bill of exchange under clause (1) of section (2) of shall be, or may be, applied in any mode, under the shall be laid on the table of the

MADHYA PRADESH ACT
No. 11 of 1982
SAMRAT ASHOK TECHNOLOGICAL INSTITUTE (DEGREE)
VIDISHA (PRABANDH GRAHAN) ADHINIYAM, 1981

Table of contents

Sections

CHAPTER I - PRELIMINARY

1. Short title and commencement.
2. Definitions

CHAPTER II - TAKING OVER OF THE MANAGEMENT OF THE INSTITUTE

3. Management of Institute to vest in the State Government for a limited period.
4. Consequences to ensue on and from appointed day.
5. Administrator of the Institute.
6. Advisory Council
7. Delivery of possession of properties of the Institute
8. Relinquishment of management before the specified period.
9. Tribunal
10. Appeal.

CHAPTER III - MISCELLANEOUS

11. Act to have overriding effect.
12. Contracts, etc, cease to have effect unless ratified by the State Government.
13. Exclusion of period of operation of Act.
14. Protection of action taken in good faith.
15. Penalties
16. Offence by companies
17. Power to make rules.

MADHYA PRADESH ACT

No. 11 of 1982

SAMRAT ASHOK TECHNOLOGICAL INSTITUTE (DEGREE) VIDISHA
(PRABANDH GRAHAN) ADHINIYAM, 1981

(Received the assent of the President on the 16th April, 1982; assent first published in the "Madhya Pradesh Gazette (Extraordinary)" dated the 21st April, 1982)

An Act to provide for the taking over, in the public interest, of the management of the Samrat Ashok Technological Institute (Degree) Vidisha, run and managed by Maharaja Jiwajirao Education Society, Vidisha, for the limited period in order to secure proper management thereof with the object of generally improving the academic atmosphere and maintenance of better educational standards in the field of Engineering and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

Be it enacted by the Madhya Pradesh Legislature in the Thirty-second Year of the Republic of India as follows :-

CHAPTER I - PRELIMINARY

- Short title and commencement 1. (1) This Act may be called the Samrat Ashok Technological Institute (Degree) Vidisha (Prabandh Grahan) Adhiniyam, 1981
(2) It shall come into force at once
- Definitions 2. In this Act unless the context otherwise requires, -
(a) "Administrator" means the Administrator appointed under section 5;
(b) "Appointed day" means the date of commencement of this Act;
(c) "Institute" means the Samrat Ashok Technological Institute (Degree) Vidisha, an Engineering College run and managed by the Maharaja Jiwajirao Education Society, Vidisha;
(d) "Society" in relation to the Institute means the Maharaja Jiwajirao Education Society, Vidisha;
(e) "Society Registrickaran Act" means the Madhya Pradesh Society Registrickaran Adhiniyam, 1973 (No. 44 of 1973)

CHAPTER II - TAKING OVER OF THE MANAGEMENT OF THE INSTITUTE

- Management of Institute to vest in the State Government for limited period 3. (1) On and from the appointed day and for a period of three years thereafter, the management of institute shall vest in the State Government.
Provided that if the State Government is of opinion that in order to secure the proper management of the Institute it is expedient that such management should continue to vest in the Government after the expiry of the such period of three years, it may, from time to time, issue directions for the continuance of such management for such period, not expiry of such period of three years, it may from time to time, issue period for which such management shall continue to vest in the State Government shall not, in any case, exceed five years.

(2) Institute shall be deemed to include all the assets, rights, leaseholds, powers, authorities and privileges, and all property (movable and immovable), including lands, buildings, works, workshops, projects, stores, instruments, machinery, automobiles and other vehicles, cash balances, funds, including reserve funds, investments and book debts of the Society as form part of, or are relatable to Institute and all other rights and interests arising out of such properties as were immediately before the appointed day in the ownership, possession, power or control of the Society, and all books of account, registers, maps, plans and all other documents of whatever nature relating thereto :

Provided that if any building was immediately before the appointed day also used by the Society for any purpose other than the purpose of the Institute, the State Government may allow use of such building for that purpose.

4. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or in the memorandum or the rules and regulations of the Society :-

consequences to ensue on and from appointed day

(a) on and from the appointed day every member of the Governing Body of the Society, by whatever name called, shall cease to exercise any powers of management in relation to Institute :

(b) it shall not be lawful for the Society or any other person to nominate or appoint any person as Manager or Director of so much of the assets of the Society as form part of, or are relatable to Institute ;

(c) no resolution in relation to Institute passed at any meeting of the members of the Society shall be given effect to unless it is approved by the State Government ;

(d) no proceedings for the dissolution of the Society or merger of the Society with any other Society or for the appointment of a receiver in respect of any asset forming part of, or relatable to the Institute the management of which has vested in the State Government under section 3, shall lie in any court except with the consent of the State Government.

5. (1) The State Government shall, as from the appointed day, appoint a person or a body of persons as the Administrator for the purpose of taking over the management of the Institute and the Administrator shall carry on the management of the Institute in accordance with the advice of the Council.

Administrator of Institute

(2) The Administrator may authorise such person as he thinks fit also to exercise all or any of the powers exercisable by him under this Act and different persons may be authorised to exercise different powers, and subject to the general or special directions given or imposed by the Administrator, the person so authorised to exercise any power of the Administrator may exercise those powers in the same manner and with the same effect as if they had been conferred on that person directly by this Act and not by way of authorisation.

(3) If, on the appointed day, any suit, appeal or other proceeding, of whatever nature, in relation to any property which has vested in the State Government under section 3, Instituted or preferred by or against the Society is pending, the same shall not abate, be discontinued or be, in any way, prejudicially affected by reason of the taking over of the management of Institute or of anything contained in this Act but the suit, appeal or other proceeding may be pursued, prosecuted or enforced by or against the State Government.

(4) The State Government may issue such directions (including directions as to initiating, defending or continuing any legal proceedings before any court, tribunal or other authority) to the Administrator, as to his powers and duties as that Government may deem desirable and the Administrator may apply to the State Government at any time for instructions as to the manner in which he shall conduct the management of the Institute or in relation to any matter arising in the course of such management.

(5) Subject to the other provisions of this Act and to the control of the State Government, the Administrator shall be entitled, notwithstanding anything contained in the Madhya Pradesh Society Registration Adhiniyam, 1973 (No. 44 of 1973), or in any other law for the time being in force, to exercise, in relation to the Institute, the powers of the Governing Body or Executive Committee or, as the case may be, of the Board of Trustees of the Society, including the powers to dispose of any property or assets of the Society, whether such powers are derived from that Act or from the memorandum and rules and regulations of the Society or from any other source.

(6) The Administrator and the other persons authorised by him under subsection (2) shall receive from the funds of the Society relatable to the Institute such remuneration as the State Government may fix.

Advisory Council

6. (1) As soon as may be after the commencement of this Act and in any case within one month from such commencement, the State Government shall constitute, by notification, a Council to be called the Advisory Council.

(2) The Council may on its own motion or on a reference made to it by the State Government advise the State Government on any matter concerning the management of the Institute.

(3) In tendering any advice to the State Government, the Council shall endeavour to secure that —

- (a) standard of Engineering Education is maintained ;
- (b) institute is properly managed; and
- (c) such other matters pertaining to the institute as may be prescribed.

(4) The Council shall consist of such number of members not exceeding eleven as may be appointed by the State Government five from amongst persons, who in its opinion are connected with technical education, and the rest from amongst the executive officers of the State.

(5) The Minister of Education shall be the Chairman of the Council.

(6) The term of office of, the method of filling casual vacancies among, and the allowances and other remuneration, if any, payable to the members of the Council shall be such as may be prescribed.

(7) The Council shall, subject to any rules that may be made in this behalf under section 17, have power to regulate its own procedure.

Delivery of possession of properties of the institute

7. (1) Every person having, on the appointed day, in his possession, custody or control any property forming part of, or relatable to, Institute shall deliver forthwith such property to the Administrator or to any officer or other employee of the State Government as may be authorised by the State Government in this behalf.

(2) Any person who has, on the appointed day, in his possession or under his control any books, papers or other documents relating to Institute (including the minutes books containing resolutions in relation to the Institute adopted by persons in charge of the management of the Society before the appointed day), the current cheque books relating to Institute any letters, memoranda, notes and other communications between him and the Society, shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, be liable to account for the books, papers and other documents (including such minutes books, cheque books, letters, memoranda, notes and other communications) to the Administrator or to such person (being an officer or other employee of the State Government) as may be authorised by the State Government in this behalf.

(3) Every person in-charge of the management of Institute immediately before the appointed day shall, within ten days from that day or with such further period as the State Government may allow in this behalf, furnish to the Administrator a complete inventory of all the properties and assets (including particulars of donations received, book debts, investments and belongings) forming part of, or relatable to, Institute immediately before the appointed day and all liabilities and obligations of the Society in relation to Institute subsisting immediately before that day and also of all agreements entered into by the Society in relation to Institute and in force immediately before the appointed day.

8. (1) If at any time it appears to the State Government that the purpose for which the management of Institute had been taken over have been fulfilled or that for any other reason it is not necessary that the management of Institute should remain vested in that Government, it may, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) of section 3, by order published in the Official Gazette, relinquish the management of Institute with effect from such date as may be specified in the order. All liabilities of the State Government in relation to the Institute shall cease on such date.

Relinquishment of management before the specified period

(2) On and from the date specified in the order made under sub-section (1) the management of the property of the Society forming part of, or relatable to, Institute, shall vest in the Government Body (by whatever name called) of the Society and such management shall be carried on in accordance with the provisions of the Society Registration Act, 1973, so that the steps, if any, in relation to the management of the property of the Society forming part of, or relating to, Institute, may be taken after issue of the order made under sub-section 1).

9. (1) If any dispute or doubt arises as to whether any asset, right, lease- Tribunal hold, power, authority, privilege, property (whether movable or immovable) including any land, building works, workshop, project, stores, instruments machinery, automobiles or other vehicles, cash balances, funds (including reserve funds) investments and book debts forms or form part of, or is or are relating to Institute for the purposes of section 3, such dispute or doubt shall at the request of the Society or the Administrator or any other person interested or at the instance of the State Government, be referred to a Tribunal consisting of one member (being a person who is or has been a District Judge) to be appointed by the State Government.

(2) The Tribunal shall, for the purposes of any reference under sub-section (1), have all the powers of a civil court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in respect of the following matters, namely : —

(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath :

(b) requiring the discovery and production of documents producible as evidence;

(c) recording evidence on oath;

(d) requisitioning any public record from any court or office;

(e) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses or documents;

(f) such other matter as may be prescribed.

(3) The Tribunal shall have power to regulate its own procedure in all matters arising out of the discharge of its functions (including the place or places at which it shall hold its sittings).

(4) All expenses incurred in connection with the Tribunal shall be defrayed out of the Consolidated Fund of the State.

Appeal

10. Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Tribunal under section 9 may, within thirty days from the date of such decision, prefer an appeal to the High Court.

Provided that the High Court may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within the period aforesaid.

CHAPTER III - MISCELLANEOUS

Act to have overriding effect

11. The provisions of this Act or any notification, order or rule made there under shall have effect notwithstanding anything in consistent therewith contained in any law other than this Act or in any instrument having effect by virtue of any law other than this Act of in any decree or order of any court.

Contracts, etc. cease to have effect unless ratified by the State Government

12. (1) Every contract (including any contract of employment or other arrangement) entered into by the Society in relation to institute the management of which has vested in the State Government under section 3, and in force immediately before the appointed day, shall, on and from the date of expiry of ninety days from the appointed day cease to have effect unless such contract or other arrangement has been, before the expiry of that period, ratified, in writing by the State Government, and in ratifying such contract or other arrangement, the State Government may make such alterations or modifications therein as it may think fit :

Provided that the State Government shall not omit to ratify any contract or other arrangement and shall not make any alteration or modification therein

(a) unless it is satisfied that such contract or other arrangement is unduly onerous or has been entered into in bad faith or is detrimental to the interest of Institute, and

(b) except after giving the parties to the contract or other arrangement a reasonable opportunity of being heard and except after recording in writing, its reasons for refusal to ratify the contract or other arrangement or for making any alteration or modification therein.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, no person in respect of whom any contract or agreement or other arrangement is terminated altered or modified under sub-section (1), or who ceases to exercise any powers or hold any office by reason of any provision contained in sub-section (1) of Section 4, shall be entitled to claim any compensation for the premature termination of the contract or agreement or other arrangement or for any alteration or modification therein or for the loss of his powers or office.

13. In computing the period of limitation prescribed by any law for the time being in force for any suit or application against any person by the Society in respect of any matter arising out of any transaction relating to institute, the time during which this Act is in force shall be excluded.

Exclusion of period of operation of Act.

14. (1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the State Government or any officer or other employee of the Government or the Administrator or any person authorised under sub-section (2) of Section 5 by the Administrator for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

Protection of action taken in good faith

(2) No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the State Government or any officer or other employee of that Government or the Administrator or any person authorised under sub-section (2) of Section 5 by the Administrator for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

15. Any person who , —

Penalties

- (a) having in his possession or custody or control any asset or property forming part of or relating to Institute wrongfully withholds such property from the Administrator or any person authorised under this Act, or
- (b) wrongfully obtains possession of any such asset or property forming part of, or relating to Institute, or
- (c) wilfully retains any asset or property forming part of, or relating to Institute or removes or destroys it, or
- (d) wilfully withholds or fails to deliver any books, papers or other documents relating to Institute which may be in his possession or custody or under his control to the Administrator or any person authorised under this Act, or fails to account therefore, or
- (e) fails, without any reasonable cause, to furnish any information or particulars or to furnish any inventory of properties and assets as provided in sub-section (3) of Section 7, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees, or with both.

16. (1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly :

Offence by companies

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where any offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation :- For the purposes of this Section,-

(a) "company" means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) "director" in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

Power to make rules

17. (1) The State Government may, by notification make rules to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :-

(a) the additional matters which the Advisory Council shall secure under clause (c) of sub-section (3) of Section 6;

(b) the term of office of, the method of filling casual vacancies among and the allowances and other remuneration, if any, payable to the members of the Advisory Council under sub-section (6) of Section 6;

(c) the additional matters in respect of which the Tribunal shall have the powers of a Civil Court under clause (f) of sub-section (2) of Section 9; and

(d) any other matter which is required to be, or may be, prescribed or in respect of which rules may be made, under this Act.

(3) Every rule made under this Act shall be laid on the table of the Legislative Assembly.